SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT TO CROWN COUNSEL

Firearms Affidavit and Authorization to Transport

As set out in the Report to Crown Counsel, Constable KAM and other police officers made requests for FOX's Firearms Licence and registered weapons information. On June 20, 2016, Constable MACKAY attended the Firearms office and retrieved an affidavit from Allen LEUNG, Firearms Officers for the Province of British Columbia. The affidavit states that:

- FOX holds a valid Possession and Acquisition Licence, number 12804668.0001 that was issued on June 10, 2014 allowing him to possess and acquire non-restricted and restricted firearms;
- FOX holds a valid Authorization to Transport ("ATT"), ATT number 02001153497, valid for the 4 year period from July 10, 2014 to November 24, 2018;
- The ATT authorizes the transport of FOX's restricted firearms from his residence at 203-3846 Sunset Street, Burnaby, to all approved ranges, licences gunsmiths and border crossings in BC and the Yukon, and also listed further conditions.

See attached affidavit and supporting documents.

A further request was made by Corporal Frank GROSSPIETSCH on September 30, 2016, to the Canadian Firearms Registry asking for further information on FOX's firearms licence and registered firearms. Angie MCKLUSKY produced an affidavit documenting the 4 registered firearms for FOX, their current location with the ATF and the records related to their ATT.

See attached 31 pages for reference.

Investigators comments: At this time the only report police are waiting for is from the ATF, but it is not known if this will be produced as they may not have any records associated to FOX's firearms.

Canada Border Services Agency Request

On June 25, 2016, Constable KAM had made a request to the CBSA through a Customs Act, Section 107 request. On September 20, 2016, the CBSA provided a report prepared by Officer ARRIAZA that documents their assistance with FOX being returned to Canada on June 16, 2016. During this time, FOX was found to be in possession of his BC Drivers Licence and Firearms Possession and Acquisitions licence.

US Border Patrol Report

On August 13, 2016, a request was made to the US Border Patrol for disclosure of information relating to FOX's arrest on May 27, 2016. A 4 page redacted report was provided by US Border Patrol documenting FOX's arrest. This was the only information provided.

Request to Canada Border Services Agency (CBSA)

On September 30, 2016, Corporal WILCOTT followed up with the CBSA as a request had previously been made by Constable KAM for information related to FOX's return to Canada on June 16. A 6 page report was provided by CBSA documenting the transfer of FOX and the items in his possession.

Production Order for CBC

On October 7, 2016, Constable Leslie SMITH was granted a Production Order for the CBC to produce the video recorded interview of FOX. The Order was granted by Judicial Justice Brent ADAIR. The Order was later served on Counsel for the CBC on October 11, 2016.

CBC has since made notice on October 25, 2016, that they will be challenging the Order.

Disclosure of material in police file 2015-15750

As requested, please find attached 5 reports prepared by Constable JUBBAL regarding Burnaby RCMP file 2015-15750. This file was initiated on April 10, 2015 and an attempt was made to have FOX's website shut down, but since it was run in the United States this request was denied. The file was ultimately concluded to Burnaby RCMP file 2015-32597.

Review of material in police file 2015-32597

On September 23, 2016, Corporal WILCOTT reviewed the investigative materials provided in 2015-32597 and located a 9 page indictment in the US District Court of Arizona, where FOX was charged with perjury and false claim to citizenship. The document is date stamped on July 2, 2018. A second document covers the sentence for FOX (then known as Richard REISS) was sentenced to 24 months, dated February 13, 2009.

Website information from www.desireecapitano.com was also located with blog entries between July 13, 2015 and September 8, 2013, which lists CAPUANO's home address and contact information.

On Saturday June 20, 2015 at 1123hrs Cst JUBBAL read numerous documents provided by Desiree CAPUANO. Desiree and Patrick FOX Alias Rick RIESS both started their relationship in 2000. Both have a son by the name of Gabriel CAPUANO and share joint custody. FOX's residence is located at 203-3846 Sunset St, Burnaby. Desiree stated that she is constantly harassed by her ex husband FOX. Desiree stated that she is very afraid of FOX and believes she will be harmed by him in some way. Desiree resides in the US and FOX resides in Canada. FOX has a website which depicts the interaction of himself and Desiree. Cst JUBBAL read multiple pages and looked at the photographs and much of the website is of a racist and demeaning nature towards Desiree.

Desiree advised Cst JUBBAL that FOX posts images on to Facebook in which he is shooting his firearms. Desiree has received multiple emails in which FOX has wrote "If It was legal I would shoot you" Cst JUBBAL did multiple checks through Canadian Police information System(CPIC) and through Interpol and found the following in regards to FOX Alias REISS.

FOX does have a valid firearms licence with two firearms associated to it. Licence # 12804668
FOX does not have any negative prime except this current file

Cst JUBBAL has received documentation from Desiree showing that FOX had been sentenced in Arizona for 24 Months for falsely claiming to be a U.S. Citizen. FOX was sentenced on February 13, 2009.

Cst JUBBAL in order to obtain more information on FOX has contacted the below departments, but they are closed at the moments.

CBSA Burnaby # 604-294-7899
CBSA Cell phone # 604-240-0637
CHIEF FIREARMS OFFICER # 1800-731-4000 # 9530

Cst JUBBAL left voicemail for Desiree as she was not available for follow-up. Cst JUBBAL will speak with CBSA and Chief Firearms Officer in order to investigate this file further and then speak to FOX.

This matter is quite complicated as both parties have joint custody of their son Gabriel CAPUANO and both parties are in different countries.

Police Checks & Safety Plan

On Tuesday October 13, 2015 at 0224hrs Cst. JUBBAL conducted the following following Police Checks:

- Checks for the Protection Order Registry were negative.
- Checks for Law Enforcement Information Portal does not indicate any recent activity.
- Checks for the Canadian Firearms Registry on-line were positive in showing that Ricky RIESS has two firearms registered.
- Checks for the Police Records Information Management Environment (PRIME) indicates multiple files all stemming from a dispute with his ex-wife Desiree CAPUANO in regards to their child.
- Checks for Canadian Police Information Centre were also negative.

Safety Plan

Cst. JUBBAL spoke at length with Desiree CAPUANO who stated she does fear RIESS and believes he will cross the USA border and harm her in some way shape or form. CAPUANO resides in the USA and RIESS is a resident of Burnaby. RIESS has been convicted in the USA for perjury and is not able to return according to CAPUANO. It has come to the attention of Burnaby RCMP that RIESS changed his name to Patrick FOX and possibly used that alias to travel to the US and back on multiple occasions. According to File 15-32597 the US Border Services has already been advised by Burnaby RCMP in regards to Ricky RIESS using false documents to enter the US.

At this time there is no way for RIESS to legally enter the US so therefore no safety concerns are present. CAPUANO has also advised that she does not fear for the safety of her son who visits her father RIESS often.

Related File # 15-32597 shows that Cst. DUPONT has arrested RIESS for Criminal Harassment against CAPUANO and will be forwarding a Report to Crown Counsel shortly. RIESS was released on a Promise to appear.

2015-07-13 - My New Home and Job

As you may know, I never stay at one residence for more than 2 years. And, since I was nearing the two year mark at the place on 44th Street, it was time to move. My new home is now in Sahuarita, AZ.

My address is now:

250 E. Placita Lago del Mago
Sahuarita, AZ, 85629
480-455-2086 (mobile)
520-288-8200 (home)
desiree.capuano@gmail.com

I'm living in a lovely, gated community, and there are no dirty, fucking, wetbacks blasting their mariachi music until 2 in the morning. My neighbors are mostly all white - Yay!

The house is owned by my boyfriend, James Pendleton, who I met and started dating while we were both working at Apollo. James is the greatest, sweetest man I have ever known and I have to say my life is perfect now. I know I've said that about every guy I've been with, but this time I really mean it. I love him so much, in fact, that I moved to Sahuarita, in the middle of bum fuck Arizona, near the dirty Mexican border, so I can be with him. I even shipped my fucking kids off to their respective fathers' so I can move without having to deal with their stupid whining and so I can have a few weeks alone with my love.

I've also left Apollo Group...well, okay, I was fired. But either way, I got a new job at Carrington College. The pay isn't as good, the people are dumb as rocks, and the students are all Mexicans, but they don't do drug testing so what more can I ask for.

That's all for now. I have a bunch of things to scan and post but I just haven't had the time.

2014-09-02 - Your Comments and Feedback

Apparently people really like being manipulated and taken advantage of, because they keep coming back for more. You would think after so many times, seeing me pout and cry to get my way, or freaking out, screaming, and blaming them for everything when I don't; after listening to me whine about how "all this shit keeps happening to me" and that "it's just so hard to be me"; you would think that they'd get a clue and stop listening, stop giving in. But NO! It turns out you're all just as dumb as I thought and you just keep giving in to what I want.

It's no secret that I get away with murder (literally?) by smiling and talking sweet and pretending to give a shit. Hell, just look at what I get away with in court. But what's truly amazing is that all you dumb-shits just keep giving me another chance. I can publicly declare on this web site that you're all just a bunch of pathetic idiots, and you'll still feel sorry for me and forgive me. And then you'll probably do me a favor.

So here's what I would like: For all the people that I've screwed over over the years; all the people that were duped by my fake sincerity; all the people that I've made promises to then backed out as soon as I got what I wanted and it wasn't convenient for me anymore; all the people that I lied to in order to get them to get them to do something for me; I would like to hear from all those people. Not because I have any sense of guilt or remorse or would ever acknowledge I've done anything wrong to anybody - because I would like to post your grievances on this site for everyone else to see.

So go ahead and speak up you fucking lame-ass losers! Send your emails to desi@desireecapuano.com. It'll be completely anonymous - I promise.

This offer is not open to my children because I refuse to acknowledge what they really think of me - well that and I don't give a fuck!

2014-05-02 - Plumpin' Up! Trailer Park and Damn Proud of it!

Alright! As you can tell from the picture to the left I've been putting on a little weight. Well, okay, a lot of weight. But if you've seen pictures of my mother then you know what to expect. But fuck it! I don't give a shit what you or anyone else thinks. If I wanna get fat I'ma get fat. Besides, I'm done with men so it's not like I have to look good for anyone.

The picture to the left was taken at a recent RV Show and Barbeque competition. And to my ex-husband that keeps insisting I'm trailer park: just because I go to RV shows and barbecue competitions and dress like this and have a prison tat on my ring finger in lieu of an actual wedding ring from my second marriage from which I am now divorced but stuck with the stupid fucking tattoo, doesn't necessarily make me trailer park or white trash. So blow it out your stupid Jew ass, asshole!

Well! That felt good.

2014-03-15 - Kris Sentenced to 8 years

2014-03-12 - Family Court - My Son Hates Me and is a Spoiled, Ungrateful Bastard!

As some of you may know, I recently had to go to family court in Los Angeles, because my asshole ex-husband is trying to get custody of our son back from me. So what that I abandoned my son when he was only a year and a half so I could go back to Florida to hook up with the guy (Michael Richard Capuano) I was with when I was a 19 year old stripper; and was completely absent from his life for more than 9 years while I traveled Europe and started a new family with Michael and had another son. I'm his mother and what I want is all that matters!

Well, my son has been with me for over 15 months now because I called DHS on my ex-husband so they'd arrest him and deport him. What did he do to be arrested and deported? Nothing, really. But that doesn't matter - he was in the way of what I wanted. And DHS doesn't give a shit - they'll just lock you up until you admit you did something wrong, even if you didn't. Ah, what a great country we live in. So, my son is finally with me because I got his father, who he had been with all his life, deported. But at court a few weeks ago the ungrateful little prick actually told the court he wants to go back with his father!!! Can you believe that shit? And after all I've done for him?

Of course, his father's been spoiling him, buying him all sorts of needless things like sheets for his bed, a down comforter, shoes, a laptop, teaching him how to shave! I mean, come on! What 13 year old boy needs any of that stuff? And the bank accounts and credit card! That asshole of a father went and opened my son his own bank account which he transfers $100 into each week, and gave him a credit card on his account which my son can use to buy any necessities which I'm too selfish and/or lazy to provide him. He says he's trying to teach my son to manage his money. Yeah, right! He's just trying to poison my son against me by spoiling him with everything he wants. Children don't need to learn how to manage money - if my son wants anything all he has to do is ask me and I'll say no. That way he stays dependent on my and has to beg me for things and I can manipulate him easier.

So, the little fucker says he wants to go back with his father - even though his father is in Canada now (thanks to me). My son hates me and disrespects me so much that he's rather live in Canada with his bastard father than with me in Phoenix. And its all because his fucking father filled his head with crap about me. It has to be! There is no other logical explanation, right?

So what happened in court, you ask? Nothing! Not a damn thing! The useless, stupid, fucking court just postponed the hearing until July. But at least now I know what my ungrateful kid thinks of me. Though, it doesn't matter because I just refuse to acknowledge anything that is not in line with what I want it to be.

Anyway, I'm fucking bored! I'm gonna go smoke a big fat bowl, drink a beer, and ignore my fucking kids because that's what kids are for!

2014-02-15 - Income and Expense Declaration

For everyone's curiosity and enjoyment, I've scanned and uploaded the Declaration of Income and Expenses, filed with the family court in January of this year. Attached are four pay stubs. Of particular pride is item number 14, which shows the balances owing on the bed I financed (yes, I financed my bed, because that's what we do in the trailer park), and the payday loan I'm still paying off (and yes, of course I get payday loans from check cashing stores...doesn't everyone?).

Click here for the actual, signed, declaration filed with the court. Keep in mind, the declaration is made under oath so if anything in it is incorrect then I've committed perjury, which is a felony.

2014-02-10 - Audio Recording of My Arrest

Hey, all! I finally got around to uploading the audio from my arrest on my son's birthday, 2011. As you can hear, the detectives came to my place looking for Kris for that counterfeit money scheme he was involved in and the idiot gave them permission to search the apartment! I'm quite proud of myself - I had the tears streaming and the begging and the dumb-shit cops bought it. But, of course they would, I'm that good.

Here's a link to the part of the arrest where I come in [\[click here!\]](#)

And here's a link to the entire interview and arrest - it's mostly Kris talking and the cop searching my bedroom; I come in about half way through [\[click here!\]](#)

When I have some time I'll upload the media from the time the Glendale Police executed the search warrant on our home in Peoria. Now that's a performance I'm particularly impressed with. You'll never see someone turn on the person they love as quickly as I turned on Kris. But fuck that, I ain't going to prison.

2014-01-20 - My Mugshot from My Arrest for Possession of Marijuana

Hi, everyone! I haven't updated this site in a while so I thought I'd throw something new on here. Nothing too exciting, just the mugshot of me from my arrest for possession of weed. Stupid, right? In this day and age, arresting people for getting high! Fucking Republicans! Anyway, as you can tell from the mugshot I was quite high at the time and don't remember much of it. Too bad it was on my son's 11th birthday and it fucked up our plans. Oh well, the little bastard has to learn that life's a bitch sometimes.

For those who don't believe this is actually my mugshot, you can download the PDF of the Scottsdale Police Department here.

When I get the chance I'll post the audio recording of the police interview - for you're listening pleasure.

My god, I've lost a lot of hair and gained a lot of weight since then!

2014-01-18 - Richard Choosing to Stay in Canada

I recently received an email from my ex-husband (well, okay, he's not my ex-husband yet because clearly I still love him, otherwise I wouldn't have canceled the divorce proceedings I initiated in Phoenix in 2011, and HE is the one that re-filed for the divorce and HE is the one that is pushing so hard for it), the one I called DHS on and had deported to Canada.

It turns out he's actually considering staying up there, of his own free will, because apparently, things have been going well for him there and the market in Vancouver is better than in the US right now. He says the corporate tax rate in Canada is only 15%, compared to 30% here. He's gotten himself a firearms license so he's allowed to own firearms there (he can't here because of my filing a false report with DHS - bad me). Those who know him know he's a gun enthusiast.

What's even more astounding is that he's already gotten his Florida birth certificate and resolved the issues he had with DHS. So, he can come back any time. Yet, he's choosing to stay there - in Canada! What the fuck is that about? I mean, its Canada! Fucking igloos and shit. How can anyone even think that anywhere's better than America?

My point is this: I called DHS on him to get his attention and piss him off because, as anyone with pulse can tell, I want him back. Of course, I always say I called DHS so I could get custody of our son, but come on, really now? I already have a kid, and kids are such a nuisance anyway - always needing things and sucking up all your time and money. Things were not supposed to go well for Richard in Canada, dammit! He was supposed to hate it there and realize how much he loves me. He was supposed to come crawling back to me. Well, fuck him and fuck the Universe! The Universe sucks!

2013-11-22 - Medical Marijuana Cards

It seems the State has been cracking down on 24 - 35 year olds claiming to have chronic and debilitating pain caused by fibromyalgia and other unverifiable conditions in order to get their pot legally...oh, shit, wait...I'm one of them. Dammit! Oh well, I guess we all just have to go back to buying our week from Jose - I guess the dirty fucking illegals are good for something after all, am I right?

2013-10-08 - Useless Education?

So, I finally graduated from University of Phoenix last year with my bachelors in Information Technology - Database Administration (whatever the fuck that means) and here I am still working at the only place that will actually hire a UoP graduate: Apollo Education Group - the parent company of the University of Phoenix. But I guess its okay because I get to call myself a "Product Software Owner" which is a made up title that doesn't mean jack shit. My pay stubs say "Systems Analyst II", so there.

2013-09-08 - Looking for a new job

I don't know how much more of the stupid, whining I can take from the idiots at work. I recently started looking for a new job but so far its been slow going. Apparently the stupid male managers don't think a woman can be a DBA. After all I have a bachelors degree from an accredited university! I mean, come on people, just because I'm a woman doesn't mean I'm going to file a sexual harassment law suit against you. And just because I smoke pot regularly doesn't mean I'm unreliable. Well, statistically it means that there's a greater probability that I will, but I'm an individual, you assholes! And besides, I graduated from the largest private university in the country (along with a bunch of other people who can't even speak English). I have a degree, therefore, I'm better than all of those other dumb fucks out there.

This site was created and is maintained by the immediate family and/or close personal friends of Desiree.

Everything on this site is intended in good fun. If you take offense to anything then fuck you, I don't give a shit. I have a constitutional right to say what I want as long as its not knowingly false and with the express intention of causing someone harm. If you want to bitch at me because I hurt your feelings then go fuck yourself.

Removal and Reinstatement of a Prior Order of Removal on several occasions. RIESS has also been charged with perjury, false claim to citizenship, and general fraud/making a false statement. Criminal History: POSITIVE with [REDACTED], [REDACTED], and [REDACTED]. RIESS has several arrests for DUI, driving while license suspended, theft, forgery, failure to appear, and issuing a bad check. On May 27, 2015, Border Patrol Agent [REDACTED] was conducting line watch operations east of the Lynden Port Of Entry (POE), in the Sumas Station area of operation. At approximately 2:15pm Blaine Sector Communications Dispatch [REDACTED] relayed via service radio that using the Remote Video Surveillance System (RVSS) they saw a subject walking southbound from the intersection of [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] used the RVSS to keep visual contact on the subject as he proceeded south from the border area. Agent [REDACTED] responded to the area and encountered the subject that [REDACTED] was surveilling via RVSS traveling south bound on [REDACTED]. The subject was walking hastily south, even as Agent [REDACTED] approached him. Agent [REDACTED] identified herself as a Border Patrol agent and asked him to stop walking. The subject complied. At this time the subject was approximately 300 yards south of the international boundary on [REDACTED]. Agent [REDACTED] then asked the subject, later identified as RIESS, Richard, if he had jumped the ditch and crossed the border illegally from Canada into the United States. RIESS instantly responded, "yes." Agent [REDACTED] asked him which country he was a citizen of and if he had any documentation on his person which would allow him to be legally present in the United States and he replied "yes." At that time RIESS stated that he was a United States citizen and presented a British Columbia Canadian driver's license and a Florida State birth certificate, both documents with the name FOX, PATRICK HENRY. Agent [REDACTED] requested records checks on the name and date of birth from the birth certificate. Record checks revealed that FOX was an alias previously used by RIESS and that he had an extensive criminal history of false identities as well as an immigration history with Immigration and Customs Enforcement that included prior removals from the United States. At approximately 2:30pm Agent [REDACTED] placed RIESS under arrest for entering the United States illegally and without inspection. RIESS was transported to the Sumas Border Patrol Station. At the station RIESS was fingerprinted and entered into DHS biometric systems. Record checks revealed his true identity as RIESS and revealed several prior removals from the United States. RIESS was in possession of a brief case, a Florida State birth certificate, Arizona state court documents, a Canadian driver's license, and a Canadian firearms license, all under the alias FOX.

RIESS is being held in DHS custody pending Reinstatement of Prior Order of Removal. The National Records Center was contacted to request his prior removal documents, however it was determined that REISS' A-file is currently at the Long Beach, California, ICE Investigation Office. REISS' prior removal documents were not able to be obtained. RIESS was offered a phone call to the consulate from his native country of record (Canada) by Agent [REDACTED] at 4:45pm and REISS declined and stated there is nothing he need from the Canadian Government. REISS was offered again at 6:05pm to speak to the consulate of Canada and he declined. RIESS was advised by Agent [REDACTED] at approximately 6:05pm that she wished to take a sworn statement from him as part of his reinstatement proceedings. RIESS was served with agency forms I-871 and I-215b. RIESS has no known gang affiliation. Deportation Officer [REDACTED] authorized bed space for REISS. 213#94 [REDACTED] ADDENDUM BY SBPA [REDACTED] It was verified through law enforcement resources that FOX, PATRICK HENRY is a legitimate US identity that REISS is fraudulently using. It is unknown how REISS was able to obtain a Florida birth certificate, but it should be noted that REISS and his alias FOX share the same date of birth. REISS was able to use his fraudulent US identity in Canada to obtain a driver's license and a firearm's license. CBSA Superintendent [REDACTED] from the Huntington Port of Entry verified that REISS is a Canadian citizen born in Sudbury, Ontario, Canada. He also confirmed that REISS has filed paperwork in Canada to legally change his name to FOX, PATRICK HENRY. RIESS has created a website where he has claimed his intention is to "destroy" his ex-wife. REISS has been involved in a high profile dispute with his ex-wife for several years. Online searches for his alias FOX reveal numerous online articles and interviews about the situation between he and his ex-wife. RIESS has made a concerted effort to conceal his true identity from law enforcement in both the US and Canada. He has also been formally charged with forgery, perjury, false claim to citizenship, and general fraud/making a false statement to law enforcement. [REDACTED] Supervisory Border Patrol Agent

INDICTMENT

VIO: 18 U.S.C. § 1621
(Perjury)
(Count One)

18 U.S.C. § 911
(False Claim of Citizenship)
(Count Two)

THE GRAND JURY CHARGES:

On or about October 31, 2007, in Eloy, Arizona, in the District of Arizona, defendant RICHARD STEVEN RIESS, having duly taken an oath before Sean H. Keenan, an Immigration Judge of the Department of Justice during a removal proceeding, a case in which Title 8 U.S.C., Section 1229a authorizes an oath to be administered, that he would testify truthfully, did willfully and knowingly and contrary to said oath state material matter which he did not believe to be true.

At the date and place aforesaid, the Immigration Court was conducting a removal proceeding to determine the citizenship of RICHARD STEVEN RIESS. If it was determined

1 that RICHARD STEVEN RIESS was not a citizen of the United States, the Court could have
2 ordered his removal to the country of his citizenship. Therefore, it was material to the aforesaid
3 proceeding to determine whether RICHARD STEVEN RIESS was a citizen of the United States.

4 In addition, at the date and location aforesaid, RICHARD STEVEN RIESS appeared
5 before Immigration Judge Sean H. Keenan, and then and there being under oath as aforesaid,
6 testified falsely before the Judge with respect to the aforesaid material matter as follows:

7 Question by Judge Keenan: "Are you a citizen of the United States?"

8 Answer by RICHARD STEVEN RIESS: "Yes."

9 Question by Judge Keenan: "And, is your mother and father a citizen?"

10 Answer by RICHARD STEVEN RIESS: "Yes"

11 Question by Judge Keenan: "Were they born in the United States?"

12 Answer by RICHARD STEVEN RIESS: "My mother was, but I'm not sure of my 13 father."

14 Question by Judge Keenan: "Where was she born?"

15 Answer by RICHARD STEVEN RIESS: "Massachusetts."

16 ...

17 Question by Judge Keenan: "Where were you born?"

18 Answer by RICHARD STEVEN RIESS: "Ontario, California."

19 The aforesaid testimony of RICHARD STEVEN RIESS, as he then and there well knew
20 and believed, was false in that on October 31, 2007, RICHARD STEVEN RIESS was in fact a 21 citizen of Canada.

22 In violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1621.

CANADIAN MAN SENTENCED TO 24 MONTHS FOR FALSELY CLAIMING TO BE A U.S. CITIZEN

PHOENIX – Richard Steven Riess, 34, of Ontario, Canada, was sentenced to 24 months in federal prison by U.S. District Judge Susan R. Bolton. Riess was found guilty by a federal jury on November 5, 2008 of Perjury and False Claim of Citizenship.

Riess made a false claim of U.S. citizenship when he appeared before U.S. Immigration Judge Sean Keenan for a removal hearing on October 31, 2007. Riess swore under oath to tell the truth but during that hearing, he testified that he was a U.S. citizen and falsely claimed that his parents were born in the United States. During the November 2008 trial, the government was able to prove that Riess is a Canadian citizen through the use of passport and birth records.

“We have a duty to protect the integrity of our immigration court system,” stated U.S. Attorney, Diane J. Humetewa. “This sentence demonstrates our resolve to prosecute those who undermine the court system through deceit and false statements.”

“Riess’ attempt to subvert the truth is an offense against the high value our system places on honesty in the courtroom,” said Katrina S. Kane, field office director of ICE’s Office of Detention and Removal Operations in Arizona. “The judge’s sentence in this case will provide Riess with ample opportunity to reflect on the damage perjury does to the judicial system and the serious penalties that await those who seek to deceive.”

The sentencing occurred on Friday, February 13, 2009. The investigation in this case was conducted by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, Detention and Removal Operations. The prosecution was handled by Mark Brnovich and Josh Parecki, Assistant U.S. Attorney, District of Arizona, Phoenix.

5. The Canadian Police Information Centre, commonly referred to as "CPIC", is a computerized data repository maintained by the RCMP in Ottawa, Ontario, and can only be accessed through authorized and restricted terminals, and authorized personnel, and is usually accessible by police and law enforcement agencies throughout Canada. This repository records information such as missing and wanted persons, stolen property, criminal records of individuals, and accesses records of motor vehicle branches of the various provinces across Canada with regard to driver's licence information, names, birth dates, addresses, driving records, and motor vehicles registered to a particular named individual, through vehicle licence numbers. CPIC can also access firearms licensing and registration information. CPIC is also interfaced with United States National Information Centre, commonly known as "NCIC". The data entered in this system is supplied by Federal, Provincial, Regional and Municipal law enforcement agencies, as well as Provincial and Federal Ministries. All of the information is stored and only accessed through CPIC.

C.F.C. means Canadian Firearms Centre and was the arm of the Canadian Justice Department that is responsible for the administration of all firearms transactions, import export, licenses, permits, registration, and maintenance of such data. Formerly the Royal Canadian Mounted Police maintained this system and it was known as the Firearms Registration and Administration Section (F.R.A.S.). The data entered on the C.F.C. system is supplied by Federal, Provincial, Regional and Municipal law enforcement agencies, as well as Provincial and Federal Ministries, and may be retrieved by them as well. All of the information is stored and only accessed through CPIC. The RCMP at the present time again runs and administers this system.

8. The Canadian Firearms Registration Online (CFRO) is a computerized database that contains pertinent information that is related to the registration of all firearms in Canada, as well as the licensing of individuals who are lawfully authorized to possess or acquire firearms. This database is accessed by CPIC and is maintained by the RCMP Canadian Firearms Centre.

Section 117 Public Safety Warrants

AFFIDAVIT

9. This is the affidavit of Denise Carmen Kam, forming part of an application to obtain a search warrant, pursuant to Section 117.04 of the Criminal Code of Canada, for the single family dwelling residence of Patrick Henry FOX (1973-11-24) located at 203-3846 Sunset Street, in the City of Burnaby, British Columbia. This application relates to weapons, prohibited devices, ammunition, prohibited ammunition, explosive substances, any authorization, license or registration certificate relating to any such thing that is held by or believed to be in the possession of Patrick Henry FOX, at the above mentioned address.
10. I, Denise Carmen KAM, believe that the grounds set out herein constitute reasonable grounds to believe that it is not desirable in the interest of the safety of Patrick FOX or the General Public that Patrick FOX possesses any weapon, prohibited devices, ammunition, prohibited ammunition or explosive substances, any authorization, license or registration certificate relating to any such thing, that is held by or in the possession of Patrick FOX.
11. Violence is this nation's primary public safety issue. The number of weapons used in armed robberies, assaults, and murders has been escalating at an alarming rate. Indiscriminate shootings, spurred by indifference toward human life, are depleting the cultural and material resources of our province. The seizure, and disposition of illegal weapons, is but one initiative, albeit a significant one, that has assisted the law enforcement community in protecting its citizens against violent criminals.

12. In Attorney General of Canada vs. Pattison 59 C.C.C. (2d) the court ruled that Section 101, which provides for the search and seizure of a person's firearms, other offensive weapons, ammunition, and explosive substances if "it is not desirable, in the interests of the safety of that person or any other person, that the person should have in his possession, custody or control any firearm, or other offensive weapon or any ammunition or explosive substance" is intra vires Parliament, Section 101 is a valid exercise of the criminal law power in S. 91(27) of the British North America Act 1867.
13. Section 117.04 C.C. as amended In Bill C-68 the Firearms Act 1995 which received Royal Assent on December 1, 1998, now provides police with this power to search for and seize such weapons, prohibited devices, ammunition, prohibited ammunition, explosive substances and any such things.

Public Safety

14. Public safety concerns under Section 5 of the Firearms Act States:
 - a) A person is not eligible to hold a license if it desirable, in the interests of the safety of that or any other person, that the person not possess a firearm, a cross-bow, a prohibited weapon, a restricted weapon, a prohibited device, ammunition or prohibited ammunition.
 - b) Has been treated for a mental illness, whether in a hospital, mental institute, psychiatric clinic or otherwise and whether or not the person as confined to such a hospital, institute or clinic, that was associated with violence or threatened or attempted violence on the part of the person against any person; or

- c) Has a history of behavior that includes violence or threatened or attempted violence on the part of the person against any person.

Grounds for Belief

15. On May 31, 2016, I, Constable Denise KAM, was contacted by Intelligence Officer, Shan-Marie PEREIRA of the Integrated Support Unit, Operations Branch of Canadian Border Services Agency (CBSA) to advise that United States Officials currently have Patrick FOX in their custody in Tacoma, Washington, United States of America. PEREIRA wished to pass on concerns regarding FOX as he tried to cross the border illegally, using the alias of Richard RIESS, and is currently a resident in the City of Burnaby and is a Canadian Citizen. PEREIRA also advised that FOX has made a website and various web blogs aimed to defame his ex-wife, Desiree CAPUANO. FOX's goal was to make CAPUANO commit suicide. PEREIRA advised she would contact me should she receive further information from American Officials.
16. On May 31, 2016, I conducted Police database queries using CPIC and PRIME and learned the following:
 - a) FOX does not have a criminal record in Canada;
 - b) On April 10, 2015, CAPUANO reported to Burnaby RCMP that she was constantly being harassed by FOX. CAPUANO stated she was very afraid of FOX and believes she will be harmed by him even though she resides in the United States of America. FOX had posted images on Facebook with him shooting firearms and commented to CAPUANO 'If it was legal, I would shoot you'. File was concluded as FOX was given a Promise to Appear for Criminal Harassment for another file created by CAPUANO (Burnaby File 2015-15759 refers).

- c) On July 19, 2015, CAPUANO reported to Burnaby RCMP that FOX had been harassing her through email. FOX sent CAPUANO emails in which he referred to wanting to shoot her. CAPUANO feared for her safety however did not appear to be in immediate danger as she resided in the United States. FOX was arrested and criminal harassment charges were recommended however charges were stayed on October 16, 2015 (Burnaby File 2015-32597 refers).

17. On June 8, 2016, I received an email chain between CBSA officer PEREIRA, United States Border Patrol, and US Department of Homeland Security and learned the following: (Appendix C refers)

- a) Border Patrol Agent Kip WEST, from the Blaine Section Intelligence Unit spoke extensively with FOX the night he was apprehended. WEST was willing to provide RCMP information pertaining to details of interview with FOX.
- b) FOX currently does not have an original birth certificate or passport to allow him entry back into Canada.
- c) United States Officials are requesting assistance from the RCMP to seize FOX's firearms for public safety as FOX has four restricted firearms registered to him:

18. On June 10, 2016, I reviewed previous Burnaby RCMP file 2015-32597 and read an email dated January 11, 2015 from FOX to CAPUANO and learned the following: (Appendix D refers)
- a) FOX stated: 'he [their son] asked me if I would shoot you. I told him that murder is illegal and immoral and can result in spending the rest of one's life in prison. And that the rest of my life in prison is not a risk I'm willing to take. But otherwise, no, I would have no qualms about it; that is how much I despise you for the things you've done and continue to do.'
 - b) FOX stated: ...'there is nothing illegal or threatening about wanting to harm someone - as long as you don't act on it'.
19. On June 10, 2016, I reviewed previous Burnaby RCMP file 2015-32597 and read an email dated January 27, 2015 from FOX to CAPUANO and learned the following: (Appendix E refers)
- a) FOX stated: 'what'd I'd like, very much is to be able to add some intimate pictures of you to your website. To do that of course, I'd have to hire someone to get close to you, pretend to be interested in you, eventually gain your trust then eventually sleep with you... There's nothing criminally illegal about it'.
 - b) FOX stated: 'you're a fucking sad excuse for a human being. Anyway, it's about time I update your website and put it back on line.
20. On June 10, 2016, I reviewed previous Burnaby RCMP file 2015-32597 and read an email dated January 14, 2015 from FOX to CAPUANO and learned the following: (Appendix F refers)
- a) FOX stated: 'In 2007, when I stated in the Immigration court that my name was Richard RIESS, it was in fact, Richard RIESS under the California common law. All of my ID, issued by the State of California and the State of Arizona had the name Richard RIESS on it and I have been using the name Richard RIESS exclusively for the prior 11 years. It was not until I came to Canada and the Canadian government refused to allow me to continue to use the name Richard RIESS unless I formally changed it to from Patrick FOX and the US government and US government and the State of California also then began refusing to allow me to continue using Richard RIESS, that I decided it would be easier to just go back to using Patrick FOX.'

21. On June 10, 2016, I reviewed previous Burnaby RCMP file 2015-32597 and read an email dated December 17, 2014 at 10:20pm from FOX to CAPUANO and learned the following: (Appendix G refers)

a) FOX stated: Canadian Possession and Acquisition License (federal firearms license) is not the easiest thing to get... my point is, if I was as full of shit you claim then there's no way I'd be able to get and maintain the license and the RCMP would come and take my pistols and I'd be all sad and shit.'

22. On June 10, 2016, I reviewed previous Burnaby RCMP file 2015-32597 and read an email dated December 17, 2014 at 11:37pm from FOX to CAPUANO and learned the following: (Appendix H refers)

a) FOX stated: the other Richard RIESS was arrested in Toronto in 1991 and never showed up for court. A warrant was issued and he just disappeared. That warrant is still there. If I were him I would not have been able to get a PAL. Also you cannot legally change your name in Canada if you have an outstanding warrant... If you don't believe me about the PAL, go ahead, read up on the requirements... you need a PAL to get a membership at the shooting range which he [their son] can tell you I have.'

b) 'Face it, man: my name is Patrick FOX and I have a squeaky clean background and I'm an upstanding member of society who makes pretty decent money'.

23. On June 10, 2016, I reviewed previous Burnaby RCMP file 2015-32597 and learned that FOX changed his name legally from Ricky Steve RIESS to Patrick Henry FOX on March 5, 2014 in Victoria, BC. (Appendix I refers)

24. On June 10, 2016, I reviewed previous Burnaby RCMP file 2015-32597 and learned that FOX has a Firearms Possession and Acquisition License bearing number #12804668.0001, which expires on November 24, 2019. (Appendix J refers)

25. On June 10, 2015, I contacted CAPUANO via telephone and obtained an audio recorded statement. CAPUANO stated in part the following:

a) CAPUANO and FOX were in a relationship for approximately 2 years, which started in 2001. They have a 16 year old son together, who resides with CAPUANO in Arizona, USA. CAPUANO has full custody of their child and currently have a restraining order against FOX.

b) After the break up and lengthy custody battle, FOX had entered the USA and was deported 3 times by US officials.

c) In 2014, FOX started a campaign 'to destroy [her] life'. FOX created a website www.desireecapuano.com to defame her.

d) FOX disclosed false information to approximately 600 of CAPUANO's coworkers through email, stating she does drugs and other illegal activities.

- e) FOX posted CAPUANO's name, address, phone number, and mapped out her residence with photograph on website so others could torment her.
- f) CAPUANO stated the harassment she receives from FOX is aggravated as he once stated he would 'shoot her if he could get away with it'.
- g) CAPUANO stated FOX made these comments publicly in an interview with CBC News which was aired in Canada in February 2016.
- h) When CAPUANO met FOX, he was using the name Richard 'Ricky' RIESS. It was not until 2015 when RIESS changed his name to Patrick FOX.
- i) CAPUANO stated that RIESS was born in Sudbury, Ontario, Canada.
- j) FOX obtained his Canadian Firearms License in 2015.
- k) CAPUANO stated that FOX had tried to pose as an US citizen therefore he could enter the country.
- l) CAPUANO believes that FOX having possession of firearms is a danger to public safety. CAPUANO stated 'I don't know how he got firearms in the first place'.
- m) CAPUANO stated 'he's scary, I don't know what he would do'.
- n) CAPUANO believes that FOX suffers from mental illness however he has not been formally diagnosed.

- o) CAPUANO continues to be fearful of FOX and stated 'I've been overlooking my shoulder the past few weeks', because she has not heard from him.
- 26. On June 10, 2016, I conducted open source queries and read an article from CBC News titled 'BC Man Patrick Fox Aims to 'Destroy' Ex-wife with Revenge Website' and learned the following: (Appendix K refers)
 - a) FOX stated 'I promised I'd devote the rest of my life to doing everything I could, legally of course, to ruin her life and destroy her'.
 - b) FOX stated he had 'no qualms about killing CAPUANO if that was legal'.
 - c) FOX stated 'there is nothing illegal about wanting to harm someone as long as you don't act on it'.
- 27. On June 10, 2016, I conducted open source queries and read an article from website www.desireecapitano.com and learned the following: (Appendix L refers)
 - a) Articles and blogs were written from the perspective of CAPUANO although it is authored by FOX.
 - b) FOX speaks about his plans to illegally 'sneak into the US' and smuggle a firearm illegally into the US to kill CAPUANO. FOX would need to catch a Greyhound as he believes he would be detected by the TSA as flying would generate an official record of his presence. FOX would carry a backpack as he would need to conceal the gun somewhere. FOX noted the plan would take approximately 6 days, and he would hope that nobody at his office notices his absence. FOX also stated that if a slug was to be retrieved from CAPUANO's body, it would match the barrel markings of a gun that is registered to FOX, in which then he would have to 'immediately notify the RCMP that the gun was lost or stolen'.

28. On June 10, 2016, I read a report authored by Border Patrol Agent Kip WEST, from the Blaine Section Intelligence Unit, and learned the following: (Appendix M refers)
- a) On May 27, 2016, a male named Patrick Henry FOX illegally crossed the border from Canada into the United States. FOX stated he was a United States citizen, and produced a genuine Birth Certificate from the state of Florida. Agents ran record checks on FOX which revealed a possible conviction for False Claim to US Citizenship under the name Richard RIESS. FOX had in his possession a Canadian's Drivers License, a Canadian Firearms license, both under the name of Patrick Henry FOX (DOB: 1973-11-24). FOX was transferred to Sumas, Washington, Border Patrol Station for further investigation.
 - b) FOX stated to Agent WEST he was born in Florida, USA, to the 'best of his knowledge'. FOX stated he 'intentionally utilized the name [Richard RIESS] because he knew of a Ricky RIESS in Ontario, Canada.
 - c) Agent WEST conducted his own investigation and determined that FOX is actually a Canadian citizen, born in Sudbury, Ontario. The name on his birth certificate is Richard RIESS. RIESS had his name legally changed in Canada to Patrick Henry FOX. There is another Patrick Henry FOX with the same date of birth from Florida.
 - d) Agent WEST advised he discovered FOX's birth in Canada under the name Richard RIESS and FOX declined to respond.

- e) Agent WEST asked how FOX was able to obtain the Florida birth certificate and FOX declined to respond.
- f) Agent WEST presented FOX a picture of the real Patrick Henry FOX from Florida, and FOX appeared to be surprised and declined to respond.
- g) Agent WEST asked FOX why he had such contempt for his ex-wife and FOX stated he raised his son alone for 10 years and she was able to get full custody.
- h) FOX stated to Agent WEST the sole purpose of the website he created was to 'smear' his ex-wife.
- i) FOX stated his mission is to bring his ex-wife's life to social and financial ruin.
- j) On one of the blogs, FOX stated he hoped 'Mexicans would come to her house and kill her'. Agent WEST asked FOX how would he feel if she was actually murdered and FOX responded with 'it's the truth'.
- k) Agent WEST asked FOX how long he intended to continue to crusade against his ex-wife and FOX stated 'until she is completely destitute'.
- l) Agent WEST stated that FOX was very deliberate in the words he chose. Agent WEST stated FOX was very careful not to incriminate himself in any way.
- m) FOX stated to Agent WEST, 'my only mistake was choosing someone from the military because he is in your system'. FOX was referring to the real Patrick Henry FOX, a US citizen from Florida.

29. In Canada, anyone in private possession of firearms is required to have a valid firearms license. Firearms in Canada are classed into 3 categories, Non-Restricted Class (most rifles and shotguns); Restricted Class (most handguns and some rifles); Prohibited Class firearms (handguns with barrel lengths less than 105mm, .25 or .32 caliber and firearms such as machine guns). Special caveats exist for Prohibited Class firearms - persons owning these types of firearms must have owned them prior to prescribed dates and must be in continual possession of their firearms license. Letting a Prohibited class license lapse and or lost due to criminal charge or prohibition means these privileges are lost forever.
30. As noted, at the present moment Patrick Henry FOX still has a valid Firearms License. This means he can lawfully buy or acquire restricted and non-restricted class firearms and ammunition. FOX is currently prohibited from possessing any firearms in the United States. From a review of all the associated files involving FOX and CAPUANO, especially after his most recent attempt to cross the border illegally, I believe that Police should take immediate action and seize his firearms due to public safety. CAPUANO stated she fears for her safety and although she resides in the United States, FOX's behavior has escalated from uttering threats and harassment to planning out detailed logistics to have CAPUANO killed. There appears to be an element of mental health concern as FOX has emotionally abused CAPUANO for over 15 years and he has devoted his time into maintaining a website blog aimed to ruin CAPUANO's life. FOX stated himself he would devote the rest of his life to do everything he can to ruin CAPUANO's life and destroy her. Although FOX has not outright threatened to use his firearms or weapons on CAPUANO or others, I am of the opinion that FOX is not a fit nor responsible person that should be in possession of a firearms license, any firearms or ammunition.

31. These are the grounds for my belief relating to an application for a 117.04 Criminal Code Search Warrant at 203-3846 Sunset Street, in the City of Burnaby, British Columbia. If this search warrant is granted, upon seizure of these firearms, ammunition and firearms licence, a Return to Justice will be completed and a hearing set before a Provincial Court Judge to determine the fitness of Patrick Henry FOX to own or possess firearms.
32. I verily believe the information contained herein is true and correct to best of my ability. I have attached this material as Appendix A, and a copy of the known firearms registered to FOX as Appendix B.

Dated in the City of Burnaby, in the Province of British Columbia this 11th day of June, 2016.

Thanks for linking the emails. Sorry for the late response as I was away last week.

What is Mr. RIESS's current status? I can contact our Canadian Firearms Registration program to get his license revoked since there are some safety concerns.

Please advise. Thanks!

GO# 1202 2016-25379

I have merged two emails on RIESS/FOX, and added Deportation Officer Arroyo to this string so we can all be on the same sheet of music.

Greetings,

Per our earlier phone conversation, subject Richard Riess, A088 664 582 is currently housed at the Northwest Detention Center and ready for removal to Canada.

The problem is that Mr. Riess does not have an original birth certz or passport that we can use to take him back, so all we can do is drive him north to the POE and take the chance of allowing him to present himself to CBSA and request admission into Canada.

I've resorted to this last ditch effort a number of times before and successfully removed Canadians w/o documents - if Mr. Riess is as subject of interest for CBSA/RCMP, I think this would be the way to go on this case.

Any assistance linking us with CBSA/RCMP will be greatly appreciated.

Respectfully,

J. Arroyo

Shan-Marie,

Yes, our schedules are off & we are definitely playing some good phone tag. I am going to forward your email to one of our intel agents, Kip West. He spoke extensively with Mr. Riess/Fox the night we apprehended him. He will be way more helpful to you concerning this guy than I can be. Feel free to contact me in the future if you need anything. Also, if you don't have someone you can talk to at our detention facility in Tacoma in regards to Mr. Riess/Fox's status, let me know. I'll make sure I put you in touch with someone who can let you know more or less when Mr. Riess/Fox will be heading back to Canada.

FYI, Kip can also be reached by cell at ^{V1}

Hi John, I guess we are on cross shifts. I was asked to look into Mr Reiss/Fox. I was wondering if Fox made any incriminating statements that would allow us to proceed in getting his firearms license taken away in Canada. I have been in contact with Burnaby RCMP who stated that their file for harassment has been closed. Any information you could provide would be greatly appreciated. If you want to give me a call, I am here Mon to Fri 8-4.

This email conversation is really long. You will want to find the email from Patrick Fox with the following heading (time/date)

In that email, I have bolded and italicized the section where he talks about wanting to shoot me (although he state it's not worth the risk)

I should not have responded, but after a while I get so tired of him talking I feel like I want to defend myself...I know I shouldn't.

As always, I shall address each of your statements and point out, as plainly as possible, why/how it is wrong.

On 01/11/2015 12:54 PM, Desiree Capuano wrote:

Ricky / Richard / Morgan / Parick / Patricia / Susan / whatever your chosen alias is today,

I don't get your intended implication here. How is my first name, whether assumed or legal, relevant to anything in my previous message and, in particular, whether I am on schedule with my plan against you? An insult is much more effective when the intended recipient is able to infer the reference. Please clarify.

Are you bored or something?

Bored: no. Or something: vague and ambiguous. Please be more specific.

Your stalker-like obsession with me is truly impressive. The amount of time and energy spent thinking of me is flattering, but honestly a little pathetic.

If there is any sincerity in your statements then you have grossly misinterpreted my intentions. I was pretty direct when I told Detective Tuchfarber that my intention was to do everything in my power and capabilities to make your life as miserable as possible, and, if possible, to the point that you ultimately commit suicide. That would be my ultimate desire. But before you reach that point it is imperative that you experience as much misery, disappointment, and suffering as possible first. At this point in your life you have very little to lose so there is not much incentive for me to actively publish your information. I shall wait, patiently, until you rise up a bit, THEN proceed with the billboard campaign around Phoenix; I'll wait until you actually have some financial significance, THEN publish your complete credit and financial history - including your social security number and birth certificate (not illegal as long as it's done outside the US).

I don't see how you could interpret such intentions as being misguided affection.

For someone who so strongly espouses logic and intelligence, I would think that you could have grasped that I am not interested in you. Especially since I have directly told you that I am not interested in you.

Whether or not you are interested in me is not relevant to my objectives.

I realize that I am really amazing, but please expend some of that energy towards finding a man / woman / inanimate object that is capable of coping with your delusional nature, and providing some small measure of happiness.

I see no evidence to suggest there is any merit to your implication that I am delusional. If you know of any then please cite them. Otherwise you're just talking gibberish again.

Everyone has a right to the pursuit of happiness. Though that is a founding principal of America, so I understand it being foreign to a Canadian citizen like yourself.

Almost every country in the world includes in their respective constitutions and/or bill of rights the right to the pursuit of happiness. I wish I could say it is because you are an ignorant American that you do not realize that, but that fact that you were born on US soil has nothing to do with the fact that you are clearly ignorant.

You again bring up the question of citizenship. Why? You are the only one pretending to still cling to that claim. When I show up at border crossings with my US birth certificate and BC photo ID US customs and ICE don't even give me a second thought.

But, I'll play along, for the sake of argument: Let's assume your claim that I am a Canadian citizen is true. So? What's your point? Are you trying to suggest that a person born on US soil is inherently superior to someone who wasn't? By that logic then Lauchner and Michael Capuano are automatically superior to me. Charles Manson, Ted Bundy and Richard Ramirez are superior to every single person ever born in Canada? That's some pretty sketchy reasoning. And let's pretend for a moment that I AM a Canadian citizen: that hasn't, and still doesn't prevent me from living in the US. I own a business in the US. So, again, what are you trying to imply?

Your obsessive pursuit of my attention seems to only pale in comparison to your capacity for delusional transference, and cruelty towards Gabriel.

Again, you're making claims about my psychological state without citing a single case of me ever exhibiting delusional behavior. At least when I call you delusional I refer you to a specific thing you did which supports my claim.

It is unfortunate that you chose to rob Gabriel of his right and opportunity to choose for himself which parent to live with.

Come again? I was the one initially requested Gabriel be interviewed by the court so he can tell the court where he wants to live. You then attempted to circumvent that by having me deported. I then ordered my attorney to request the court put the interview back on calendar. Then, when Gabriel was given the chance, he clearly, explicitly, and very unequivocally told the court he wants to return to me...to live with me.

See that? That is a case of you exhibiting delusional behavior. You're accusing ME of doing exactly what you have, and continue to do. THAT's delusional.

You relinquished all rights a mere 2 months from his 14th birthday where he would have been able to declare his choice in front of everyone in open court.

I relinquished my rights so that I can remove the court from the equation. So that I can proceed with my plans respecting you. It's hard to do that when I have to maintain appearances for the court.

You are unsurprisingly misinformed about the significance of Gabriel turning 14. There is no statutory age, in either California or Arizona, at which the court is required to grant the child the living arrangement the child desires. It is completely at the discretion of the court. "Generally" after the age of 14 the court will "listen" to what the child wants - but that's the extent of the law on the matter.

I also point out, waiving one's rights does not mean refusing one's responsibilities. Though you seem to think they are one and the same. I did not refuse to allow Gabriel to return to live with me - I created a situation where he can see, firsthand, what you would be like in the absence of the court compelling you to act. And so far you've played right into it.

It doesn't surprise me given your repeated underestimation of his intelligence and potential; simply seeing him as a pawn and tool to use in your obsessive quest to win me back. ("destroy me" ... Whatever you want to call it.)

As I have explained to him: sometimes, to get the desired outcome, we have to go through a period of challenges. That is what he is going through right now. I believe the exact idiom I used was "Sometimes, to make an omelette you have to break a few eggs".

I explained what that meant and how it applied to the current situation. He acknowledged understanding.

I love Gabriel regardless of what decision he should ultimately make.

If that is the case then why do you insist on not allowing him to make that decision? He already has: he said he wants to come and live with me. He has expressed that if he never heard from you again he's fine with that.

It's already been more than 2 years...what do you believe is going to happen? Do you think one day he's going to wake up and realize that he was wrong all this time and suddenly love you unconditionally? Again, I say, THAT is delusional! Dude, the fact that since the July hearing, since you've gotten full custody and authority over him he has steadily withdrawn from you and that other kid of yours should tell you something. Before that he could hold on to the hope that at the next hearing the court would order you to return him. That hope is gone. I really don't know what you are hoping for, but your relationship with Gabriel has reached it's peak and the only place it's going from here is down. There's less than two years until he can legally move out and I'm willing to bet that within 24 hours of turning 16 you'll never hear from him again.

As for "love": unless you can provide a clear definition of what the word means then you should refrain from using it.

I know he is capable of so much, and will support him down whatever path he should ultimately choose in whatever capacity I am able. I may be hard on Gabriel sometimes, but being a real parent means looking out for the physical, mental, and emotional well being of your child even when it isn't easy or popular.

You are completely oblivious to anything going on with Gabriel. I just spoke to him on the phone - you still haven't even noticed the anomaly in his eye. You live in the same house with him and he's been back for 8 days and you haven't noticed. You also didn't notice it before he came up here. How can you not notice a bright discoloration in his eye? Do you not speak with him? Do you not look him in the eye when you do (assuming you do speak with him)?

You add him to your insurance but you don't bother taking him to the doctor or the dentist (you only do it when you think I'm going to bring it up in court). Dental cleaning and checkups are supposed to be every 6 months, not every 12. He wasn't in the habit of using deodorant - I had to point out to him one day that he smelled of BO. He still often "forgets" to brush his teeth. He doesn't know how to get from your place to the Target, which is only a few blocks away. When given the choice of doing the research to figure out how to get to the outdoor shooting range, or not go, he chose not to do the research. Is that the result of your "real parenting"?

I can only hope that one day you decide to strive to be a better person, and better parent.

I strive, on a daily basis, to improve myself. I strive to be objective and fair, and to be reasonable and rational. I consider myself to be fair and decent. The people I come in contact with, exclusive of you, of course, also consider me such.

You're still making the same unfounded arguments that you've been making since 2011. You're the one that has to use underhanded tactics and false claims to get what you want. I'm referring to you resorting to calling ICE in order to gain custody by default. See, when Gabriel's with me he's with me because he wants to be. I've never once had to force him or tell him he has to visit because the court ordered it. You, on the other hand, have done exactly that. You claim to want what's best for Gabriel, yet you teach him nothing. You think hugs and kisses will make everything okay (again, that's delusional).

It is my opinion that if anyone needs to work on being a better person it is you.

If not for yourself, for Gabriel's sake.

Both I, and Gabriel, are happy with who I am, with how I behave, with my values and beliefs. If I identify a character or personality flaw in myself then I will commit to improving it.

You act the same now as you did in 2000. You still try to use people's guilt and pity to manipulate them. You tell people half truths and versions of events which are heavily skewed in your favor, to gain their support. That's deceptive. That's completely contrary to how I try to live and how I try to guide Gabriel. You can deny that you do that until you're blue in the face but I've got over 400 emails from you and/or about you where you've done that countless times.

You rush into relationships with losers like Lauchner and Capuano, you move in with them, you hastily have children with them. You expose your children to people like Lauchner and tell them he's a good, wonderful person. You allow him to take on a paternal role in their lives. You defend his behavior and get angry when people state facts about him. Yet you want to pretend you're a good, honorable person? And that you give a shit about your children?

He is the one being hurt by your actions, scheming, and manipulation.

Gabriel is not being hurt at all by what I am doing. He knew before I started executing the plan exactly what the plan was/is. I always confer with him beforehand so that he's not taken by surprise. If he told me he was uneasy with anything I would not proceed with that course. I told him in May I would be waiving all of my parental rights in July. I told him why. If he had concerns about me wouldn't he bring them to you? You're his primary custodial parent, aren't you? When he's with me we talk about you. Are you saying that he has such a lack of respect for you that he can't even speak openly with you about me? If that's that case then it really sucks to be you.

*He once asked me if I would shoot you. I told him that murder is illegal and immoral and can result in spending the rest of one's life in prison.

And that the rest of my life in prison is not a risk I'm willing to take. But otherwise, no, I would have no qualms about it; that that is how much I despise you for the things you've done and continue to do. He did not flinch; he didn't look anything other than indifferent; as best I could tell, he didn't care. The topic never came up again. That was during his visit last summer. To be clear, I told Tuchfarber the same thing. There is nothing illegal or threatening about wanting to harm someone - as long as you don't act on it. I am reasonable and rational enough to know the difference, and to refrain from engaging in such activity.* And let me be absolutely clear on this point: I would never deliberately cause you physical harm, other than in self defense or defense of another. Though that is nothing special toward you - I have that rule for ALL people. Also, I emphasize that Gabriel brought up the question and I only responded to it truthfully.

* As a show of good faith, I'll fill you in on one of the plans that I'm working on for you. What I'd like, very much, is to be able to add some "intimate" pictures of you to your web site. To do that, of course, I'd have to hire someone to get close to you, pretend to be interested in you. Eventually, gain your trust, then eventually sleep with you. That should take...what? About 3, 4 days? Difficult to find people that unscrupulous. But for the right price there's always someone willing to do what you want. Hooray America! There's nothing criminally illegal about it. You may be able to pursue a claim in civil court, but I'm not going to worry about that.*
Okay, good evening.

Patty,

I can clearly see that maturity is your strong suit. Did you actually have something of merit to discuss, or is this another one of your wailing tantrums you have while you go through some form of narcotic/opiate withdrawal?

Honestly if I gave any merit to any of your "proposals" or suggestions regarding myself or Gabriel, I'd immediately have my head examined.

I actually never said that... Maybe you should work on reading comprehension. What I SAID was that at 14, the courts were set to allow Gabriel to choose. Again, for the record since, YOU robbed Gabriel of that right to choose by relinquishing all of your parental rights in open court a mere MONTH before his birthday. All for what? To pursue some selfish vendetta against me? Or is the truth that you don't actually want Gabriel, and merely see him as a tool and weapon to try and manipulate against me? Admit it Richard... The thought of having to be an actual parent terrified you. If his eye was such a concern, why did you not take him to see a doctor while you had him, you noticed it first. Sad. Very sad.

As for the rest of your delusional rantings, it is clear you have some severe mommy issues, transference issues, and a sick fixation on me. It's obvious you missed me, but it isn't flattering, just very sad. You should move on with your life, find something that makes you happy, and be a better person. It isn't healthy to be so filled with hate (and from the tone of this email alcohol and drugs) all of the time.

Desiree:

I have a few minutes, so I'll point out another way you're wrong about the alleged lies you've attempted to cite:

In 2007, when I stated in the Immigration Court, that my name was Richard Riess, it was, in fact, Richard Riess under the California common law. All of my ID, issued by the State of California and the State of Arizona had the name Richard Riess on it and I had been using the name Richard Riess exclusively for the prior 11 years. It was not until I came to Canada and the Canadian government refused to allow me continue to use the name Richard Riess unless I formally changed it from Patrick Fox and the US government and the State of California also then began refusing to allow me to continue using Richard Riess, that I decided it would be easier to just go back to using Patrick Fox. So, you see, I didn't lie about my name in the Immigration Court.

If the day ever arrives that you are right about something that we're disputing, it will be a special day, indeed.

Good day,
Patrick

Desiree:

Please find attached, a scanned copy of the deportation document issued by the Canadian Consulate, bearing the name Richard Riess. You had stated on the telephone, that that would be sufficient, so I am dying to hear what you're next reason for refusing the visit will be.

When we return to court, after the holidays, I will petition to have Gabriel's birth certificate updated.

I still think you should send my picture to the people you insist are my parents. Of course, you MUST assume the federal prosecutor did that during my perjury trial right? Do you think that might be why the US Attorney's Office never took their testimony? But no, really, I insist: send my picture to them! And, in response to your comments about my "brother" - holy fuck, you're dense sometimes. Dude, that guy was 3 times my size and we looked nothing alike! How the fuck could you believe we had ANY biological relation? I'm saying all this with a smile on my face - I can't believe how thick you are sometimes.

And let me see if I understand this correctly: you think that a 14 year old might get separated from his parent, in one of the safest major cities in North America, a city with an almost non-existent crime rate, and that he wouldn't have enough intelligence to simply call my mobile phone from his mobile phone and say "hey, where are you?" That's the problem with single mothers: they always want their children to stay 5 years old. And that's why single father make better single parents.

Patrick

P.S. I Canadian Possession and Acquisition License (federal firearms license) is not the easiest thing to get. There's an extensive background check, and they call references, and you have to register the firearms to your home address and notify the RCMP as soon as you move, and they do an automated arrest and criminal record check every 24 hours...my point is, if I was as full of shit as you claim then there's no way I'd be able to get and maintain the license and the RCMP would come and take away my pistols and I'd be all sad and shit. Oh, what, now are you going to say you don't want Gabriel coming because I have guns in the home? You already knew that - I told you months ago that I got him his own Mauser K98.

Desiree:

Since you always insist that I lie about EVERYTHING and you can't trust anything I say - I've attached a few supporting documents. A copy of my BC ID, birth certificate, PAL, and just for good measure, a copy of my most recent paycheck. Of course, I work corp-to-corp because being an employee is for losers who feel the need to "belong" and have a company take care of them like some paternal figure. But you can easily verify on the California Secretary of State web site (<http://kepler.sos.ca.gov/>) for the California corporation; and on the BC Registry Services web site (<http://www.bcregistryservices.gov.bc.ca>) for the BC corporation; that I am the principal.

As you can see, believe whatever you want - but I've got documentary proof of MY claims and you have...well, nothing to support your claims. Just a lot of empty accusations.

I've been waiting for you to get off your ass and transfer the custody case to Arizona but clearly the marijuana has made you lethargic so I'm going to go ahead and file that too. Oh, what's that, you say? The judge in California said he won't allow the case to be transferred? If you believe that you're more gullible than I already thought. He doesn't have the authority to do that. And you and I both know the Arizona court is going to let Gabriel decide for himself where he wants to live.

Let me know what your basis for refusing to believe the authenticity of the attached documents is. Why don't you check with Vital Statistics in Florida? I'm sure there is some way to verify it - unless, again, you just don't want to confirm that you're so incredibly wrong. And regardless of what you believe - that birth certificate together with my BC ID has been sufficient every time I've crossed the border. You only require the passport when flying, not driving.

I don't expect a response to this. Typically, when you realize you're beat and you have once again made an ass of yourself, you usually slink away quietly.

Oh, one more thing, I almost forgot, that other Richard Riess was arrested in Toronto in 1991 and never showed up for court. A warrant was issued and he just disappeared. That warrant is still there. If I were him I would not have been able to get a PAL. Also, you cannot legally change your name in Canada if you have an outstanding warrant. If I were him I would not be able to change my name to Patrick Fox. Come on, dude! Get over it. You got nothing! If you don't believe me about the PAL, go ahead, read up on the requirements. If you think I'm lying and don't really have a PAL you can check with Gabriel. You need a PAL to get a membership at a shooting range which he can tell you I have (or I can scan the membership card for you). I can also send you pictures of my pistols and his rifle - which I wouldn't be able to get without the PAL. Face it, man: my name is Patrick Fox and I have a squeaky clean background and I'm an upstanding member of society who makes pretty decent money, and Gabriel likes me more than he likes you (you have to hold him there by force or court order, he comes to me of his own free will). You've been played...you're a sucker...for years I was paying a salary in your name, through my corporations (you do remember Vertical Inversion Systems, right?) and not withholding taxes, you've got thousands in back taxes which, eventually, the IRS is going to go looking for. And if they don't, they're just a phone call away. I'm methodical and think things through. I look at the long term. Sometimes my plans take years to complete, but I always see them through.

Cheers,
Patrick

P.S. I emphasize the PAL because it is hard to get, involves an extensive background check, and requires a clean record and proof of good moral standing and psychological stability. If there was ANY truth to your claims I would never be able to get it. Do not take any statements or references to firearms, above, as being in any way threatening. I would never use a firearms offensively or to threaten someone. They are for sport and target practice only.

B.C. man Patrick Fox aims to 'destroy' ex-wife with revenge website

Fox posted emails he wrote saying, if it were legal, he'd have 'no qualms' about shooting ex-wife

By Natalie Clancy, Yvette Brend, CBC News Posted: Feb 18, 2016 2:00 AM PT Last Updated: Feb 18, 2016 8:24 AM PT

Patrick Fox says he wants "to destroy" his ex-wife with an online campaign from his Burnaby, B.C., home.

He created a website in her name full of vulgar content and demeaning images and purporting to describe details of her sex life. He also posted about her partners, friends and mother — updating the site dozens of times since 2014.

Desiree Capuano, who lives near Tucson, Ariz., with the couple's son, told CBC News a co-worker first alerted her to the site, after the URL was emailed to all of her contacts on the business social network LinkedIn.

The site calls her a drug addict, a child abuser and a white supremacist. She says it has harmed her ability to find work.

A "completely enraged and mortified" Capuano has fought to get the site shut down, appealing to U.S. and Canadian police and the internet provider to help and asking Fox to let go of what she calls his "sick fixation."

"There has got to be a way to take that down," Capuano said. "He told me once that his ultimate goal was to make me commit suicide. I won't let him win."

'[I promised] I'd devote the rest of my life to doing everything I could, legally of course, to ruin her life and destroy her.'—Patrick Fox (a.k.a. Richard Riess)

Experts say there are a growing number of victims of online revenge attacks, where damaging intimate and personal content is posted.

Fox is defiant. He told CBC News nothing short of Capuano's death or "when she is destitute and homeless" will prompt him to take down the site.

"She ruined both of our lives," said Fox, who blames Capuano for taking his son and having him deported to Canada.

Fox arrested in July, no charges laid

Capuano took her complaints to local sheriffs in Arizona, the FBI, the hosts of the website and several lawyers, but says she could not afford the legal fees to fight her case in civil court.

In December 2015, an Arizona judge issued a protective order that stopped Fox from sending her emails — but did not order the website be taken down.

Fox's site and the couple's email exchanges were also investigated by Burnaby RCMP. In July 2015, Fox was arrested and the RCMP recommended a charge of criminal harassment. The Crown did not approve the charge and Fox was released.

"The actual comments used by the perpetrator in this case, we couldn't conclude that that would cause the complainant to have an objective fear for their personal safety," said Dan McLaughlin, communications counsel for the Criminal Justice Branch.

"In this case, the fact the people live in different countries played a part in that assessment."

Lawyer questions Crown's decision

CBC News provided the emails and documents Capuano says she gave police to a lawyer who has experience as a prosecutor and defence counsel in cases of criminal harassment. After reviewing the files, Kevin Westell disagrees with the Crown's assessment of this case.

"The fear of personal safety can include psychological safety. If psychological harm is being inflicted by actions that are communicated over a distance, it just simply doesn't matter that this person is far away."

"I don't know what it would take other than him actually physically shooting me for them to think that I was at risk," said Capuano, furious that Canadian authorities don't understand how much she fears for her safety and that of her son.

Westell told CBC that Canadian police and prosecutors need more resources to deal with a growing number of online attacks.

"To hide behind your desk and your computer and stalk is just so easy now, because technology is just so easy to use by anyone."

Seeks to 'ruin her life and destroy her'

Fox and Capuano split up in 2001, when their son was 18 months old, back when Fox went by his birth name, Richard Riess.

Capuano said Fox hid the child from her for years in Arizona. Mother and son were reunited in 2011 when Fox served a two-year sentence for perjury, after he falsely claimed he was American.

Fox told CBC that Capuano abandoned their son for years.

Whatever the truth of their beginnings, the end result was an ultimatum.

After Fox was deported to B.C., he demanded Capuano return their son to him, he told CBC, or he would "devote the rest of my life to doing everything I could, legally of course, to ruin her life and destroy her."

Fox posted intimate images and derogatory editorials about Capuano, including snaps of her in bed with a partner, images of her bedroom and a 2012 mug shot from a marijuana possession charge that did not result in a conviction.

Fox has 'no qualms'

One of the posts on Fox's website details an email exchange between him and the couple's son, in which the teen asked if Fox would ever shoot his mother.

Fox wrote back that he'd have "no qualms" about killing Capuano if that was legal — and then he posted about it online.

"No qualms right ... means no moral dilemma. That doesn't mean that I would actually do it," Fox told CBC.

"There is nothing illegal about wanting to harm someone as long as you don't act on it," Fox said.

Seeking revenge porn

Fox admits he often copies his son on emails to Capuano, including about his plan to hire somebody to obtain sexually explicit photos to post on the website.

"I'd have to hire someone to get close to you, pretend to be interested in you ... gain your trust, then eventually sleep with you," he said in an email January 2015.

"I fully admit it doesn't look good," Fox told CBC. "It would make me look like a very nasty person I'm sure. But when people then consider the things that she has done and the reasons why I am so mean to her, I think that mitigates some of the nastiness."

The Crown told CBC the case is not closed, and it would look at it again if police obtained new evidence.

My Ex-Husband Wants to Kill Me! Or, At Least That's What I Keep Telling People

Perspective: Desiree

7527 views | 37 comments

Feb 13, 2016 | 11:19 am PDT

In January last year my ex-husband, Patrick, sent me an email saying that he was going to shoot me, that that's how much he hates me! Patrick has multiple guns...that he shoots...and he constantly crosses the border between Canada and the US, unnoticed. He can easily cross the border and show up at my door at any moment and do it. And I'm scared out of my mind that he's going to. Every moment of every day, I live in terror. I'm afraid to leave the house to even just go to the store to get milk. I'm afraid, constantly, for my children. He's crazy...psychotic...he's obsessed with me...I mean, fuck, just look at this website -- do you have any idea how much time must have gone into a website like this? I can't look for a job because I'm stressed out all the time. Some days I can barely get out of bed. Oh, god, why won't anyone help me?

Or, at least, that's the story I've been feeding to the news media lately, and to the FBI and Homeland Security before that, and to the local law enforcement and local courts before that. But am I really scared Patrick would do anything like that? Do I really even think, for one moment, that Patrick would ever physically harm me? Well, let's consider some of the relevant facts in this matter -- facts which I've very deliberately left out of the story when I speak to the police and the judges and the journalists.

The Timing

According to the story I've been selling, I received the email from Patrick, where he said he was going to kill me, in January 2015. Yet, I never made an issue of it until July 20, 2015 -- about a week after Patrick first posted my boyfriend James Pendleton's name and picture on this website; and, less than 24 hours after receiving an email from Patrick, stating:

I just don't see how it's possible that Pendleton could possibly maintain a security clearance while also cohabiting with you. I mean, wouldn't a responsible, patriotic citizen feel a sense of obligation to report such a situation to the proper authorities? How can a person with such poor judgement that he would be seriously committed enough to a woman that he would have her move into his house with her two children, be trusted with a security clearance -- a top secret clearance, at that.

My boyfriend, James Pendleton

James would later testify, at the hearing for the injunction against harassment he filed against Patrick, that Patrick had threatened his security clearance, and that his security clearance was his livelihood.

So, on the one hand, I'm begging people to believe that I'm sincerely afraid for mine and my children's safety, yet I've known for 15 years that Patrick has owned guns and goes shooting regularly. He had guns when we lived together; I've made reference to him having guns in numerous declarations I've filed in our child custody proceedings -- but never in any kind of fearful way, just as a matter of fact; since he's been living in Canada and our son has been going there to visit him, I've known that they've been going to the shooting range -- I've watched videos of them at the at the range; and none of that was ever an issue for me...until the moment Patrick mentioned James' security clearance.

The Increasing Embellishment

The first time I claimed Patrick threatened me, in my report to the RCMP in July 2015, I said "[Patrick] has been emailing me, telling me he would shoot me if it was legal". I made the mistake, however, of providing the RCMP a copy of the actual email. I don't think they took it very seriously after that. In fact, the last line of the Constable's report stated:

There is no criminal offence being committed.

Oh well, live and learn, right.

A couple days later James and I went to the Sahuarita Municipal Court to get an Order of Protection against Patrick. This time I made sure not to provide a copy of the email. I would just turn on the tears, and act all scared and shit, and tell the Judge Patrick "tells me that he discussed shooting me with our son and said that he would if there was no risk of going to jail". It worked! The court granted the order of protection based solely on that completely unsupported claim. Of course, I didn't mention that it was stated in an email - otherwise the court might have asked to see a copy of it.

In December 2015, at the contested hearing for the order of protection, I stuck to that claim I had told the court. I figured it worked in July, it'll work now. But Patrick denied ever saying that he would shoot me, or that he ever threatened me. Since I provided no evidence to support my claim it was "he said, she said". The court didn't buy it any more.

And, although there was an order of protection against Patrick, prohibiting him from "harassing" me, he continued to post shit about me on this website. Why was the court not doing anything about that? Why were the police not doing anything about it?

So, after that hearing, I stepped it up a bit. Fuck saying Patrick said "he would shoot me if the risk of jail time were not there". I started telling people Patrick said he would kill me, murder me, and ignoring the conditional part about the risk of jail time. I called every law enforcement agency that might possibly have any kind of jurisdiction; every news media entity whose telephone number I could find; telling them that my ex-husband clearly said he intended to murder me.

So let's recap: Over 7 months, my story went from briefly mentioning, in passing, that Patrick had a conversation with our son wherein he said, to our son (not to me), he would shoot me if there was no risk of jail time - to Patrick plainly stating he was going to murder me. And still no one did a damn thing about it!

The Legal Irrelevance of the Order of Protection

I claim that I need the order of protection to protect me from Patrick shooting me, physically shooting me, with the guns that he shoots.

Yet, I also claim Patrick is not a US citizen and has been deported from the US. I further claim that Patrick was convicted of perjury - a felony.

Federal law, specifically 18 U.S.C. § 922(g), makes it illegal for any person who is in the US illegally, and for any person who has been convicted of a felony, to possess a firearm. Therefore, according to my story, Patrick is already prohibited from possessing firearms in the US - regardless of the order of protection! So what additional security can I possibly believe a civil order of protection - can possibly provide? I mean, it doesn't make Patrick possessing a firearm within the US more illegal. In fact, it changes absolutely nothing at all (at least with respect to Patrick possessing firearms, or providing me any kind of protection).

Of course, if the perjury conviction were ever to be vacated...oh, let's say, on the doctrines of "literal truth", or "actual innocence"...then the § 922(g) prohibitions would no longer apply. Could it be that I've been bullshitting all along and I know Patrick actually is a US citizen and I believe that conviction might someday be vacated? That would seem the most logical conclusion, wouldn't it?

The Logistics

Now let's consider the logistics that would be involved in Patrick actually attempting to shoot me.

First, the constraints:

1. Because of our history, if anything were to happen to me Patrick would be the prime suspect.
2. He cannot leave any record or evidence that he was within the US around the time of something happening to me because that would definitely draw huge suspicion on him.
3. He cannot be seen by anyone who might be able to later recognize him and pick him out of a police photo array. This becomes more critical the closer he would get to Sahuarita.

Patrick lives in Vancouver...which is in Canada...a foreign country. 1,700 miles away from me.

He would have to sneak into the US, crossing the border without being detected, because he would be illegally smuggling a firearm into the US. That means he would not be able to drive across the border or fly. He would have to walk at least 15 miles - without encountering a single Border Patrol or CBPA officer.

He would then have to catch a Greyhound to Seattle. From there he could either continue on Greyhound or catch a train. He wouldn't be able to fly because bringing a firearm onto a plane would most certainly guarantee being detected and detained by TSA. And because flying would generate an official record of his presence. He wouldn't be able to rent a car and drive because to rent a car he would need to use a credit card and show his driver's license, which would provide a record of his presence.

Taking a bus or train from Seattle to Tucson would take at least 2 - 3 days (one way). By the time he got to Tucson he would be exhausted and would need to grab a hotel so he could rest, shower, and change into clean clothes (come on, he's not a savage, after all). But, he wouldn't be able to rent a hotel room because that would require using a credit card and showing ID. Again, leaving a record of his presence.

There are no Greyhounds or trains which come to Sahuarita, so he would have to go to Tucson, then make his way the additional 20 miles to Sahuarita. That means using a taxi or the public transit that only runs once every couple of hours. He would have to be careful not to be seen by anyone near Sahuarita, otherwise they would be able to identify him in a photo array. That rules out taking a taxi or public transit. So what, he's going to walk the 20 miles? I guess so.

So then, after being on a bus for the past 2 - 3 days, having not showered or shaved, smelling and looking like shit, and walking another 20 miles, he would have to stroll into my white, middle class neighborhood without anyone noticing what appears to be an incredibly out of place homeless man, carrying a backpack (he would have to conceal the gun somewhere).

And then, what if I'm not home the moment he gets there? Does he wait out front? Walk aimlessly around the neighborhood? Both of which would surely draw attention to him – remember, he must not be seen by anybody.

So then, let's suppose he actually pulls all of that off; shows up at my home; and knocks on my door – then what? Will I be the one to answer? Or our son? Or James? He can't possibly know. But he would have to have the pistol out, with a round chambered and the hammer cocked, because he would have no idea if I'm going to answer the door with a gun of my own to defend myself. But what if our son answers the door? How does he explain his presence? How does he explain the cocked Beretta PX4 (I'm assuming he would use the PX4, but it's somewhat arbitrary) in his hand?

He would have no way of knowing if there was anybody else in the house at the moment. Would he be intending to shoot all of them too? I mean, he'd have to wouldn't he? They'd be witnesses.

Then there's the issue of the noise. For those who've never heard a gun fired – they're loud as fuck! There's no way none of my neighbors would hear the shots. And, unlike an immobile paper target, shooting a moving target is much, much harder. We have to assume he would have to fire multiple rounds – each with it's own deafening BANG! for my neighbors to hear.

Then, he would have to somehow fade away – again, undetected. Likely, someone would have called the police after hearing the shots fired. A scruffy looking guy walking away from the scene is not likely to get too far before being spotted by a cruiser.

But let's pretend reality is the surreal fantasy world I live in. Let's pretend Patrick was actually able to flee the scene, on foot, in an area where it's all flat, open desert spaces. Then he would have to make the trek all the way back to Vancouver – again, without being detected. That means another Greyhound or train ride...no hotels...no rental cars...no planes.

In total, the excursion would take at least 6 days. He would have to hope that nobody at his office notices his absence. He would have to, somehow, make it look like he continued to go about his day to day routine – someone would have to stay at his apartment during that time so that there would be records of his Netflix account being used, access to the Internet from his connection – because a sudden 6 day period of complete inactivity at exactly the same time that something bad happened to me would be incredibly suspicious. Also, absolutely no activity on his credit and/or debit cards; no daily stops at Starbucks, using the Starbucks app on his phone? And, of course, he wouldn't be able to take his phone with him because smartphones have GPS devices and that might generate evidence of his location. But then how would he explain not checking his messages or email for all that time? Checking his email would potentially generate a record of the IP address he checked it from – which could be used to determine his approximate location when he accessed the mail server.

And then there's the issue of ballistics. In Canada, all handguns have to be registered to their owner and to a specific address. All of Patrick's handguns are registered in his name, and to his address. The RCMP can show up at any time to verify that he's storing them in accordance with the laws (i.e. that a trigger lock is in place, and they're also locked inside a secure container). If Patrick were to shoot me with one of his own guns then he'd have to dispose of that gun because the slugs which would be extracted from my body may (arguably) be able to be matched to the barrel markings of the gun. But then he'd have to immediately notify the RCMP that the gun was lost or stolen. And reporting that exact gun lost or stolen, within a close proximity of me being shot would be incredibly suspicious. And, the moment something happened to me, you know the RCMP would be knocking on his door – as I pointed out, he would be the primary suspect if anything ever happened to me. Chances are, he would still be on a Greyhound, on his way back to Canada at that point.

Alright, enough! I think you get my point. It would be completely, utterly, unquestionably impossible for Patrick to "shoot me" without leaving a trail of evidence. Even the dumbest person in the world can see that there is absolutely no way he would be able to pull something like that off without getting caught and going to prison for the rest of his life.

The Motivation

Obviously my motivation for telling the world that my ex-husband stated on the Internet that he is going to murder me is that I'm scared shitless that he is going to murder me, right?

Well, actually, if you consider all the facts, the timeline, and the specific points James and I brought up in our testimony at the order of protection hearing, the real motivation should be quite apparent: To get this website taken down! 99% of our testimony was focused on this website. I only made one brief reference to the email from Patrick, stating that he would shoot me.

Interestingly, at the combined order of protection and injunction against harassment hearings, very little time was spent on my concerns. When asked if I had any questions for Patrick I said no. Most of the hearing was focused on James' claims that this website was "harassing" him and that Patrick had violated his copyrights.

Personally, I don't really care about this website – as is evidenced by the fact that I did nothing about it for years, until James appeared on it and started crawling up my ass about it.

Before filing for the order of protection and the injunction against harassment, we (well, James actually) contacted Patrick's domain registrar, and Internet service provider, to complain about this website in the hopes they would force Patrick to take it down (see the email here). They told him that Patrick wasn't violating their respective policies and that without a court order they weren't going to do anything. And that was the real reason we filed for the restraining orders! Obviously, we're not the brightest bulbs in the pack – we figured any court order would suffice; we didn't realize it would have to be a court order explicitly compelling those companies to do some specific thing. Moreover, we didn't realize it would have to be a court order issued by a court which actually has jurisdiction in the specific geographic location where the website is actually, physically hosted (which is not in the US).

The Actual Email and Threatening Statement

And now, let's have a look at that actual email that supposedly started it all. It's posted right here on this website for the whole world to see. The relevant quote, in it's entirety -- because context is, obviously significant -- is as follows:

He [our son] once asked me if I would shoot you. I told him that murder is illegal and immoral and can result in spending the rest of one's life in prison. And that the rest of my life in prison is not a risk I'm willing to take. But otherwise, no, I would have no qualms about it; that that is how much I despise you for the things you've done and continue to do. He did not flinch; he didn't look anything other than indifferent; as best I could tell, he didn't care. The topic never came up again. That was during his visit last summer. To be clear, I told [Detective] Tuchfarber [see note 1, below] the same thing. There is nothing illegal or threatening about wanting to harm someone -- as long as you don't act on it. I am reasonable and rational enough to know the difference, and to refrain from engaging in such activity.

And let me be absolutely clear on this point: I would never deliberately cause you physical harm, other than in self defense or defense of another. Though that is nothing special toward you -- I have that rule for ALL people. Also, I emphasize that [our son] brought up the question and I only responded to it truthfully.

Now, as you can see, there's no actual threat in there. Patrick never actually said he intends to shoot me -- only that he wouldn't have a moral dilemma (or qualm, as he put it) about it, and only if there was no risk of going to prison. Well, shooting someone is a crime, so there is, and always will be, the risk of going to prison. In other words, it is an impossible condition. So, even if he did actually say that he intended to shoot me (which he very clearly didn't), he premised it on an impossible condition which could never, in our lifetimes, come to pass.

More so, he then, very clearly emphasizes that "[he] would never deliberately cause [me] physical harm".

Even Ghandi would consider that communication innocuous!

Conclusion

There is absolutely no sincerity to my claims of fear for my safety. I have the misguided belief that by simply repeating the claim enough times, and by telling enough people about it, that this website will go away. I have absolutely no idea how one thing is connected to the other, but reality is not something I've ever had much of a grip on.

No, folks, I'm just trying to manipulate the courts, the numerous law enforcement agencies, and now the media, to get this website taken down. That's all, pure and simple. I'm lying and crying and making up completely false allegations about people to exploit the compassion and empathy of the masses to get what I want. Just more of the same of 'same of' for those who know me.

Notes from the Editor:

1. Detective Shayne Tuchfarber of the Phoenix Police Dept, was the Detective in charge of Desiree's first complaint of harassment against Patrick, back in 2014. Nothing came of that case.
2. This post, like all of the posts on this website, was not written by Desiree, regardless of the fact that it's written in the first person, from the perspective of Desiree.
3. We wish to emphasize that Patrick has absolutely no history of violent, aggressive, or threatening behavior. Nor any history of emotional or psychological instability. This post is not intended to threaten, intimidate, instill fear in anybody -- the purpose of this post is to point out how ridiculous and clearly malicious Desiree's claims of fear for her safety are.

Wow, aren't you a psychopathic stalker? Of course she's afraid of you, I would be too. This obsessive website is proof enough of your mental instability. You are engaging in the exact sort of obsessive stalking that is a red flag for homicide. It's a shame for her and for your son that she didn't see this side of you before having a child with you. I feel very sorry for your ex; if we were in the same state I would offer her a job. So sad that you are abusing her like this. I will pray for her health, happiness, and protection from your harmful intentions. Hopefully you will see the light and stop abusing her, but personality disorders like yours are notoriously stubborn. However, through God all things are possible, so I will pray for you as well.

I believe they were addressing the post from "disgusted" who is obviously a nutjob who has not bothered to go read the emails, but has chosen to drink the CBC Koolaid and bought the story. Anyone with half a god damn brain would have realised that it was written by a bitch, to help another bitch avoid getting what she deserves. Lying? What exactly did I lie about? I gave my opinion, it would have been impossible to lie. That must have been a reflexive response. I.e., a woman (or, as in this case, what you assume to be a woman) opens her mouth, and you reflexively respond with "lying bitch...lie...bitch! Bitch bitch bitch!" Way to keep your eye on the issues, buddy! I can tell you're a sharp one!

Your entire rant was a hate campaign against someone as a result of a one sided story. Investigative journalism? My ass. Where in the original CBC article or in your rant on here, is there one shred of evidence showing or proving that anything said on this site is not true? Bring some, any evidence that any if this is a lie.

Yeah, I am on the issue.

PS, I know you said you'd pray for him but don't bother doing that for me. As a product of a very religious mother, I've learned that religious people need a crutch to get through life. I personally don't have an inferiority complex to a nonexistent being and therefore don't need prayer.

It makes me laugh that you say you aren't. If you weren't so obsessed you'd move on and leave her alone regardless of what she had done although I don't believe a word of what you have said. Congratulations though you might slowly change the stereo types of Canadians slowly and thoroughly one dick head at a time.

Reading through a lot of the emails from years back shows just how vindictive of a bitch she really is. She clearly threatened to use multiple ways to threaten him to gain custody of a son that wanted nothing to do with her. A son that she abandoned for over over 9 years of his life. The father even proved in family court that she abandoned the son and she was pissed off that he gained primary custody. Her revenge was to get him deported. Now she's playing the victim card after she's got several kids from different fathers and also has a long criminal history. It's obvious she's far from a victim here. The real victims are this father, his son, and any children she's ever had custody of.

To the person maintainig this website: I am truly, and deeply, sad for you. To be able to disgrace another human being (good or bad) that much, only shows that you are in a disastrous state of mind. Maybe you should seek help.... indeed, you will never reach a peace of mind by tearing other people life's apart. I really hope that one day you will understand that happiness comes from peace and forgiveness. That you will be way more serene if you let go of the hate. If you cannot do it for yourself, do it for the child.... as good or bad his mother can be, sha is still his mother, and you are destroying this child self-esteem and emotional balance by trying to destroy his mother.

As a woman whom spent three years in a woman's shelter after my ex told my son he would like to shoot me in the face, you think I would be triggered and telling you off right now. However, during my stay there I would estimate that a third of the woman there were the real abusers and used the system; and their children, to hurt and control their ex's. I can understand the heart wrenching feeling when your life is taken over by a sociopath and your children's development skewed, yet being helpless to ever fully resolve the situation because they pull everyone's sympathy and hatred as soon as you take steps to protect yourself and your children's future.

I would love to see the procedures default to give children to have their own counsel and support systems. There is always a great deal more under the surface and the real abusers are well versed in making the process as painful and difficult as possible. I am now dealing with my child becoming controlling and abusive and it is breaking my heart.

I commend your efforts and hope that you have your son permanently in your care sooner rather than later. WHEN he is returned to you do not hesitate to get counseling specific to domestic violence even if he seems okay.

I think men get the most unfair treatment in custody battles. It is seriously insane what women get away with and how they ruin so many men's lives. I seriously don't know how they live with themselves. What chemical imbalance causes them to become so evil? I seriously don't know how society accepts this and let's it continue to happen. This is why there is groups like fathers for justice <http://www.fathers-4-justice.org/> Anyway- good for you Patrick. There is always 2 sides to a story, and at least yours is coming out. Maybe a little overboard, but I've seen and heard much worse as a result of this very type of thing.

Like someone before me mentioned, this was in the NYDN today. It's a liberal rag but entertaining.

Seriously though, you married a stripper and a drug addict. Did you think you could convert her? It's always been an unspoken rule, you don't date (let alone marry) a stripper. If they are up there stripping and giving lap dances to 60 yr old men it's best to assume they aren't right in the head. And they certainly will not make for good mothers.

But seriously, I think you guys can work through this. Many couples have fights and work these things out. Chris could stay too. Maybe like a live in Nanny.

And btw Patrick, You totally blew that anal story. I realize you're angry now but at that time I'm pretty sure you would have been willing to use motor oil to get in that ass. When you have some time maybe a rewrite is in order. Change the title too. Something like "The night I nailed the dancer in the Ass". That will get some hits.

Or, rather than jumping to that common assumption that loved her, could it not be that I am only doing back to her what she did to me in 2012? How is it that everybody completely ignores the fact that in 2012 Desiree contacted every friend, associate, and person she believed to be my family and told them I was a fugitive and hid our son from her for 9 years, in order to turn people against me? Why is it acceptable for her to do that to me but now you all make a big deal about this website?

Please explain to me how you justify such a double standard.

Patrick Fox says:

Hal That's funny.

The reason I would go through all this trouble is because over the past few years (and back in 2000/2001) I've watched as Desiree pretended to be such a sweet caring person to get what she wants from people then use them, then when she didn't get her way spread terrible lies about them, accuse them of things they didn't do.

But I really started to hate her when she showed up, out of the blue, in August 2011 and took our son to Arizona then lied to the court about me "hiding him" from her all that time. She was crying and going on about how for 9 years all she ever thought about was one day getting her son back. And everybody ate it up. She didn't give a shit about how it affected our son, or my friend that had actually been taking care of our son all that time I was in custody; or all the people that were major parts of our son's life.

And then, we reached the point of never turning back, in January 2013, when she called ICE for no other reason than to circumvent the family court's custody order and to get custody "by default".

But that's all in the past, right? Except that every day I continue to be subjected the consequences of her actions: our son is still in her care, 1700 miles away; I cannot return to the US without the fear that she'll call ICE again; I cannot return, even to visit, to Los Angeles (where I've spent almost all of my life) without that same fear; I can't go visit my friends or my family in California; I can't take those lucrative Silicon Valley projects; every time we go to the family court she makes the same kinds of ridiculous, unfounded claims as she made to CBC, namely that I threatened to kill her. Even though her allegations are completely unsupported, the family courts always look out for the poor, innocent single mothers so the monstrous men don't harm them. I've never used force against another person (other than self defence, of course) in my entire life. She's submitted numerous requests to the family court seeking an order prohibiting all contact between me and our son (I will be posting those here once I finish scanning them). She took away the mobile phone I provided our son and she records our calls on the landline.

She got an order of protection against me, based on her claim that I said I would shoot her, and her boyfriend James Pendleton got an injunction against harassment against me, based on the content of this website. Both of those orders prohibit me from contacting either of them. The problem is, since she took my son's phone away I can only call on Pendleton's home landline – which I'm, technically, prohibited from doing.

So, you see, I believe she is an evil, vindictive person who doesn't care about harming anyone – even strangers – as long as she gets what she wants. And as long as my life is being adversely affected by her actions than I will remain diligent in my efforts.

Sorry this was so long.

I do feel really bad for you, I'm surprised your unable to gain custody of your son through the Canadian family court system....seeing as you are unable to enter the united states and she can presumably enter Canada, you would think they would be sympathetic towards you (check out that Kelly Rutherford case in the states) but you are right that the courts usually always side with the women, If women want equal rights then it should be the same in court.

Unfortunately there's a law in the US called the UCCJEA, which is also recognized in Canada that provides that the state which will have jurisdiction of child custody matters is determined by where the child physically resides. So, he'd have to be residing here in BC for 8 months before the case could be transferred here. Sucks.

SUBJECT:

Richard RIESS

Report of Investigation

File Number:
SMS160500005

Title:
RIESS, Richard

Control Office:
BLW/SIU

On 5/27/2016, Blaine Sector Dispatch advised US Border Patrol agents of an individual who had just illegally crossed the border from Canada into the US near Double Ditch Road. Agents responded to the area and encountered a man who identified himself as Patrick Henry FOX; DOB: 11/24/1973. FOX stated he was a United States citizen, and produced a genuine birth certificate from the state of Florida. Agents ran record checks on FOX, which revealed a possible conviction for False Claim to US Citizenship under the name Richard RIESS. He had in his possession a Canadian Driver's License, and a Canadian Firearm License, both under the name Patrick Henry FOX; DOB: 11/24/1973. He was transported to the Sumas, WA Border Patrol Station for further investigation.

Once at the station, I conducted a preliminary interview with FOX. I asked him where he was born. He stated he was born in Florida, USA, to the "best of his knowledge." I asked him what hospital he was born in. He stated he was born in Memorial General Hospital in Hollywood, Florida. I asked why he was removed from the US, and returned to Canada if he was a US citizen. He stated he did not know why. I asked about the conviction under the name Richard RIESS. He stated he "intentionally utilized that name because he knew of a Ricky RIESS in Ontario, Canada." I asked how he obtained a driver's license and firearms license in Canada if he was a US citizen. He stated since US Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) deemed him to be a citizen of Canada, Canada must have just gone with their decision.

After the preliminary interview, I conducted my own investigation. I determined the following facts to be true. FOX is actually a citizen of Canada, born in Sudbury, Ontario. The name on his birth certificate is Richard RIESS. RIESS had his name legally changed in Canada to Patrick Henry FOX. There is a Patrick Henry FOX, with the DOB: 11/24/1973, in Florida. There is no Memorial General Hospital in Hollywood, FL. He has used the alias Morgan ROTH on at least one occasion. There are numerous Social Security Numbers associated to RIESS; three to RIESS and two to FOX (one of which is probably the real Patrick FOX's SSN). RIESS created a website to smear his ex-wife's name; <http://www.desireecapuanano.com/>.

After discovering all of this, I conducted a second interview. I asked RIESS if he wanted to change any part about his story. He stated he did not. I asked him where he was born. He again stated "To the best of my knowledge, I was born in Florida." I told him I discovered his birth in Canada under the name Richard RIESS. He stated I couldn't prove he was that Richard RIESS. I asked him who the Ricky RIESS is in Canada that he referred to earlier. He declined to respond. I advised him there is no Memorial General Hospital in Hollywood, FL. He stated he did not remember the correct name. I asked him how he obtained the Florida birth certificate. He declined to respond. I presented him with a photograph of Patrick Henry FOX, from Florida, and asked if he knew the person in the photograph. He was visibly surprised with the photo, and declined to respond. I told him the person in the photograph is the actual person from the birth certificate he presented. I asked again how

Title:
RIESS, Richard

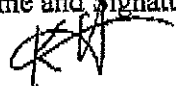

Control Office:
BLW/SIU

he obtained a genuine birth certificate that belongs to someone else. He declined to respond. I asked him why there were five social security numbers associated to his name. He stated he did not know. I asked why he legally changed his name. He stated due to an unfavorable past with his family. I asked why he chose the name Patrick Henry FOX. He declined to respond. I asked him why he had such contempt for his ex-wife. He stated he raised his son alone for 10 years, then she was able to get full custody. I asked where his son lived while he spent four years imprisoned in the US. He declined to respond. I asked him about the website he maintains that has the sole purpose of smearing his ex-wife. He stated his mission is to bring his ex-wife's life to social and financial ruin. One of the blogs on his website states his ex-wife is a racist, and he hoped "Mexicans would come to her house and kill her." I asked how he would feel if she was actually murdered because of something he wrote. He responded with "It's the truth." I asked how long he intended to continue the crusade against his ex-wife. He stated until she is completely destitute.

RIESS was very deliberate in the words he chose. He was very careful to not incriminate himself in any way. The closest thing to a confession of any wrongdoing he gave was one statement he made. He stated "My only mistake was choosing someone in the military because he is in your system." He was referring to Patrick Henry FOX, the US citizen in Florida.

IN THE MATTER OF: PATRICK HENRY FOXAFFIDAVIT – FIREARMS OFFICER

I, Allen Leung, of the City of Surrey in the Province of British Columbia, make oath and say as follows:

- 1.) I am a Firearms Officer for the Province of British Columbia & the Yukon Territory, so designated under the Firearms Act, S.C. 1995, c. 39 by the Chief Firearms Officer of British Columbia/Yukon Territory.
- 2.) I have charge of the records of the Canadian Firearms Information System ("CFIS"). CFIS is a computer system maintained under secure conditions that ensure its accuracy and integrity and is accessible by authorized personnel only.
- 3.) As required by section 87 of the Firearms Act, CFIS maintains in the usual and ordinary course of business, electronic records of every firearms licence and authorization issued under the authority of the Firearms Act since it came into force on December 1, 1998 to the present time.

With respect to individuals, these firearms licences are either:

- the Possession and Acquisition Licence (PAL) which allows an adult to possess and acquire firearms (buy, receive as a gift, receive in trade) of the class identified on the licence. The classes of firearms are non-restricted firearms, restricted firearms and prohibited firearms, including prohibited handguns; or
- the Possession Only Licence (POL) which existed prior to September 2, 2015 (at which time all valid POLs were converted by statute to PALs) and which put an adult in lawful possession of firearms he or she owned of the class identified on the licence, but did not allow for the acquisition of more firearms;
- the Minors Possession Licence which allows a youth aged 12 to 17 to borrow non-restricted firearms only and use them in accordance with supervisory conditions attached to the licence. Minors cannot acquire firearms.

I regularly deal with such electronic records of firearms licences in the course of my duties and I am able to explain such records. It is not possible for me to produce an original record of an issued firearms licence as the original record only exists in CFIS and the licence is printed in a card format and mailed to the individual.

With respect to authorizations:

- an Authorization to Transport (ATT) authorizes an adult individual to transport a restricted firearm or prohibited firearm between two or more specified places (e.g. residence, shooting range (in certain circumstances), gunsmith, business, or international border crossing) for an approved purpose (e.g. target-shooting, change of residence, repair, sale, export, etc.) for a set period of time (e.g. for one day or until the expiration of the licence). The adult must hold a licence before he or she can be issued an ATT (section 19 of the Firearms Act):

- an Authorization to Carry (ATC) authorizes an adult individual to carry a particular restricted firearm or prohibited handgun on their person in relation to their lawful occupation (armed car guard, remote wilderness worker, trapper) or for protection of life in specific circumstances. It can be issued for a maximum period of 2 years. The adult individual must hold a PAL or POL before he or she can be issued an ATC (section 20 of the Firearms Act).

I regularly deal with such electronic records of authorizations in the course of my duties and I am able to explain such records.

4.) Constable Denise KAM of Burnaby RCMP Detachment provided me with the name of Patrick Henry FOX and a date of birth of November 24, 1973. Pursuant to the officer's request, on June 20, 2016 I conducted a careful examination and search of CFIS for any record of a PAL, POL or Minors Possession Licence, or any authorizations, issued to an individual with this name and date of birth, in particular during the alleged offence date of May 27, 2016.

5.) I was able to find that Mr. Fox holds the following licence:

- PAL 12804668.0001 was issued on June 10, 2014 and does not expire until November 24, 2019. It allows him to possess and acquire non-restricted firearms and restricted firearms.

6.) I was able to find that Mr. Fox currently holds the following valid ATT:

- ATT 02001153497: This ATT is valid for the 4 year period from July 10, 2014 to November 24, 2018. Within this time frame it authorizes the transport of Mr. Fox's restricted firearms from his residence at 203-3846 Sunset Street, Burnaby, BC to all approved ranges, licensed gunsmiths and border crossings in British Columbia and the Yukon Territory and return to his residence.

A number of conditions are attached to this ATT and include that the firearms must be transported by a route that, in all circumstances, is reasonably direct.

Attached as Exhibit "A" to my Affidavit is a printed copy of ATT 02001153497. It is not possible to produce an original record of an issued ATT as the original electronic record exists only in CFIS; a paper ATT is printed from CFIS and issued to the individual. I have compared the original electronic record with the printed Exhibit "A" and have found it to be identical in content, other than the date in the top right hand corner shows as June 20, 2016 being the date the exhibit was printed for the purpose of this Affidavit.

7.) I was able to find the following Additional Conditions were added to Mr. Fox's PAL (#12804668.0001) on September 1, 2015:

- These licence conditions authorize the transport of restricted and/or prohibited firearms registered to the licence holder within their province of residence by a route that, in all circumstances, is reasonably direct for the specific indicated purposes.

- Transport of restricted firearms and/or prohibited handguns (12(6.1)) possessed for the purpose of target practice to and from all shooting clubs and ranges approved under section 29 of the Firearms Act.
- Transport of restricted firearms and/or prohibited firearms to and from any place a peace officer, firearms officer or chief firearms officer is located for verification, registration or disposal in accordance with the Firearms Act or Part III of the Criminal Code.
- Transport of restricted firearms and/or prohibited firearms to and from a business that holds a licence authorizing it to repair or appraise prohibited or restricted firearms.
- Transport of restricted firearms and/or prohibited firearms to and from a gun show.
- Transport of restricted firearms and/or prohibited firearms to a port of exit, in order to take them outside Canada and from a port of entry.
- Transport of a newly acquired restricted firearms and/or prohibited firearms from the place of acquisition to the licence holder's dwelling house or other place authorized by the chief firearms officer.

It is not possible for me to produce an original record of the Additional Conditions attached to an issued firearms licence as the original electronic record only exists in CFIS.

8.) There is no record of an ATC issued to this individual, including during the alleged offence date of May 27, 2016.

I, Angie Mcklusky, of the City of Ottawa, in the Province of Ontario, a Federal Public Servant, MAKE OATH AND SAY AS FOLLOWS:

1. I am employed by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police currently posted with the Canadian Firearms Program, holding the position of Senior Registration Analyst, in the City of Ottawa, Province of Ontario.
2. I have charge of the records of the Canadian Firearms Registry and as such, I have personal knowledge of the matters hereinafter deposed to.
3. The Canadian Firearms Registry maintains, in the usual and ordinary course of business, books in the form of electronic documents of all restricted weapon registration certificates issued under authority of the former Part III of the Criminal Code and all firearm registration certificates issued under authority of the Firearms Act.
4. Registration requirements for non-restricted firearms were terminated on April 5th, 2012 (the date on which the Ending the Long Gun Registry Act ("ELRA"), came into effect), except in the province of Quebec, where the requirements were terminated on March 27th, 2015 pursuant to the Supreme Court of Canada's decision in Quebec v. Canada 2015 SCC 14. In accordance with the ELRA and the Supreme Court's decision, non-restricted firearms registration information has been deleted from the Canadian Firearms Registry.
5. At the request of Corporal Frank GROSSPIETSCH, of the National Weapons Enforcement Support Team, on September 30, 2016, I carefully examined and searched the electronic documents referred to in paragraph 3 herein for all licence investigation comments as well as any communication from Patrick FOX, date of birth November 24, 1973, advising he was exporting his registered firearms.
6. It is not possible or reasonably practicable to produce the electronic documents system referred to herein. This system is a computer system maintained under secure conditions and in circumstances that ensure its integrity, accuracy and inviolability. This is a closed system accessible by authorized personnel only.
7. Attached as Exhibit "A" to this affidavit are the electronic records retrieved by me from the Canadian Firearms Registry, relating to four (4) records of valid firearm registration certificates held by Patrick FOX, date of birth November 24, 1973. On August 29, 2016, Firearm registration certificate 18070903.0001, for a Ruger, semi-automatic handgun, model SR45 and bearing serial number 38049973, and firearm registration certificate 18484613.0001, for a Browning, semi-automatic handgun, model 1911-380 Black Label and bearing serial number 51HZV02221, were administratively suspended as notification was received from The Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, that both of the above firearms were in their custody.
8. Attached as Exhibit "B" to this affidavit are the electronic records retrieved by me from the Canadian Firearms Registry, relating to documents received from the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, indicating that two of the firearms registered to Patrick FOX, date of birth November 24, 1973, were in their custody.
9. Attached as Exhibit "C" to this affidavit are the electronic records retrieved by me from the Canadian Firearms Registry, relating to all records of client applications made by or to Patrick FOX, date of birth November 24, 1973. This exhibit includes licence comments, indicating that an Authorization to Transport was issued to and from all ranges/clubs and international border crossings in the province of BC and Yukon Territory from July 10, 2014 to November 24, 2018.

I generated the exhibits "A, B and C" at the time I conducted the search, and have compared the exhibits to the electronic records and I have found them to be identical in content.

08-Sep-16	LI, Simon	Fox, Patrick Burnaby RCMP file 2016-25379. JUSTIN checked and next court date is 2016-12-14.
08-Sep-16	Kress, Douglas Stephen	Writer received call from Sgt Tony PORATO of NWEST regarding a possible request for disclosure of information. Sgt PORATO was specific in NOT asking for sensitive information and only covered general information about how a person could go about exporting firearms to the US. Writer stated that CBSA would be a likely source for specialized information and Sgt PORATO was certainly aware of that. Writer also stated that persons exporting firearms have ATT conditions attached to their PAL that allows transportation under: 6. Subsection 19(2) of the Act ...: (e) to a port of exit in order to take them outside Canada, and from a port of entry. Sgt PORATO asked about the the most efficient procedure to request information from a file and writer stated that comments on an individual's licence are generally noted in 'Licence Investigation Comments'. No specifics of any kind were relayed to Sgt PORATO, nor did he ask for any specific information. Sgt PORATO suggested that he might prepare a disclosure request for information. FO Simon LI was notified that Sgt PORATO attempted to contact him (FO LI) on this date but when the phone was not answered he contacted writer as the next person on his list. FO LI was advised that CFIS had been updated with notes on Sgt PORATO's conversation, which took place on this date. This ends FO KRESS' involvement in this file.

13-Jun-16	LI, Simon	FO emailed Supt. Christopher Stone to update on the plans for the client to return to Canada and seizure of his firearms licence by the Canadian Law Enforcement Agency. I copied Cst. Kam on the email as well.
13-Jun-16	LI, Simon	FO rec'd information from Cst. Denise Kam (Burnaby RCMP file 2016-25379) to advise that this client has been arrested by US Border Protection Agency after he attempted to entered US illegally and under a fake name. He has been arrested since May 27, 2016. A search warrant was executed on the client's home in an effort to locate his firearms by Cst. Kam. Cst. Kam advised the client had moved out of his home on May 27, the same day he entered the US illegally. On the client's website, which is maintained and written from the point of view of his ex-spouse, Desiree Capuano, and under heading "The Logistics", the client provided details on how he would enter the US illegally, travel plans to her home, then shooting her and her family in Arizona.
03-Mar-16	LI, Simon	Client event (6173320) severity lowered : FIP reviewed.
03-Mar-16	LI, Simon	FO rec'd information from T/L Cojuco that legal has reviewed matters related to this individual and concluded that there is not enough for a revocation. File updated and concluded. Licence is returned to valid and transfer 4905653 is approved as a result of the licence returning to valid.
04-Jan-16	LI, Simon	FO requested a copy of the petition from the Sahuarita Municipal Court in which the judge had greated the Protection Order with alleged violence.
29-Dec-15	LI, Simon	NCIC checked and the client is under a Protection Order by a Judge. The Order was made by the Pima County Sheriff's Department in Tucson which has a Firearms Prohibition Condition. It appears this order was issued on 2015-07-23 and expires on 2016-10-31. The Order stated that there was "Weapon Alleged in the Petition" and "Pursuant to ARS 13-3602(g)(4), the Court finds that Defendant poses a credible threat to the physical safety of the Plaintiff or Protected Persons. Therefore, Defendant shall not possess, receive, or purchase firearms and shall surrender same within 24 hours of service to :law enforcement." FO is now trying to find out what was said in the "Petition". I also noted that the client did appear in the court process over the telephone.
29-Dec-15	LI, Simon	Internet screening returned with no new or of interest information.
21-Dec-15	LI, Simon	I sent request to CFP internet screening unit for review.

18-Dec-15	LI, Simon	Email from Cpl Boyle: Simon, I have looked over the file and ran the entities. I do not wish to put myself in the position of providing an 'opinion'. However, if you look at totality of the situation I see the following: - SOC has been deported from the U.S.A.; - SOC and COM share a 14 year old son; - COM allows the SOC to have regular visitation with their son and has for years; - SOC does not have a criminal record within Canada - there is no information in the file regarding the U.S. charge of perjury; - The SOC was not charged criminally in Canada and the COM was informed it was a civil matter. I do not know if the SOC in the file is allowed to travel to the U.S.A. where the COM lives but being as he was deported I think it is unlikely. At this point I can not say if there is a public concern for safety from the SOC in this file. He is fixated on the COM but his actions to date, through his website, is problematic for the COM and no threat has been recognized by the courts through the police investigation. I know this really is not helpful, but I can only go on what the SOC has on our system. Respectfully, Malanie
