Accused: Patrick FOX

Vancouver Police Incident: 2019-49074

RTCC Version 2

Disclosure Preparation Date: 2020-06-16

Lead Investigator: Det/Cst 2671 Jennifer FONTANA

Investigational Assistant: Denise VAN DEN BRUN

Version 2 Overview

VA19-40974

Breach of Probation x2 & Criminal Harassment Investigation

On September 26, 2019, Version 1 of the RTCC for VPD file 19-49074 recommending charges of Criminal Harassment, breach of probation x2 as well as disobeying a court order. The investigation has continued since that date, as a result, further information and evidence has been collected. Crown Counsel Chris JOHNSON ("JOHNSON") has been assigned as the prosecution and the accused Patrick FOX ("FOX") continues to be held in custody.

Letter from FOX to JOHNSON

On October 23, 2019, Crown counsel JOHNSON received a hand written letter from FOX. Within the letter FOX admits to putting the website www.desicapuano.com online in March of 2019 and demands to be charged with criminal harassment. FOX also states that as soon as he is released from custody he will ensure the website will be put back online and will continue to be updated.

Victim Services Contact

On December 23, 2019, Detective Constable 2671 Jennifer FONTANA ("Det. FONTANA") was contacted by a victim services worker on behalf of the victim, Desiree CAPUANO ("CAPUANO"). The worker advised Det. FONTANA that the website www.desicapuano.com was active again and this was causing CAPUANO a great deal of stress. CAPUANO had been approached by co-workers who had seen the site and were now asking questions. CAPUANO felt that the defamatory comments made on the website could cause her to lose her job and had effected the relationships she had with her co-workers. The victim services worker requested that Det. FONTANA have the website removed.

Det. FONTANA advised the victim services worker that unfortunately the website provider, GoDaddy, had refused to permanently remove the website without a judicial authorization from the United States. Det. FONTANA was able to have the website temporarily removed for 90 days, however that timeline had expired and the website was again accessible.

Links from Website to FOX

Multiple electronic devices were seized on March 15, 2019, off of FOX at the time of his arrest at the United States border. Along with the devices was a set of handwritten notes titled "To Do Website". There were multiple items on the "to do list" and the following items appear to have been completed as they can be located on the website www.desicapuano.com:

- 1) "Compile list of each of DC's perjurious statements."
 - The transcript of CAPUANO's testimony from the first criminal harassment trial has been downloaded onto the website and all the alleged perjury has been highlighted in red
- 2) "Compile list of each of DC's lies in our emails, include a link to the given email."
 - There is no list of "lies" on the website, however personal emails between FOX and CAPUANO have been put on the website.
- 3) "Compile list of each of the times DC laughed and joked with RCMP in 2016-07-13 interview."
 - There is no list, however the transcript of the above mentioned interview has been added to the website. FOX makes reference to the interview in which CAPUANO is laughing and joking with the RCMP and has direct links to the audio recording in more than one location under the R v. Fox section of the website. Clicking the link takes the viewer directly to the audio recording of the nearly two hour interview.
- 4) "Make HTML versions of all of the RCMP incident reports"
 - Links to RTCC versions 1 through 5 submitted by the RCMP have been added to the website in PDF form, no HTML versions were located.
- 5) "Make HTML versions of all the family court docs"
 - Family court documents can be found on the website, however in PDF form, not HTML.
- 6) "Publish recordings of sentencing hearings, and probation hearings, and appeal hearings."
 - Det. FONTANA observed transcripts for the appeal process under the "Restraining Orders Against Patrick" section of the website.
- 7) "Obtain + publish transcripts of 2002-02 fam crt hearings – showing the court prohibiting DC from travelling cross country with GR and DC telling the court she will move back to PHX."
 - Det. FONTANA read a section titled "California Family Court Case" on the website. This section claims to have every court document filed between CAPUANO and FOX in relation to the custody battle over their son, Gabriel RIESS.

- 8) “Add commentary about photos of DC’s home. Explain the reason they’re included is to show how trashy she is (messy, sloppy, home, cheap, unmatched furniture.)”
- Det. FONTANA located numerous photos of CAPUANO’s house, inside and out, can be found on the website. The website is written in the first person as if CAPUANO was making the posts about herself. A blurb above the photos of her bedroom reads “ This is where I get nasty, and fuck my brains out...what little I have left, anyway, after all the weed and meth. This is also where I go to get high every day of my life.”
- 9) “Add commentary about pets – how poor, trashy people always have pets they can’t afford.”
- Det. FONTANA located multiple pictures of two dogs, a cat and a rabbit under the “Photo Album: Random Shit” on the website. Above the photos it states “These are just random pictures. You’ll notice I have a lot of pets. Why is it trashy people are never able to take care of themselves, yet they always have a lot of pets?”

Court Documents

As stated in the previous overview, the website www.desicapuano.com is a copy of www.desireecapuano.com with additional information added. FOX was convicted of Criminal Harassment in 2017 for creating and running www.desireecapuano.com, a hate website against his ex-wife, Desiree CAPUANO. FOX was released from custody on December 30, 2018, on March 12, 2019, www.desicapuano.com became active.

The new information on this website consisted of court documents which would have been provided to FOX as a part of disclosure, in order for him to represent himself in court. FOX was bound by a court order which prohibited him from reproducing or disclosing any of the disclosure material to anyone other than his counsel and also prohibited him from publishing, broadcasting or transmitting any information that was provided to him as a part of disclosure unless it is taken as evidence during the trial. The following items pertaining to the original trial, appeal and conviction of FOX can be found on the website:

- Transcripts of police interviews
- Audio recordings of police interviews
- Emails between FOX and the police
- Emails between FOX and crown counsel
- Emails between FOX and outside agencies such as CBSA, Homeland security, ICE
- Affidavits from outside agencies
- Audio recordings of FOX’s psychological assessment

Evidence located on Electronic Devices of FOX

At the time of his arrest at the United States border, FOX was found to be in possession of a black Lenovo tablet, Lexar USB, Sandisk micro SD card, nano SIM card and a black Motorola cell phone. These devices were seized by the arresting officers and turned over to Det. FONTANA as a part of the new Criminal Harassment and breach of probation investigation (VA 19-49074).

Det. FONTANA was granted a search warrant for the above mentioned devices by Judicial Justice CHELLAPPAN on June 14, 2019. On June 19, 2019, Det. FONTANA was advised by Detective Constable Nancy YINGLING that an additional 64GB SD card had been located inside the Motorola Cellphone. On August 1, 2019, Det. FONTANA was granted an additional search warrant for the 64GB SD card by Judicial Justice C. ROBERTS.

Det. FONTANA was given access to the data located within the devices by the Digital Forensics Unit and identified a significant amount of data that is evidence of the breach of probation as well as criminal harassment of CAPUANO.

Lexar 64GB USB

The following data was located within FOX's 64GB Lexar USB:

All of the items listed above have been located on the new website

Motorola XT1563 Cellphone/Micro SD Card/SIM Card

Det. FONTANA located multiple text messages and recorded phone calls on the cellphone of FOX which were of evidentiary value to the investigation.

Text Messages

January 28, 2019

- 1) MUNOZ to FOX "My mom just call me at work she said your package arrived this morning."

January 29, 2019

- 1) FOX to MUNOZ "Oh! Did you confirm the package that arrived yesterday was the hard drive?"
- 2) MUNOZ to FOX "I took a pick :) it did look like it was. Was wrapped on a green bobble wrap. I was tired last night."
- 3) MUNOZ to FOX "I will keep it on the safe with the other stuff."
- 4) FOX to MUNOZ "Thanks."

February 8, 2019

- 1) FOX to MUNOZ "Yeah, but their getting to the end of their rope. I hope to have the new website up by the end of next week."
- 2) FOX to MUNOZ "And it's very slippery. I was going to go to my storage unit to get some notes on the transcripts, but decided against it due to this horrendous weather."

February 16, 2019

- 1) FOX to MUNOZ "Just adding the transcripts and shit to the website. I made HTML versions of the transcripts and I've embedded the audio recordings into the transcripts so you can actually listen to the trial as you read the transcripts."

February 18, 2019

- 1) MUNOZ to FOX "OMG just finished listening to the consternation. It sounds clear like water and the other person was very clear on everything he was saying."
- 2) FOX to MUNOZ "So you don't think there's any ambiguity? I was trying to make sure I didn't say anything the Myhre could use to say I was "leading" or hinting to the IRCC guy. I wanted IRCC to be the one to say I has no status."
- 3) MUNOZ to FOX "I don't think so. It sounds like a normal conversation. You didn't sound like you were forcing the other person to say something."
- 4) FOX to MUNOZ "Perfect. Cool. Thanks."
- 5) MUNOZ to FOX "I can't imagine what excuse is Myhre going to come out with."
- 6) FOX to MUNOZ "At my next hearing I'm going to bring that recording, and the letter from social assistance denying my application due to lack of status in Canada."

February 25, 2019

- 1) FOX to KHUDHARI "Check this. Turns out the website has been online all this time.
<https://web.archive.org/web/20160605104938/http://www.desireecapua.no.com/>

March 6, 2019

- 1) FOX to KHUDHARI "I spoke with CBSA on the telephone. I recorded it."
- 2) Unidentified sender to FOX "R u sure on the supposed innocent website you were not trying to recruit someone to kill your wife....I mean u did that to me pal...It is known as conspiracy to commit murder....they are not stupid up here either....Bill C51... Csis....U ducked your career up here too pal...Oops....Sorry about that my friend."
- 3) FOX to Unidentified Sender "I would never harm another person except in self-defense, defense of another, or defense of property. That also goes for my ex-wife. I have been very clear about that. All the website does is exposes the bad, the horrible things she has done. Thanks for the feedback."

- 1) MUNOZ to FOX "OMG Dude there's so much to read. You sure have time on your hands. Amazingly well organized you even have their pictures. You forgot got the cleaning crew :)"
- 2) MUNOZ to FOX "when they find out they are going to explode of madness."
- 3) FOX to MUNOZ "Youlike the Facebook style blank pictures for the people I couldn't find pictures for? I love that – giving the finger. Too funny."
- 4) MUNOZ to FOX "They are going to get mad when they see their pretty pictures."
- 5) MUNOZ to FOX "Oh yeah!! The finger ones :)"

- 6) FOX to MUNOZ "I'm hoping to get a picture of Myhre when I see him at court next week."
- 7) MUNOZ to FOX "If he just knew. Wonder what he is going to try to do when he finds out?"

March 14, 2019

- 1) MUNOZ to FOX "Dude!! You scare the shittt out of me. Don't be getting arrested AGAIN plz..."

March 15, 2019

- 1) FOX to MUNOZ "Should get it in 5 or 6 days. It's just my laptop."
- 2) FOX to MUNOZ "And the power cord"
- 3) MUNOZ to FOX "Okay. Not problem."

All text messages are included in the Digital Forensic report however the above messages were selected by Det. FONTANA as evidence pertaining to the investigation.

There were also Facebook Messenger messages located, please see the DFU report for the messages in detail.

- FOX states “it’s all backed up on internet servers and internet accounts”

Conclusion

FOX has openly admitted to police and crown counsel that he is responsible for the creation and maintenance of www.desicapuno.com.

An examination of FOX’s electronic devices has located an overwhelming amount of evidence to support his claim of creating and maintaining the website www.desicapuno.com.

FOX proclaims that as soon as he is released from custody he will ensure the website is running and he will continue to update it because it is his “purpose in life.” FOX has dedicated himself to making life as difficult as possible for the victim CAPUANO and believes he is a martyr for exposing her. FOX has a complete disregard for the safety of CAPUANO and puts her safety in jeopardy daily with the personal information he makes available on the website.

FOX was convicted of Criminal Harassment in 2017 creating a website with less content on it than the new website. Police recommend two additional charges of breach of probation based on the distribution of his court documents and his access of the internet. Police also recommend a new charge of criminal harassment as FOX is continuing the offence in which he was convicted of in 2017 and has openly stated he won’t stop.

Recorded Interview with Desiree CAPUANO

July 16th, 2019
Incident #19-49074

S – V1

J – V1

C – Desiree CAPUANO

Repetitive loud beep/buzz throughout

Short Pause

S And it is recording right now, just to let you know.

C 'Kay.

S But I'm just gonna make sure that it's good before we get started.

C 'Kay.

Short Pause

S Awesome. So, I just have to start a second one and we'll be good to go.

C (Chuckles)

J The other one should, just as long as we move, it should record.

S This way we'll just have it complete. And I'm sorry...

J I'm a little bit familiar with your case 'cause I was one of the original...

C Oh, yeah, sure.

J ...police officers.

C Right.

J Um...

C Back in late 2016.

J Yeah, years ago, so...

C It's been going on for a while.

J I think at that time you notified Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

C Yeah, RCMP.

J Right.

C Yeah, and then the constables.

1 J Yes.

2 C And they took it.

3 J Right.

4 S All right, so it's not gonna let me record in here, so I guess it's gonna be

5 (unintelligible).

6 C (Chuckles)

7 S So, just for formality sake, I'm gonna have all of us introduce ourselves. Um,

8 I'm ^{V1} [REDACTED] It is July 16th at approximately 1028 hours. Also

9 present is ^{V1} [REDACTED] and Desiree, how do you say your last name properly?

10 C Capuano.

11 S Capuano.

12 C (Nods head)

13 S I think I've been butchering it this whole time.

14 C That's okay. That's okay.

15 S Um, so, I did get a new case number for us, for these purposes, so, before you

16 leave, I'll give you a card with the case number and everything just so you're 17 aware of it. Um, that way, if anything comes up, you have it.

18 C Okay.

19 S And Desiree, are you currently at ^{V1} [REDACTED] ?

20 C Yes.

21 S Okay. Did I get that completely wrong?

22 C It's okay (chuckles). ^{V1} [REDACTED]

23 S Okay.

24 C Yes.

25 S There we go.

26 C Yes.

27 S Um, and the ^{V1} [REDACTED] number, is that the best number to reach you at?

28 C Yes.

29 S Okay. Are you currently employed anywhere?

30 C ^{V1} [REDACTED]

31 S [REDACTED]

1 C V1
2
3 S
4 C He's already put the last video of me that they did up on the website.
5 S Okay, what last video?
6 C The, the, the one that we did when they came down and did the interview here,
7 um, for the trial and, and for the case, he actually has video of, of that interview
8 posted on the website, so, he will get it.
9 S Okay.
10 C And, um, that would be really bad.
11 S Yeah. So, what I'll do is I'll wait until we're stopped recording...
12 C Okay.
13 S ...and then I'll get V1 at that time, does that work?
14 C Thank you.
15 S Okay. And if at any time you need a break and you need to take a minute...
16 C (Makes noise)
17 S ...just let me know.
18 C That's fine.
19 S You can go outside, walk around...
20 C (Shakes head)
21 S ...do what you need to do.
22 C I've been doing this a while.
23 S Okay. Um, so, you said the video from the last interview...
24 C Yeah.
25 S ...he posted it.
26 C Yeah, um, audio, and I don't know if there's video, I haven't looked, but yes,
27 there's, there are clips from there...
28 S Okay.
29 C ...on it.
30 S So, what was that interview, if you can tell me a little bit about that?

1 C It was the history, it was everything leading up to that point in time, um, how we
2 met, when we broke up, how that all went and how we had the common child and
3 then when the harassment started, everything I've been through up to that point.

4 S Okay, and who was that interview with?

5 C Oh, I don't know, um, the RCMP's actually came down, so the Canadian police 6 came down...

7 S Okay.

8 C ...and, um, and I forget who it was. I wanna say, it's not Brian but it's something 9 like that, um...

10 S That's okay.

11 C ...Bryant (phonetic), Cst. Bryant.

12 S Okay.

13 C I'm gonna say that was his name. We did it here.

14 S Okay, and when was that, do you recall?

15 C 2016.

16 S Okay. And what, um, website was that posted to?

17 C (Sighs) It's now called desicapuano.com.

18 S So, I've looked at that this morning...

19 C (Nods head)

20 S ...and it actually looks like it's been shut down again.

21 C Really?

22 S Yes.

23 C Yay.

24 S Because, um, Det. Fontana...

25 C Yeah.

26 S ...had sent me that link.

27 C Okay.

28 S Um, so let me just make sure that it's the same link that I have here. Is it this one 29 right here, the desicapuano?

30 C Mm-hmm.

31 S Okay. So, yeah, when I clicked on it earlier...

32 C Yay.

1 S ...so, that has been taken down.

2 C Okay. It's recent because it was up just last week with full...

3 S Okay.

4 C I know because somebody I work with.

5 S Okay. Okay. Did they tell you about it?

6 C (Nods head)

7 S What happened from there?

8 C Um, well, apparently, uh, I work in IT...

9 S Okay.

10 C ...so, my user name has to be put into some things in order for them to run. So,

11 he was trying to put it into an app but the app didn't come up until I put it into 12 Google.

13 S Okay.

14 C And when it came up, it came up to the website.

15 S Okay.

16 C And so, he had no idea whether I put it up, if it was me, um, he, he didn't, uh, he 17 t-, there's another girl there that, that knew the story...

18 S Okay.

19 C ...and so, she explained to him that this is what's going on, um, but now he's 20 weird around me.

21 S Okay.

22 C He doesn't really know how to interact with me or what to say or.... He's like, I

23 feel really bad but it's all awkward now.

24 S Okay, and does he work in IT as well?

25 C (Nods head)

26 S Is he a co-wor-, like a close co-worker?

27 C (Nods head)

28 S Okay.

29 C He's somebody that I have to be able to go to and say I need you to do this, you

30 need to go do this.

31 S Okay.

32 C And so, he does it, he, he's, he's not impolite about it, but it's weird.

1 S Okay. How was it before he saw the website?

2 C Normal.

3 S Okay. Were you, would you consider yourself friends before he saw the 4 website?

5 C No.

6 S Not to...

7 C Yeah, just co-workers.

8 S Okay.

9 C Just co-workers.

10 S But you were able to interact with him like you do with all of your other co-

11 workers.

12 C Yeah.

13 S Okay.

14 C Yes.

15 S And then, after he saw the website, tell me a little bit about how things did or 16 didn't change with him.

17 C It's, it's, it's not, it's not anything tangible. It's just, uh, you know, he goes to say 18 something and then pauses and doesn't.

19 S Okay.

20 C I'm like, yeah, and then he changes the subject.

21 S Okay.

22 C It's, it's that kinda stuff.

23 S So, when you say he goes to chan-, he goes to say something, is it something 24 that you guys would typically have joked about or...

25 C Yeah.

26 S ...made comments about in the past?

27 C Potentially, potentially, or it's like he wants to say something or ask about 28 something but he doesn't know how or he, he isn't sure like it's okay.

29 S Okay.

30 C And so, he just stops.

31 S Okay. Has he mentioned it to any of your other co-workers that you're aware of?

32 C (Shrugs)

1 S Okay.

2 C I don't know.

3 Short Pause

4 S So, I'm somewhat familiar, I read all the case reports that were in our system.

5 C (Nods head)

6 S Um, I know, so, the trial that just happened back in, you said 2016 timeframe?

7 C Yeah.

8 S So, has there been any other courts or trials since then?

9 C Yeah. He filed for appeal.

10 S Okay.

11 C So, that went to appeals court...

12 S Okay.

13 C ...in Vancouver. There were multiple hearing, um, on that. The last I heard from 14 the appeals court is that it got thrown out...

15 S Okay.

16 C ...uh, because he didn't provide documentation that was required, I think,

17 something like that.

18 S Okay.

19 C Um, but that's the only other one that I'm aware of besides the trial that's coming

20 up in August.

21 S Okay. So, other than the trial that was in 2016, for the initial...

22 C (Nods head)

23 S ...there hasn't been a new trial other than the appeals.

24 C No.

25 S Okay.

26 C Not that I'm aware of.

27 S So, what I'm gonna have you do is walk me from the trial that happened in 28 2016...

29 C Okay.

30 S ...um, if you can tell me step by step...

31 C What happened?

1 S ...um, if you can recall dates, if you can recall certain things that help you
2 remember this is how I know this happened...

3 C Well...

4 S ...at this point.

5 C So, he, the trial happened in June.

6 S All right.

7 C It was a week long. I actually flew up to Canada, um, and testified in the, in 8 court.

9 S Okay.

10 C Um, and then, I flew back, jury deliberated, they found him guilty.

11 S Okay.

12 C So, he was sentenced to, um, jail time and then three years' probation.

13 S Okay.

14 C So, he was actually in jail up until December.

15 S In?

16 C Of this la-, past year.

17 S And during that timeframe...

18 C (Shakes head)

19 S ...so, June 2016 to December 20-...

20 C Was great.

21 S What ti-, December 2018 or 2019? 2018, it's not 2019.

22 C (Nods head) (Chuckles)

23 S I'm sorry...

24 C (Laughing) It's okay.

25 S ...(unintelligible) today.

26 C It's okay.

27 S Okay, so June to December, he was in jail.

28 C (Nods head)

29 S So, you had zero contact.

30 C Zero contact.

31 S Did you have any issues at all while he was in jail?

32 C No, none.

1 S Okay.

2 C It was wonderful.

3 S Yeah.

4 C It was really good. He got out, uh, December...

5 S Okay.

6 C ...uh, um, 30th, 31st, something like that, it was like the last day of December.

7 S Okay.

8 C Um, we, everybody just kinda made sure that we were watching everything that

9 was going on, but he was required to check in every four days with his parole

10 officer.

11 S Okay.

12 C Part of the reason is because of the blog post that he wrote that said it would 13 take him six to 10 days to get down here to kill me.

14 S Okay.

15 C Um, and so, we figured four days was safe...

16 S Okay.

17 C ...because we should be able find him before he gets here with a four-day lead 18 time, so...

19 S Okay.

20 C Um, and so, from January through March, um, he went to his probation and

21 checked in, there were no issues with that. Um, I believe he was going back to

22 court in Vancouver trying to get the probation terms removed or released or 23 relaxed.

24 S Okay.

25 C Um, I believe at one point he went to the Canadian version of Immigration...

26 S Okay.

27 C ...um, and told them that he was in the country illegally and that they needed to

28 deport him back to the United States. It didn't work. Um, uh, he's been using the 29 Patrick Fox identity...

30 S Okay.

31 C V1

32

V1

1 S

2 C

3 S

4 C

10 and then, I guess March, he, he got tired of doing all of that and, um, on the 11 Friday, he went to court and asked the judge to relax the probation and they said
12 no. Um, we knew that Wednesday that the website was back up, but nobody 13 had told him that we knew yet. And when I say we, the constables...

14 S Okay.

15 C ...the Crown Counsel...

16 S Okay.

17 C ...knew that the website was back up.

18 S So, that was the Wednesday before his court on Friday?

19 C (Nods head)

20 S Okay.

21 C Uh, and I can get the date for you, I just don't have my phone right now.

22 S No, that's okay.

23 C Okay. Um, I've been, I've been dealing with him a long time, s-, so I get, I, I can,
24 I can feel anxious when he's like starting to, to move, and, and I really, really felt
25 like he was gonna skip town, um, and I, that's why I called the Crown Counsel
26 and I asked him if, if he knew for sure that he was there, and he said yeah. Are 27 you sure? And he's like, yeah, 'cause I was just in court with him today.

28 S Okay.

29 C It's like, okay, right, safe.

30 S Uh-huh.

1 C But then, the following Tuesday, the following Monday or Tuesday, um, I got a
2 call from Vancouver Police Department that said, uh, he had crossed the border
3 four days previously and nobody knew where he was.

4 S Okay.

5 C Um, and it took about two days, uh, for Canadian law enforcement to realize the 6 United States had him.

7 S Okay.

8 C And so, um, they turned around and gave him back to them.

9 S Okay.

10 C Um, that was a very scary couple days.

11 S Tell me a little bit about that.

12 C Okay. W-, we, we all just stayed home.

13 S Okay.

14 C We all just stayed home, and I wouldn't go anywhere alone, um, and we just 15 waited. We just waited to hear something from somebody that they knew where 16 he was.

17 S Okay. What made it a very scary couple of days?

18 C Um, he, he went into explicit detail about shooting me, killing me, the type of gun 19 he would use, the bullets being extracted from my body, the way it would look,
20 the way he would look. It's, it, he's given it a lot of thought.

21 S Okay.

22 C A lot of thought, like planned it, organized it, orchestrated it, um, and he doesn't 23 have a firm grasp on reality.

24 S Okay.

25 C Like he really thinks that I'm this monstrous person that's lying and fooling 26 everybody and just managed to lie so convincingly for so long, and it's his job to 27 show the world the truth about me...

28 S Okay.

29 C ...um, which couldn't be further from the truth. And I, I just, I, I, I don't know what 30 he would do.

31 S Okay.

1 C My biggest fear is him, is nobody knowing where he is. I don't expect that he
2 would ever walk up to my front door and knock on it. I would expect that he
3 would follow me, figure out where I'm going, watch me and then shoot me from a
4 car and drive away...

5 S Okay.

6 C ...and I'd never see it coming.

7 S Okay.

8 C (Nods head)

9 S So, you'd expect him to follow you and...

10 C Oh, yeah.

11 S ...pretty much ambush-type style.

12 C Yeah.

13 S Okay.

14 C Just never be seen.

15 S Okay.

16 C Um, I also believe that he has help in Los Angeles if he can get there of, uh,
17 extended family in, uh, Les Palminos (phonetic), somebody there. So, if he can 18 get down to Los Angeles, um, I'm afraid that he would be able to go to 19 (unintelligible) and not be able to be found.

20 S Okay. What do you mean by that?

21 C They would give him rides, give him a car, give him a place to sleep, clothes,
22 food, money, and that's all he would need.

23 S How has this (unintelligible), sorry...

24 C No, that's okay.

25 S ...I'm gonna let you take it on your timeframe.

26 C Um...

27 S Okay, so, he was missing for about four days.

28 C Yeah.

29 S Then, you got contacted by Royal Canadian Police saying we located him...

30 C Yeah, he's...

31 S ...the US border has him, he's coming back to us.

32 C (Nods head)

1 S Okay.

2 C Um, as a side note, the last time he crossed the border was the fifth time he

3 entered illegally...

4 S Okay.

5 C ...um, and I was told by Immigration and the US Border is that if he did it again,

6 they would prosecute him or do an investigation or something, and they didn't.

7 The United States refuses to do anything to this guy, and that's really, really 8 frustrating because he will just continue to come back until the country says no.

9 Uh, but the longer they just catch and release him, there's no punishment for 10 doing it again and again and again, and it's really frustrating.

11 S Yeah.

12 C It is. Um, so, I was quite mad and, 'cause when they, when they called and told

13 me that the United States had him, they said they were do a full investigation,

14 they were gonna research his name, they were gonna research what he'd done, 15 they didn't do anything.

16 S Okay.

17 C They didn't do anything at all, just turned him around. And, uh, from what I've 18 been told, uh, he went back into court and pled not guilty.

19 S Okay.

20 C Which also made me mad.

21 S Pled not guilty to what?

22 C Uh, everything.

23 S Okay.

24 C Uh, putting the website back up, breaking probation charges, trying to cross the 25 United, not guilty...

26 S Okay.

27 C ...and that's why there's a trial coming up. And that's basically where it's at, um,

28 I'm just waiting. They're not releasing him on bail, uh, because he is a flight risk, 29 and, um, just waiting for the trial.

30 S So, from March until now, July, have you had any issues with him?

31 C Uh, not except like the website being put back up, but nothing directly.

1 S So, tell me a little bit about the website. When did you first, I mean, I know you
2 said the Wednesday...

3 C 2014. 2014, April is the first time I knew about the website.

4 S Okay. So, since he's been released in 2018, the first time you were aware of it
5 was the Wednesday...

6 C Yeah.

7 S ...before the trial...

8 C Yeah.

9 S ...that he had it...

10 C That it, it was back up.

11 S Okay, and has it been up ever since then that you're aware of?

12 C Uh, yeah.

13 S Yeah.

14 C He changed the name of the website. It was originally desireecapuano.com...

15 S Okay.

16 C ...um, but then he couldn't afford to renew that domain 'cause he was in jail, so,
17 excuse me, I bought it.

18 S Okay.

19 C But then, he just bought desicapuano instead.

20 S Okay.

21 C And it's the who-, old one plus all the new stuff.

22 S Okay. Do you know if anything has been added...

23 C Oh, yeah.

24 S ...between...?

25 C Oh, well, uh, not since he's been in jail.

26 S Okay.

27 C Not, not since he got picked up in April but, um, yes, there was a lot of additional 28 new stuff added from between the original one and this one. My victim impact 29 statement...

30 S Okay.

31 C ...um, uh, clips, audio clips of, um, my first, um, this thing...

32 S Interview?

1 C Thank you, yes (chuckles), the one from back in 2016. Um, legal documents
2 filed in the court case up in Canada, information about my attorney, information
3 about the Crown Counsel, information about the court-appointed attorney. Um,
4 his release letter from his previous company that said if you post this, everything
5 is null and void and he posted that. Um, more blog posts.

6 S So, there's been quite a bit more added.

7 C (Nods head)

8 S How has that affected you?

9 C To have to think about it.

10 S What happens when you think about it?

11 C (Gestures) Um, i-, there's not much I can do about it. Um, it's down now, which 12 is awesome, um, but if it's up, it, it's a lot of work to get it taken down, and, um,
13 every time I take it down, he gets, actually puts it back up. So, I just, I know it's 14 there, so, I just hope people don't see it because, just, or about me.

15 S Ha-, do you feel like it has affected you in any way as far as socially?

16 C Yeah, I can't have social media.

17 S Okay.

18 C V1 [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] I can't do Skype...

20 S Yeah.

21 C ...because Skype wants access to your phone and your video. If he hacks my 22 Skype account, he now has access to my phone and my camera. I can't do that.

23 S Okay.

24 C Um, I can't leave reviews for things that I buy and places that I go because if he 25 sees my name, he'll start tracking where I'm going.

26 S Okay.

27 C I can't talk about where I work 'cause if he finds out where I work, he'll do the 28 same thing he did last time (unintelligible).

29 S What happened last time?

30 C He got the email addresses for everybody that I worked with and he started
31 sending them emails pretending to be me.

32 S Okay.

1 C Um, things with like my income statement that I had to supply for the custody
2 case, um, emails that he and I had sent back and forth, court documents, um,
3 links to the website, um, and it was just massive, he would just send out these 4 emails to.... At one point, one email went out to 650 employees. I didn't even 5 know that many people. They know me.

6 S Yeah.

7 C He sent an email to the board of directors of my company that said, I smoke pot
8 and there's not an effing thing you can do about it, signed my name. There was 9 the Desiree situation at work, and I had to go in all the time and meet with people
10 and it was a security breach (unintelligible).

11 S Yeah. When was that?

12 C 2014. He, he, he got into my LinkedIn account, uh, he accessed my Facebook
13 account. I can't, I can't have any of that. I try not to make friends because if I
14 make friends, I have to explain the whole situation to them, and then they 15 become traumatized because if he knows about any friends that I have,
16 (unintelligible).

17 S Okay. When did he hack your LinkedIn and Facebook?

18 C 2014.

19 S So, he definitely has the means...

20 C Oh, yeah.

21 S ...and the ability to hack into...

22 C Yeah.

23 S ...Skype or any of those.

24 C Yeah.

25 S Okay. How does he have the, that means?

26 C Because he's an IT person, he, he writes code. He's a (unintelligible) software
27 programmer.

28 S Okay.

29 Short Pause

30 C James and I started dating just a couple months after the website started sending 31 out stuff and by July, he was on the website being attacked as well. And I told

1 him, you don't wanna get into a relationship, it's not gonna be good, but he didn't
2 go away, so...

3 S And he's still here.

4 C And he's still here.

5 S So, as far as social impact, you feel like you can't have friends...

6 C (Nods head)

7 S ...you can't have social media, you can't do a lot of things that most people do 8 because of...

9 C The risk.

10 S ...the risk and his ability to access information through all this.

11 C And even if he's in jail right now, whenever he gets out, that stuff is still there,
12 and he's just gonna find it all, put it all together and start profiling what I've been 13 doing the entire time he's been in jail.

14 S So, I know it's gonna be hard to kinda car-, compartmentalize, but if you can, as 15 much as you can, um, how has it affected you, or has it affected you financially
16 since December of 2018 when he got released?

17 C So far, it hasn't affected me financially.

18 S Okay.

19 C Um, in that respect, I just, I, every day, I'm scared that, like, I'm not in any danger
20 of losing my job, I'm not, right? But a lot changes, things happen, right? Um, if I
21 had to get another job right now, it's really, really hard.

22 S Okay.

23 C Truly, because all jobs look at social media. They do a Google search of your 24 name, and they never call me back.

25 S Okay.

26 C They just don't.

27 S V1

14 C I, uh...

15 S ...had you not been employed for a period of time?

16 C I was in, V1 from 2008 until 2014.

17 S Okay.

18 C 2014 was when he started everything...

19 S With...

20 C ...and I was V1 .

21 S So, 2007 to 2018?

22 C (Nods head)

23 S Okay.

24 C And, um, he, uh, all the emails that went out were to people at V1 um, the

25 board of directors was the board of directors from V1 , and they started going

26 through massive layoffs, um, and I'm pretty sure that the issues and the security

27 problems were one of the reasons I got laid off. So, I moved to V1 and, um,

28 I submitted 90 applications...

29 S Right.

30 C ...to V1 and all I could get was a contract job.

31 S Okay.

1 C And, um, I worked there and they renewed it for another six months, so, I had a
2 job there for a year and then, um, and then I, I found this job.

3 S Okay, so, from 2015 to 2017 you were employed for that time...

4 C Mm-hmm.

5 S ...and when you say a contract job, what do you mean by that?

6 C Um, it's not a full-time employment, like you go through a contract firm and then I,
7 so, I was contracted through a, like a temp agency, not a temp agency but a
8 contract agent.

9 S Contract.

10 C Yeah, yeah, yeah, um...

11 S That farms out...

12 C Exactly.

13 S ...employees, essentially.

14 C Yeah.

15 S Okay.

16 C And so then, they held a competition for the job here.

17 S Okay.

18 C Um, but it was like a six-month contract, and then they extended it for another six 19 months.

20 S Okay. So, it was only a year.

21 C (Nods head). And then, by that time, he was back in jail. Um, it was, I actually,
22 um, I was offered a position at Pima, um, Community College, and, uh, good
23 starting salary, great job. I was super, super excited, I had my start date, I had 24 my confirmation letter, and then they pulled the job away because they went to 25 the website and, uh, he tracks everybody that goes to the website. And so, he 26 saw the people from Pima were going to the website, and he figured out that I
27 was applying for a job there. So, he actually had a whole log post at work for 28 Pima Community College when they went there, and they were like, we can't do 29 it.

30 S Yeah. When was that?

31 C 2000 and 15, 2016.

32 S Was that brought up in the trial?

1 C Yeah.

2 S Okay.

3 C Yeah. Um, so, I've lost many jobs.

4 S Yeah.

5 C That's the, that's the biggest thing is, um, being able to stay employed, so....

6 And there, um, there's so many awesome things like that happen in life that I

7 can't share in now. I can't, I'd love to let friends and family know, wish happy

8 birthdays and I can't.

9 S You just can't.

10 C (Shakes head) So, I just live quietly.

11 S So, it sounds like emotionally it's taken quite a toll.

12 C (Nods head)

13 S So, again, I'm gonna ask you to compar-...

14 C It's okay.

15 S ...compartmentalize and I know it, I can only imagine how difficult it's gonna be to

16 try and compartmentalize, but if you could tell me, emotionally, how this has 17 impacted you since the end of the last trial, so June 2016...

18 C (Nods head)

19 S ...until now.

20 C Um, through 2016 to 20, um, 18, most of 2018, um, I didn't let it affect me. He 21 was out of the picture, I knew where he was, and I knew he couldn't reach me.

22 And that one is the first time in four, five, six years that I could actually just take a 23 breath...

24 S Okay.

25 C ...and then I was safe. So, it was wonderful. It was really great. Um, I just got

26 up every day and didn't have that weight, you know? Um, I started V1 and, uh, took care of the kids. I was happy, you know, just minimal 28 stress, it was just really low stress. Um, by October 2018, October last year, I

29 was starting to, I knew it was coming. So, um, you know, everybody tells you just

30 don't think about it, there's nothing you can do about it so just put in the back of 31 your mind and just focus on other things, so, I just kept trying to do that. Um, but there's a lot of anxiety. V1

V1

It was really hard.

Mm-hmm.

Just the, the unknown, um, it's, it's, it (unintelligible) your life knowing that not everybody likes you and there's people that probably hate you, right? Especially in your guys' line of work, I know (laughs).

Right?

Why...?

I don't even know what you're talking about, what?

Why would you think that?

Yeah, right?

Everyone loves us, firefighters, right?

Yeah, obviously. Apparently, they're.... Um, but to, to have somebody that is just so hell bent on your destruction, like just single focussed, it, I know what he's done and what he can do, and I guess what I don't know is what he's capable of and that's what scares me. And, um, I know that no matter what rules he's given, he's not gonna follow them. So, if he doesn't care about what he's told he can and cannot do, (unintelligible), you know, you just don't know. And while I, I've gotten better, I'm still not really good at just watching over my shoulder all the time, doing all the things that you're supposed to do. I don't want to live like that, I don't, that's why I fight, you know? 'Cause if I run, then I'm always gonna be running from him and I don't want to. I'm standing ground, I wanna make him stop. Nobody should be allowed to have that much control over someone else's life. Um, I was really, really scared when he first got out in December, um, I was just making sure that I got updates every time he checked in. Um, Victim Services was really good about letting me know, he checked in, he's still here, we know what's going on, um, and I, I, at that point, probably end of January, um, it was just like a (unintelligible), see how this goes. As long as he's checking in and I know where he's at, I don't care. But, uh, and, um, I, I knew it wasn't gonna

1 last long, there's no way. There's no way he could abide those terms and
2 conditions, um, but, um, and like I said, I, I had a, I had a gut feeling that he was 3 gonna skip and that he was not there anymore, and he left, tried it. So, some of 4 it was, um, I've been doing this a long time and, uh, I've been scared for most of 5 it, so, when he does things like go into Immigration and says that they have to 6 deport him, that makes me laugh, it just does, you know?

7 S Okay.

8 C Because I know what the truth is, um, I know who he is, and I know that that's a
9 lie. So, if I have to go in there and try, you know, to, to make that happen
10 again.... I just feel like he's slipping, like he's, he's not logically thinking through 11 things anymore, he's just, now he's just acting, which also scares me because 12 before there was always a plan, he had a plan. Nobody knew what it was, you
13 know, but it was layers deep, it, and he had it, you know. I'm not sure there's a 14 plan anymore.

15 S Okay. Why does that scare you?

16 C Um, because, uh, anything's possible with him. I-, i-, the end goal is to hurt me.

17 S Right.

18 C Even before, he had, he, he had it figured out how he was gonna do it, but now, if 19 there's no plan, there's no way for anybody to (unintelligible). And he used 20 telegraph what he would do, like he, he would literally put on the website that it's 21 a good thing we're all in America two days before he crossed the border. He 22 telegraphs what he's gonna do, right? So, if he doesn't have a plan, then he's 23 not telegraphing, and if he's not telegraphing, there's no si-, there's no clues.
24 There's nothing to be like he's getting ready to make a move, right, so now we 25 just sit and wait 'cause there, there, there's nothing.

26 S So, when he's not telegraphing, it makes it that much harder...

27 C (Nods head)

28 S ...for you to know. Okay.

29 C Yeah, he'd usually tell me all the things he was gonna do, hire people to have 30 sex with me so he could get pictures to put on the website, um, taking out 31 billboards so that he could put my personal information on there, getting my 32 social security number so he could just abuse it. Like he would tell me things

1 that he was planning on doing, right? Now, he doesn't feel like he has to tell me
2 what he's doing, but it still felt like he had a plan, and now I don't believe that 3 there's a plan.

4 S What changed between when you felt like he last had a plan and now where you
5 feel like he's slipping?

6 C I-, he keeps trying to use the same argument with the same people to get the 7 same results that never worked.

8 S Okay. Right.

9 C And, and, and it feels like he's just trying to scream louder and thinking that that's 10 gonna make a difference, but it's not. And so, if that's, his plan's not gonna work, 11 then he's like, now he's going to Immigrations and he trying to get picked up at 12 the border and.... Here's the thing, like I really think that he thinks 100 per cent
13 that he is that guy from the United States. That's why I think that, because I
14 always felt like in the back of my mind, like he knew that he was Richard Riess, 15 right? He stole that identity so he could get into the United States. Then, he 16 legally changed his own name to that so it'd be harder to differentiate. I get that,
17 right, but like if he goes to the border to be picked up, hoping for an interview, it's 18 because Patrick Fox is a citizen and they're gonna see that Patrick Fox is a 19 citizen and let him stay, but he is not that person.

20 S Mm-hmm.

21 C Like he has fully assumed this guy's identity and he's like if he can just make it
22 sound as convincing as possible, everybody's gonna believe that he's that guy.
23 That was never part of the plan (makes noise), it was never part of the plan, um,
24 and, and that's, that's why I'm not sure he's, he's, he's fully here anymore. Like I
25 always thought that there was that, that thing in the back of his head, it's like he's 26 just pushed it so far he can't stop now, but he knew, like he knew, but I'm not 27 sure he does now.

28 S So, what do you think he used to know that he doesn't know now?

29 C That he's actually Richard Riess.

30 S Okay.

31 C That he's not a United States citizen.

32 S Okay.

1 C That, that he actually was born in Canada, that, that he's who he is.

2 S So, you think he's gotten so consumed being Patrick Fox...

3 C (Nods head)

4 S ...that he's just lost touch with...

5 C Yeah.

6 S ...anything prior.

7 C I do.

8 S Okay.

9 C And that scares me.

10 S What about that scares you?

11 C Well, when you know I have.... Whe-, when, when you believe something that's 12 totally false or there's just no boundaries...

13 S Mm-hmm.

15 S Right.

16 C ...for the sake of making that real, what will you do?

17 S One second, I wanna make sure we're not missing anything. Um, their list....

18 V1 [REDACTED]

19 C Yeah.

20 S Okay. Um, was that due to...?

21 C No, no. Um, the common child, uh, okay, insofar as the way that my having to

22 deal with this situation has impacted my son, yes, because, uh, for many years I

23 was so consumed with how to do custody and battle, my trips and everything

24 else, my little boy was seven years old and I was never home. I was, I was

25 working full time and I would, I'd literally leave work to V1 [REDACTED]

26 Compton, California (unintelligible) I would have a court date that morning,

27 Tuesday morning, get through my court, V1 [REDACTED] sleep and go back to work

28 on Wednesday. Couldn't stay overnight 'cause I didn't have any time. So, there

29 was lot where I was not involved. I, I wasn't there for him, you know, um, and

30 then V1 [REDACTED] and he got ripped away from all his friends, you know, and 31 for a little kid, and then just as you go home, constantly, you're upset, constantly.

32 I, I didn't know which way was up. And so, there was factors and then we did, those impacted him growing up, yes. We have had to deal and work through a lot of that with him. Um, for the common child, no, he's (unintelligible). Uh, he's

C

S Awesome. Um, how has from June 2016 to now affected your family? Has there been any hardships...

C No.

S ...in your family because of this?

C No. We, um, we are very close and everybody is really supportive of, um, everything that's going on. Whenever stuff comes up, everybody's kinda there. We all just wait it out as it's going on.

S I...

C It's, it's been hard, but everybody's been super supportive.

S Okay. Um, has there been any, I know you said not for you, but has there been any financial hardship for you or your husband, or is he husband or boyfriend?

C Just boyfriend.

S Okay.

C Yeah. No, no, um, any financial hardship came from having to fight him directly or when I had to get lawyers to fight him...

S Okay.

C ...but, um, since the Canadian authorities have gotten involved, thankfully, I get to be removed from that situation. Um, so besides being able to not find a job,

1 that was the only financial, and then, of course, James had to help cover me
2 during that time.

3 S Mm-hmm.

4 C Um, but since that time, everything's been okay.

5 S Okay.

6 C So.

7 S Has the website caused any hardship for or James or your kids?

8 C Yeah.

9 S Okay.

10 C Yeah.

11 S Since 2016?

12 C Um, not so much since 2016 specifically, um, uh, and V1 in 2017, I
13 mean, I've had, I've definitely caused issues. V1
14 [REDACTED]
15 [REDACTED] So, any
16 time the website comes up, anytime anybody, it's a lot of work for him.

17 S Okay.

18 C And then, uh, yeah, the kids in school, people see, they see it, and then they 19 can't have V1, either, um, and, uh, you know, if, if kids
20 happen to stumble upon it and they see his picture, they see his name on there,
21 yeah, they, they, (unintelligible) kid, they had to deal with that, too. V1
22 [REDACTED] Everything
23 has to be super locked down.

24 S Have there been any significant examples that you can recall of your kids having 25 to deal with fallout from the website...

26 C (Shakes head)

27 S ...or any issue from the website that you can...

28 C They probably wouldn't tell me.

29 S Okay.

30 C They're really good. They know (unintelligible).

31 S Do you think they would tell James or do you think they'd keep it amongst 32 themselves?

1 C You can a-, he may have more information on that than I do (chuckles).

2 S Okay.

3 C There's a very likely possibility of that. He may know some things that I don't.

4 S Okay.

5 C Yeah, that's, that's possible.

6 S Okay. Do you wanna read this and make sure we're not missing anything? That

7 was just a email from Det. Fontana...

8 C Yeah.

9 S ...uh, requesting some information she needed. Is there anything that you can

10 think of that I have not asked, that I have missed, that you think would be

11 important for, uh, me to know, for Det. Fontana to know, that would be important 12 for the court to know?

13 Short Pause

14 C He's never gonna stop.

15 S Okay.

16 C He's never gonna stop. Anything that happens to him, he blames on me. So,

17 anything additional, any jail time or charges or anything that happens to him, it's

18 all gonna be my fault anyway, and it's not gonna make him like me any more,

19 and I really feel that he's just biding his time until he can get his revenge.

20 S Okay. Has he had any contact with you since December of 2015?

21 C No.

22 S Okay.

23 C No. And he's had no contact with his son, either.

24 S Okay. Has he had any like third-party contact with you?

25 C No.

26 S Okay. Other than just the website.

27 C Yeah.

28 S Okay.

29 C Uh, Liz Munoz was his contact in LA, she is the one that helped with everyone,

30 V1

2

4 C

6 C (Shakes head)

8 C No.

```
11 C (Nods head)
```

14 C Well...

16 C We had to put security cameras up around the house.

17 S And when was that?

18 C That was October.

19 S Okay.

20 C October/November. We had to tell all of our neighbours...

21 S Okay.

22 C ...because, um, some of them are home, they're older, so they like to watch
23 what's going on in the neighbourhood.

24 S You can use that to your advantage.

25 C Right? Yup, I figured they, they, they're always nosey and, uh, they'll know if 26 somebody's lurking around.

27 S Yeah.

28 C So, um, yeah, um, I had to tell my bosses and the people that I work with 29 because some days I just can't go to the office.

30 S Okay.

31 C Some days it's just too hard, um, so they'll let me work from home.

32 S Okay. What about going to the office is too hard?

1 C Uh, sometimes when like, um, I just can't, I just can't focus on work. I just can't, I
2 can't think about the things that I'm supposed to be thinking about, and sitting at 3 my desk, trying to think about them, not being able to and more consumed with 4 just like not thinking about him, it just gets too hard.

5 S Okay.

6 C I just stay home and do my work from there and be distracted, so....

7 S Okay. Um, how else maybe, how else did your lifestyle change, if it did change,
8 other than the cameras, talking to neighbours, talking to bosses, would there be 9 times before October of 2018 where you couldn't go into work?

10 C No.

11 S Okay.

12 C No, no. No. When he was in jail and I knew he wasn't going anywhere, it was 13 great. I was happy every day.

14 S Okay.

15 C Every day.

16 S Okay.

17 C Even, even the normal stress that you get, uh, being late for work or running out
18 of milk or, you know, not having the thing that you wanna make for dinner or, you
19 know, kid's got a last-minute thing that he didn't tell you about 'til five minutes
20 ago, like these are normal. I'd pray for that kinda stress, yeah. So, when that 21 was all I had to deal with, I was so happy, like yeah, bring it on. I got your milk
22 (unintelligible), week, um, 'cause I didn't have to deal with this, you know? It was 23 a normal life. It, it had been so long since I had a normal life, I just enjoyed every 24 single minute of it for as long as I could.

25 S Was there any other changes since October of 2018 that you can think of?

26 C I, um, I, I, I, I wanna, I wanna be a person that's out there in the moment, that's 27 like making a name for myself, um, and when he's, he's away, I feel like I can. I
28 feel like I can get out there and be me and people can know who I am and it's 29 okay, but it's not. Yeah, I, I, I don't wanna end (unintelligible). So, they only see 30 me for that. And I don't wanna give him anything that he can use.

1 S You had mentioned, um, sorry, one second, you had mentioned that when you
2 found out that he had possibly crossed the border that you guys pretty much
3 stayed home.

4 C Um, we didn't really have anywhere else to go.

5 S Okay.

6 C Um, and we figured it was safer with all of us together...

7 S Okay.

8 C ...than anybody out there on their own.

9 S Okay. Um, so, did you and James miss work because of that?

11 S Okay. What about James?

12 C Yeah, he stayed home, too. V1 [REDACTED]

13 S Okay, and what about the kids, did they go to school?

14 C They did, but I picked them up and dropped them off every day, and...

15 S And was that normal?

16 C No.

17 S Okay.

18 C No. Uh, we also had to tell the school and the police d-, uh, officer at the school
19 so he was fully aware, too, um, and yeah, I dropped them off and I picked them
20 up. V1 [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

22 S That's pretty badass.

23 C Right (laughs)? V1 [REDACTED]

24 S That is awesome.

25 C Thank you. I try to, I try to stay busy, as busy as I can.

26 S Mm-hmm.

27 C V1 [REDACTED] I really feel like if, if he 28 hadn't taken away those years of my life, I would be so much further ahead, and 29 it kills me that like I don't have the things that I wanted to have because I've 30 spent so much time just trying to fight this. I feel blocked. But it just makes me 31 work that much harder to get it back.

32 S Mm-hmm. Is there anything else you want to say?

1 C I don't think so.

2 S Is there anything that you've got?

3 J No, think I'm good.

4 S I got an email from her, so really quickly...

5 C Yeah.

6 S ...I wanna make sure that I...

7 C Yeah.

8 S ...I'm not missing anything.

9 C I'm so sorry guys that you have to deal with Vancouver and multiple police 10 officers and people there (chuckles).

11 S Hey, you know what, if we can make it so you have to go there less...

12 C Right?

13 S ...and stress a little bit less...

14 C Yes, that would be nice, yes.

15 S ...we're all for that.

16 C I am so grateful. I tried so hard V1 to get somebody to pay attention and 17 make it stop and nobody could do anything to help me (unintelligible), and you
18 guys have, and I appreciate it.

19 S Well, it sounds like the Royal Canadian Police have helped...

20 C Yes.

21 S ...significantly, as well.

22 C Well, yeah.

23 S You know what I mean?

24 C But...

25 S They got the front line. They're the ones handling that front line for us.

26 C Yeah.

27 S Yeah.

28 C Um, you guys helped out a lot and, and I appreciate it.

29 S Yeah, (unintelligible).

30 C Yes.

31 S Um, so, we went over everything that was added to the website.

32 C Yeah.

1 S We went over how that's affected you guys. Is there anything that you can recall
2 about the kids since March of 2019 with the new website?

3 C They were terrified, not, not at the website.

4 S Okay.

5 C No, um, that doesn't really affect them unless somebody finds pictures or, you
6 know, googles their name or finds them on social media and like, but again, V1
7 [REDACTED] so, a lot of times that they still (unintelligible).

8 S Yeah, yeah.

9 C Um, but I mean, just besides the fact that like he was out and not, we had no
10 information, and yeah, they were terrified. We all were.

11 S Um, my guess, and if I'm wrong please tell me, is that you don't wanna be in here
12 when I talk to James...

13 C No (chuckles).

14 S ...to know if he knows anything?

15 C No.

16 S Okay.

17 C No. No...

18 S Just...

19 C ...I'll let him handle that.

20 S Okay. So, I'm gonna talk with him...

21 C Yeah.

22 S ...for a few minutes just because, uh, if they have had any fallout since the new 23 website came up or anything like...

24 C (Nods head)

25 S ...I just wanna make sure that I get all the information that I can.

26 C And he'll be able to give you so much more, he's so much better at this than I 27 am.

28 S No, he just has a different experience than you.

29 C Thank you, yeah.

30 S He's a little bit more removed from it.

31 C Yes (chuckles), yes.

32 S Um, so, I'm gonna talk with him for a few minutes...

1 C Sure.

2 S ...and then, uh, we can step outside and I'll get the additional information...

3 C Okay.

4 S ...I can get from you that we had talked about and that will, um, so, I'll tell you

5 more when we're outside...

6 C Okay.

7 S ...to tell you about how that information is stored and all that...

8 C Okay.

9 S ...so that way you know.

10 C Okay.

11 S Okay.

12 C Thank you.

13 S So, I'll stop the recording and start a new one.

14 C Thank you.

F Hello?

M Hello stranger.

F Huh. How...

M (Chuckles)

F ...are you?

1 M Good, how about you?

2 F I'm fine, I'm fine, uh, the main reason I'm calling, um, I only put a few dollars on

3 the phone account so I should get right to the point but the main reason I'm

4 calling is to see whether or not you've received the letters I've been sending?

5 M Yes, I do, I, I do...

6 F (Unintelligible) of them?

7 M ...all of them, all of them, yeah.

8 F Well...

9 M Yeah, yeah.

10 F ...but you've (unintelligible)...

11 M I've received all...

12 F Hold on, you can't say that you've received all of them, unless you know how 13 many I've sent.

14 M Y-, uh, four, that's why I just...

15 F (Unintelligible)

16 M ...got one yesterday or two days ago and you said four, so I know it's four.

17 F Okay.

18 M And I updated so I know that I, I have four.

19 F Okay, cool, cool.

20 M Yes. And, uh, but the books in the first one...

21 F Mm-hmm.

22 M ...I never was able to use it even before that, I don't know if you remember that I

23 told you for some reason I keep putting the numbers and he says that something 24 is wrong.

25 F Um...

26 M So I was...

27 F No, no, but remember I explained it's probably because I had probably already

28 put that in my Amazon account and that's why and it seemed that, that credit

29 card number is already...

30 M Yeah.

31 F ...associated with my account. So that's why...

32 M Yeah. I, uh...

1 F ...(unintelligible) my account (unintelligible).

2 M I, I tried to get into the account at Amazon but I don't know what the password, I

3 thought it was the same one as always but it didn't work.

4 F Uh, yes, it should be the same, it should be patrickhfox@gmail.com and then the 5 same password as always.

6 M Yeah, exactly, I don't know why it didn't work.

7 F Oh well, okay, anyways...

8 M So...

9 F ...never mind.

10 M ...that's about that book and the other stuff I already printed and I have it even in 11 the envelope but I, to be honest, no, I haven't sent it. I have the news and the,

12 those printouts from the website that you wanted...

13 F Mm-hmm.

14 M ...I already have it and, uh, I, I didn't see, I didn't see any Facebook or tweets but 15 I saw it was like 430 views, something like that.

16 F Oh is that all? Okay.

17 M Yeah, yeah. That's what I saw.

18 F Mm-hmm.

19 M And few of the news that have come out, you know, a few of those things, I print

20 whatever I could find.

21 F Okay, sure.

22 M Yeah, there's not that many for that but I, I do have it.

23 F Yeah, yeah, I wouldn't expect there'd be too many, um, the news is kind of trying 24 to stay away from it since the new website is up and all the stuff that's on...

25 M Yeah, yeah...

26 F ...the website and I, I...

27 M ...and, uh...

28 F ...think...

29 M ...I di-...

30 F ...they don't want to draw...

31 M ...and...

32 F ...attention to that because it proves...

1 M Right.

2 F ...everything I've been saying.

3 M I think, the way they put it is kinda like know how it is anyways, you know what I

4 mean?

5 F Well, yeah, I...

6 M Not exactly.

7 F ...I hav-, well, I haven't read what's been in the news so I have no...

8 M Oh...

9 F ...idea.

10 M ...no, no big deal but you know what I mean, it's just...?

11 F Mm-hmm.

12 M You know? It is what it is.

13 F Mm-hmm.

14 M So onto (unintelligible), huh?

15 F Well, that's when the trial date's set for, um, but, uh, I highly doubt that they're 16 actually gonna proceed with the trial on these probation violations, um...

17 M Uh-huh.

18 F ...because like I said, uh, this whole thing for me is just an opportunity to force

19 them to have to do the DNA test...

20 M Right...

21 F ...as well.

22 M ...right.

23 F And if they do that, I mean that's, that's gonna blow up on them big time if they

24 do that because that's gonna prove, uh, I'll be able to use that to prove my claims

25 against Homeland Security, you know? Um...

26 M Right.

27 F ...and the Canadian authorities certainly would not want to be the ones that were

28 responsible for giving me the evidence that I could use to prove Home-, 29 Homeland Security...

30 M Of course.

31 F ...uh...

32 M Of course.

1 F ...uh, knew what they were doing, um...

2 M But they're probably gonna try to drag until, as far as they can.

3 F Well, yeah, like I've already written a couple of letters to the Crown, um, and it's a
4 different prosecutor, it's not the same one that I had for everything else before
5 but, uh...

6 M Uh-huh.

7 F ...I, I've penned him a letter asking for the disclosure and telling him that I, uh,
8 intend to, um, ask the court to order them or, yeah, I intend to ask the court to 9 order them to proceed or to pursue the DNA tests, you know?

10 M Uh-huh.

11 F And so most likely, they're just going to not do anything and just drag their feet
12 on it as long as they can, I still haven't...

13 M Uh-huh.

14 F ...received any of the disclosure material and I haven't received any responses
15 from the Crown, um...

16 M Oh fuck.

17 F ...but the most important thing, the most telling this is there's still no charges
18 related to the new website at all. Like...

19 M No, of course.

20 F Right, they haven't charged me with violating probation for putting the new 21 website online or, um...

22 M No, no...

23 F ...charging me with...

24 M ...a-, a-...

25 F ...criminal harassment or anything.

26 M All what they were saying is pretty much that it was 'cause you were out of the...

27 F Yeah.

28 M ...what is called the zone index that you were supposed to be standing, uh,
29 there, there, that way, you know what I mean?

30 F Yeah. Yeah, the only things they've charged me with so far, have been that I left
31 British Columbia, um...

32 M Uh-huh.

1 F ...so...

2 M Yeah, exactly...

3 F ...and I even...

4 M ...exactly.

5 F ...I even brought up in court at the bail hearing, um, I said that I demand to be

6 charged with criminal harassment, I mean this website is online, it's, it's there,

7 who else could have possibly put it there, I mean, um...

8 M Right.

9 F ...other than me, so let's go, charge me with criminal harassment and charge

10 me...

11 M Yeah.

12 F ...uh, with putting this website up but of course they aren't, so...

13 M Well...

14 F ...what...

15 M ...uh, they...

16 F ...what they're saying is, oh the RCMP is still investigating. Please, 17 investigating...

18 M Right.

19 F ...what, the website is there, what is there to investigate?

20 M Yeah, I know. True.

21 F So...

22 M True.

23 F ...um, I, I suspect probably what they're gonna do is they'll drag this current stuff

24 out as long as possible and then just before I get released on this, then they'll

25 charge me, um, with criminal harassment, not with the intention...

26 M Hm.

27 F ...of actually proceeding with it but just as a way to keep me in jail longer.

28 M Oh god, I hope no.

29 F Either that or they think that they're gonna...

30 M We have...

31 F ...(unintelligible) me and they'll come back in like another month or something

32 and say, oh well, look, if you just plead guilty, then, uh, we'll call it time served.

1 M No, god.

2 F At which point, I'll tell them to fuck off.

3 M They, I, let's cross our fingers it's never gonna be like that.

4 F Well, (sighs) I mean it is what it is and, uh, I, I'm pretty sure I know what's going 5 on so, um...

6 M Okay.

7 F ...but I can't really get into it on the phone here 'cause I don't want to give them
8 a...

9 M Hm.

10 F ...heads up on it.

11 M Mm-hmm, yeah, okay.

12 F So and as for, as for the Homeland Security stuff and the, the citizenship stuff...

13 M Mm-hmm.

14 F ...um, I mean there's (sighs) nothing new going on there, um, Homeland Security
15 did the same thing last time, right? The same time...

16 M Hm.

17 F ...same thing this time that they did last time where...

18 M Mm-hmm.

19 F ...they waited for, uh, one to be issued here and then they brought me to the 20 border and handed me over in order to get around extraditing me. So...

21 M Yes.

22 F ...but while I'm in here right now, I've submitted some Freedom of Information
23 requests, uh, to get some documents that will further help the citizenship issue, 24 um, so I'm waiting on those documents from IRCC and from the Ministry of 25 Social Development.

26 M Uh-huh.

27 F But that's just gonna further prove, uh, my claims of not being a Canadian citizen
28 and all, so...

29 M Right. Right. I don't know, if you have so much, uh, uh, proof of that, you know 30 what I mean?

31 F Yeah, yeah, but it's, well, like, okay, the thing about the judge, um, at the 32 probation hearing when she was claiming that, uh, that (sighs) this evidence, uh,

1 is not sufficient to like convince her or something that I'm not a Canadian citizen,
2 she's just making herself look like a fucking retard, um, and so when I put the 3 recordings from that hearing on the internet, as well, and that everybody's gonna 4 see that like, well, what the fuck is this judge talking about?

5 M Mm-hmm.

6 F Anyway.

7 M Yeah.

8 F Oh, I have...

9 M I hear you.

10 F ...a hearing on, uh, June 3rd, the Crown is, um, uh, applying to dismiss the 11 appeal based on (sighs) my, uh, failure to prosecute it...

12 M Oh.

13 F ...but my response is simply gonna be well, look, I'm in custody now, I have 14 absolutely no way of prosecuting it...

15 M (Sighs)

16 F ...um...

17 M Yeah.

18 F ...but I'm, I'm kind of hoping that that's what they do anyway because that plays
19 into my plan of showing about how corrupt everything is up here that, you know,
20 they engage in all this corruption at the trial and then they get the appeal
21 dismissed by fucking up and making so I can't just...

22 M Mm-hmm.

23 F ...(unintelligible). So anyway.

24 M Well, well, (makes noise) I don't even know what to say anymore to that.

25 F Oh no, it's, it is...

26 M Hope everything is over and, uh, pass it over (unintelligible), you know?

27 F Well, yeah, yeah, um, yeah, but I can't comment on it right now.

28 M Okay, okay.

29 F Oh, uh, the...

30 M Okay.

31 F ...stuff that I told you when I was, uh, in Tacoma, the stuff I told you about the 32 investigation, i-, in to the handling of the case and all...

1 M Yes, yeah, yeah, what happened?

2 F ...(unintelligible) they, well, that is still going, um, I think, it's probably done by

3 now but, um, first, I can't really talk about that on this phone, uh, second...

4 M Okay.

5 F ...um, people at the lower level like the, the prosecutor and stuff don't really have 6 any...

7 M Uh-huh.

8 F ...involvement in that. That investigation's happening much, much higher...

9 M Oh...

10 F ...than that.

11 M ...okay.

12 F And so I wouldn't be surprised if the, like if Myhre doesn't even realizing that it's 13 happening but, uh, Lagamat (phonetic) has been interviewed and the jurors have 14 been interviewed, um...

15 M Uh-huh.

16 F ...and so the evidence has been gotten from them and Lagamat admitted in...

17 M Oh.

18 F ...(unintelligible) or at least, from what I'm told, anyway, Lagamat...

19 M Right.

20 F ...admitted that, uh, he was acting, uh, in conjunction with, uh, with Myhre...

21 M Huh.

22 F ...because they were, they were trying to say, oh well, so are you so incompetent

23 that you and so I guess, they were playing on his pride or something and, you

24 know?

25 M Well...

26 F He got pissed off about being accused of being so incompetent and so then he 27 admitted that, uh, he was acting...

28 M Oh hopefully.

29 F ...with Myhre.

30 M Oh well, I guess, that's a good thing.

31 F Y-, well, yeah, it's a good thing if they actually publish it, if they actually...

32 M Yeah.

1 F ...make that information...

2 M They...

3 F ...known, um...

4 M Yeah, that's the hard part, make them do it.

5 F Yeah...

6 M I, I (unintelligible).

7 F ...um, and it (unintelligible).

8 M But you know?

9 F Yeah. Anyway, um, I should let you go because I only put five bucks...

10 M Okay.

11 F ...on the account so...

12 M Okay, okay, uh, if I send this stuff, are you gonna be able to get it or are they

13 gonna send it back 'cause I, the other time they said you shouldn't be receiving 14 this stuff?

15 F No, no, that, that, that should be all addressed to now, um, because I've 16 already...

17 M Okay.

18 F ...com-, gone through the complaint process on that and...

19 M Okay.

20 F ...and also that was at, at the other jail so...

21 M Oh okay.

22 F ...at this jail...

23 M Okay.

24 F ...it shouldn't be an issue.

25 M Okay.

26 F Oh, um...

27 M Okay.

28 F ...what was I gonna say? Oh have you listened to the recordings, uh, yeah,

29 you've already heard those recordings...

30 M Some of them...

31 F ...right? (Unintelligible)

32 M ...yes, not all of them but yes, I did.

1 F No, no, I mean...

2 M Yeah.

3 F ...the fair (unintelligible) stuff, the phone bills?

4 M Yes.

5 F Okay, so...

6 M Of course...

7 F ...it's (unintelligible).

8 M ...of course.

9 F All right, (unintelligible).

10 M Yeah, yeah, yeah, I did, I did.

11 F Okay...

12 M Oh yeah.

13 F ...cool, um, 'cause I'm gonna need some of those recordings that are on the 14 website at that if there's actually going to be a trial in August, um...

15 M Okay.

16 F ...but I don't know how you would be able to get those to me in here because the 17 jail won't allow any...

18 M (Makes noise)

19 F ...uh, (unintelligible) just like...

20 M Yeah...

21 F ...(unintelligible)...

22 M ...I don't know.

23 F ...but that's something I need to bring up with the, uh, judge.

24 M Okay.

25 F Um, oh, oh and see, I'm requesting this prosecutor request or schedule a pretrial

26 conference so I can raise all these issues in court like that I haven't gotten the 27 disclosure material and stuff but, um...

28 M Uh-huh.

29 F ...I haven't heard anything back from the Crown yet, so I'm gonna give it to...

30 M Oh.

1 F ...until next week and I don't hear back from him then I'm just going to try to
2 figure out I can get a hold of the courts and request the hearing myself. Oh I 3 don't...

4 M I...

5 F ...mean the hearing, yeah, the pretrial conference.

6 M Mm-hmm.

7 F 'Cause they should've...

8 M Well...

9 F ...scheduled that at the time that they scheduled the trial but they were playing 10 dumb, going, oh I don't know anything about scheduling a pretrial...

11 M Hm.

12 F ...conference and I'm like, well, I'm representing myself and I'm in custody, you 13 have to schedule a pretrial...

14 M Yeah.

15 F ...conference so that the court knows that we're on schedule, otherwise...

16 M Of course.

17 F ...what's gonna happen is the first day of the trial's gonna come and I'm gonna,
18 well...

19 M We...

20 F ...no, there's still a whole bunch of, of issues to address. Anyway but...

21 M So...

22 F ...I think, they're doing that on purpose because that, that way the first of day of 23 trail will come...

24 M (Makes noise)

25 F ...(unintelligible) and it'll just get delayed a few more months but, uh...

26 M Well...

27 F ...'cause they...

28 M ...hopefully...

29 F ...they think I'm an idiot. They think I'm an idiot and I won't have any idea about 30 this stuff so...

31 M But you do know (chuckles).

1 F (Chuckling) Of course. I mean especially, since I've already been through it
2 numerous times before.
3 M Yeah.
4 F Anyway, so that's it, okay.
5 M Okay.
6 F Thanks.
7 M Anyway I'm about to pay here at the store, so at the cashier...
8 F Okay.
9 M ...so...
10 F Okay, bye.
11 M Okay, buh-bye.

?F O'Malley (phonetic)?

?M Yes.

1 ?F Are you my change room officer?

2 ?M I am.

3 ?F Ah, I have work for you.

4 ?M All right.

5 ?F I have a (unintelligible) for some guy's stuff, phone's been going bananas.

6 ?M (Unintelligible) right now?

7 ?F Well, I have all the information up here.

8 ?M Oh.

9 ?F But when you don't answer it, it comes to me.

10 ?M Oh, (unintelligible).

11 ?F (Unintelligible), I have, I may have answers.

12 ?M Do we have (unintelligible)?

13 ?F I have one, (unintelligible).

16 ?M Fox, over here.

17 Unintelligible background conversation

18 Long pause (ends at E.T. 00:09:42)

19 C Are you Patrick?

20 P Oh, yes, Patrick Fox.

21 F Hi, Patrick.

22 P Hello.

23 F I'm Det. Fontana and this is Det. Christian.

24 P Sure.

25 F We're with the Vancouver Police.

26 P Yes, and I know your name.

27 F You know the name?

28 P I sent you a letter.

29 F You did. I got it. So, I know that you're aware that you're subject to audio and 30 video recording when you're in police custody, right?

31 P Sure.

1 F Okay. And as you know, as I know that you know, in your letter, you mentioned
2 you're aware that I'm investigating you for criminal harassment and breach of 3 probation.

4 P Mm-hmm.

5 F And, uh, I'm here to talk to you about that today, but I wanna give you the 6 opportunity to contact a lawyer before you talk to me. Is that something you
7 would like to do?

8 P Nope. Um, is this being recorded? I would prefer...

9 F It is.

10 P ...it is. Good.

11 F Yes, absolutely.

12 Background noise

13 P Where is (unintelligible)?

14 F Right here.

15 P Okay, great.

16 F Yeah. Okay. So, like I said, my name's Det. Fontana, but you can call me Jen
17 (phonetic). Um, what do you prefer to be called? (Unintelligible)...

18 P Det. Fon-.... No, I'll call you Det. Fontana and you can call me Mr. Re-
19 (phonetic), or, uh, Mr. Fox, sorry.

20 F Okay. Sure.

21 P I mean, we're not quite on a first-name basis...

22 F Absolutely.

23 P ...yet.

24 F Yeah, that's why I like to ask 'cause I don't wanna call you Patrick if you don't 25 wanna be called Patrick, so Mr. Fox it is.

26 P Because it's my understanding you're probably here to try to see if maybe you 27 can charge me with something with respect to the website and...

28 F Well, I, yeah, I'm like, I'm...

29 P I mean...

30 F ...here...

31 P ...if that's the case, that puts us in adversarial roles and so...

32 F Of course, absolutely. Right? And...

1 P Mm-hmm.

2 F ...and like I said, I, I am investigating the website and...

3 P Mm-hmm.

4 F ...I'm investigating your role in the website, but I'm here to talk to you about that.

5 P Okay.

6 F Um, 'cause you, you, you did write me the letter. I just got it today, so I haven't...

7 P Really?

8 F ...been ignoring you. Yeah, our, isn't our mail system great? (Chuckles)

9 P Hm.

10 F Um, so I wanted to see what you had to say to me 'cause you took the time to 11 write me a letter.

12 P Well, um, I can't remember exactly what I said in the letter...

13 F I have...

14 P ...but, uh...

15 F ...a copy of it. Would you like to read it?

16 P Oh, sure.

17 F Okay.

18 P But, um, clearly, I know that with what is on the website right now, the proof of

19 Capuano's perjury, her excessive perjury at the first trial and the collusion

20 between Myhre and Lagemaat, etcetera, if there was going to be a new trial,

21 she'd be cross-examined on all of that perjury, she'd have no, um, credibility,

22 because of it, it would be very unlikely that they'd be able to get another criminal

23 harassment conviction, but then that's going to raise questions about how could

24 there have been a criminal harassment conviction at the first trial and not at the 25 second if they're based on the same conduct? And essentially...

26 C Right.

27 P ...the same evidence. So, then that will call the system into disrepute. But then

28 there's the problem if you guys don't prosecute me or charge me and then

29 prosecute me for criminal harassment, all the militant feminists and such that

30 hate me so much for the original website are gonna be screaming about, oh, why

31 aren't you prosecuting this guy? You already convicted him once, so clearly it

32 was criminal. Um, and then of course, there's the problem of, if you charge me

1 with probation violations but not the criminal harassment, then it looks like you're 2 not taking Capuano's claim seriously and that you're more concerned with 3 enforcing petty court orders than you are with her safety. Unfortunate.

4 F I couldn't have said it better myself.

5 Short pause

6 P Oh, okay, so, I mentioned about that in here, yeah.

7 F Mm-hmm.

8 P Okay, wonderful. Oh, yeah, and then there's the misconduct on the part of 9 Holmes (phonetic), but that's a whole other issue. (Chuckles) I mean, it should 10 be obvious from this point, it seems the prosecutors don't quite get it, but it
11 should be obvious, I would think, that one of my goals here is to bring the system
12 into disrepute. I mean, there was no criminal harassment in the first place when 13 you look at all of the evidence, when you look at the emails back and forth
14 between Capuano and myself, it was not me just harassing her and without being 15 provoked or anything, but, uh, Lagemaat and Myhre colluded to keep most of 16 those emails out of the trial and.... And then, of course, nobody confronted her 17 on any of her perjurious testimony at the trial. (Clears throat) So that's how they 18 were able to get the conviction at first criminal harassment trial.

19 F Okay. Yeah, see, I wasn't sure, I know you had mentioned the perjury, but, uh,
20 you...

21 P Oh, it's all on...

22 F ...(unintelligible)...

23 P ...the website, you've seen the website.

24 F I have seen the website, yes. There's quite a bit to read on there though.

25 P The HTML versions of the transcripts of Capuano's testimony, which are all on 26 there...

27 F Yes.

28 P ...um, I don't know if you've, uh, noticed, but there's parts that are highlighted in 29 red. Those are the parts where she was committing perjury and Lagemaat and 30 Myhre.... Lagemaat was the lawyer forced on me to do the cross-examination.
31 Myhre was...

32 F Right.

1 P ...the, uh, prosecutor. So, the part highlighted in red are where she was 2 committing perjury and they knew that it was perjury because the proof was on 3 the website already. Um, if you click on there, it shows a comment, I'm not sure
4 if you were aware of that, there...

5 F You know...

6 P ...(unintelligible), there's a...

7 F ...I'm not sure, I'll have to go and...

8 P Something...

9 F ...take another look.

10 P ...at the top where it says if you click on these red parts, then it'll show the 11 comment, uh, explaining where the evidence was, proving that she was 12 committing perjury.

13 F Right.

14 P Anyway...

15 Unintelligible background conversation

16 F Someone's not happy out there.

17 C No.

18 F Um...

19 C Just don't wanna close that other door 'cause it's got that big ugly lock on it.

20 F Yeah, and then we'll be locked in here, that'd be...

21 C Yeah.

22 F ...no good. (Chuckles) Um, so, I understand, like I'm just wondering what, how is 23 the website up and running? Like what, how is that even happening?

24 P Are you asking how is it physically possible or...

25 F Yeah.

26 P Well, there's a hosting provider and there was a hosting plan purchased with that 27 hosting provider and then the relevant content was uploaded using RCP, I
28 believe, it was. But anyway, uploaded to the website, uh, DNS entries were 29 made with the DNS registrar and that's it.

30 F Okay.

31 P Oh, and then, of course, it was registered with Google, Bing, etcetera, so that 32 that their web crawler would, uh, search and index it.

1 F Right, so if you Google it, that's how it pops up? I'm, I'm not very internet-savvy
2 myself, so I, I don't know much about it.

3 P Um, I'm not sure what the status of it is in Google. At this point, because it
4 became publically accessible and registered with Google just a couple of days
5 before I was arrested.

6 F Okay.

7 P And so I know, as far as I know from firsthand knowledge, uh, when, the last time
8 I did a Google search for anything that was on the website, it came up maybe 9 40th or 50th in the search results.

10 F Okay.

11 P Now, it might come up higher, I don't know.

12 F Right. So...

13 P Are you trying to get me to...

14 F No...

15 P ...say something along the lines...

16 F ...I'm just gonna, I'm gonna ask you...

17 P ...of I...

18 F ...all right, are you...

19 P ...put the stuff on there or...

20 F ...did you, did you create this new website? Des-, www.desicapuano.com?

21 P Did I create the website? Um, yes, I published all of the information, I published 22 the website.

23 F Okay.

24 P By doing that, I violated the probation conditions, the civil injunction, and if the 25 website can be found to be criminal harassment, then it would mean that I would 26 be guilty of that as well.

27 F Okay. Can I ask you reasons for, for creating it after you went through, I know 28 you went, like, so you created the first one...

29 P Yeah.

30 F ...back in 2016. And then you were convicted of criminal harassment for that.
31 And then you, you got released December 30th...

32 P Mm-hmm.

1 F ...2018. And here we are...

2 P Mm-hmm.

3 F ...Mar-, early March. And the new website pops up.

4 P Well, first, it took some time to make all the updates and it's...

5 F Right.

6 P ...very time-consuming generating these, uh, the transcripts or the HTML

7 versions of the transcripts and making the other updates to the site. Um, so, as

8 for why I would put the website back online.... 'Kay, you know that we have a

9 child together, right? A child that she abandoned when he was a year and a half,

10 a child that I raised by myself for nine years. And then she comes along, out of

11 the blue, grabs him, runs off to another state and tries to get custody based on a

12 false allegation that I'd been hiding, hiding him from her for nine years. When

13 that didn't work, then she starts calling Homeland Security to try to get me

14 deported from the US. Eventually, I do get deported, I come here to Canada, I

15 lose custody of him, and then she starts making it harder and harder for me to

16 have any contact with him until eventually, she completely cuts off contact. At 17 this point, I've had no contact with my son since 2016. So, as for why, um, 18 because she took my child away from me.

19 F Okay.

20 P Um, because she took my child away from me and because somehow, she's

21 able to just shed a few tears and everybody completely forgets all the horrible

22 stuff she's ever done and takes her side completely and it's just, it's baffling that

23 everybody can just completely ignore all the bad things that some people do

24 simply because they shed a couple of tears and pretend to cry.

25 F (Unintelligible)

26 P So the goal of the website is to make it publically known the bad things that she

27 has done so she can't keep hiding behind this façade of being this sweet, caring,

28 loving person that she's really not. I mean, a, a sweet, caring, loving person

29 doesn't take a child that she's had nothing to do with for nine years and run away

30 to another state and force him to live with people he doesn't know.

31 F Right.

32 P Anyway, that's my opinion.

1 F Yeah, no, I...

2 P Um...

3 F ...I can't imagine what that would feel like...

4 P And...

5 F ...a (unintelligible).

6 P ...as for the new content that's on there about my case and all of the, uh, RCMP

7 reports and the transcripts and...

8 F Mm-hmm.

9 P ...the audio recordings and all of that, the purpose of that is to expose all of the 10 corruption and the misconduct that occurred in my case. Um, and to make it

11 known that the only reason that I was convicted, uh, of criminal harassment was 12 because there was collusion and such.

13 F Okay. Well, I appreciate you being honest with me.

14 P Sure.

15 F Do you...

16 P I'm, uh, I'll, I'll tell you, I'm not concerned with being charged with criminal

17 harassment at this point, that's part of my goal, that's, that's what I want is to be 18 charged with criminal harassment and that means there's gonna be another trial.

19 F Right.

20 P Capuano is likely not gonna come here and testify because she knows there's all

21 this proof of all this perjury she committed. And in Canada, perjury's a much

22 more serious offence than it is in the US. Um, most likely, she's not gonna be

23 convicted or charged with perjury, but still, if she comes here, she knows she's

24 gonna be cross-examined on it. And my goal would be for a new trial for her to

25 come, uh, cross examine her on that, obviously, she'll have no credibility, I'll be 26 acquitted, and then I'll show everybody, look, this is your justice system.

27 F All right.

28 P And then maybe, hopefully, one day, I can get deported back to the US

29 (unintelligible).

30 F Right, 'cause you're, you said you're an American citizen, right?

31 P And I've provided more than enough evidence to support that on the website.

32 I've got a Florida birth certificate, um, IRCC stated in writing and in the recordings

1 of the phone calls, I'm sure you heard them, as did CBSA, that I'm not a
2 Canadian citizen, that I have no status in Canada. Um, I'm not eligible for MSP
3 or any kind of government assistance, so I stay in Canada, I'm stuck living in 4 homeless shelters, which is why in March, I got fed up and decided, oh, to hell
5 with this, I'm going back to the US.

6 F Right.

7 P But first, I gave the court an opportunity, I went, I had a couple of hearings to try
8 to remove the condition that I not leave British Columbia and then Justice
9 Holmes comes out with this ridiculous thing about, uh, this evidence is non-
10 sufficient for me to conclude that you're not a Canadian citizen, she said.

11 F Okay. Sounds like a really frustrating ordeal for you...

12 P It is.

13 F ...this whole thing.

14 P It is. I'm a software engineer, I make a very good, uh, very good living as a 15 software engineer, but I'm not allowed to work in Canada. If I work, I'm breaking 16 the law, thereby violating probation, so I can get arrested and come back to jail.
17 And I can't go back to the US because then Homeland Security is gonna hold me
18 until the Canadian authorities issue a warrant and then bring me back to Peace
19 Arch and give me to the RCMP.

20 F Which has happened.

21 P Yep.

22 F (Unintelligible), right. Okay.

23 P So...

24 F All right then. Well, um, I, I don't, I can't offer you any advice on how to deal with 25 all of that 'cause...

26 P Right.

27 F ...that's...

28 P That's okay.

29 F ...(unintelligible)...

30 P Another part of my goal is to expose that as well, to show like how ridiculous this 31 is, that I was deported to Canada, IRCC clearly acknowledges I'm not Canadian,
32 um, yet they allowed Homeland Security to deport me here and now, IRCC is

1 saying I'm not, I'm not Canadian, I'm not admissible, and that if I leave the
2 country, I won't be allowed back in. CBSA is saying the same thing, but then
3 when Homeland Security says to CBSA, oh, we have this guy take him back, and 4 then they go, okay, okay.

5 F Right. Okay. Well, I have a couple of things there.

6 P Sure.

7 F Um, as you know, I have your, your cell phone and your tablet. I know you were 8 requesting for, to get them back.

9 P Sure.

10 F Um, so, I, I actually have written a warrant to go into those 'cause I don't think I
11 would be doing my job if I had them...

12 P Yeah.

13 F ...and didn't, and didn't go into them.

14 P You don't need a warrant, I'll give you whatever you need to go into them...

15 F Oh.

16 P ...and get...

17 F I already wrote it, but what I was...

18 P Oh.

19 F ...going to ask is I have this, um, extension request to, to keep, um, to h-, keep 20 the items and...

21 P Mm-hmm.

22 F ...you would have to go before a justice or I have this consent form that I created
23 just for you to sign, that you're okay if you give me consent to keep those items.

24 P Okay, and...

25 F And what I, if you, if you're not comfortable with giving consent, I have this, which 26 is an application for further detention of the items.

27 P Mm-hmm.

28 F Um, so if you don't wanna sign the consent form, which you're not required to do 29 at all...

30 P Mm-hmm.

31 F ...um, we can have a, a hearing where I explain to the justice why I think that I
32 would like to keep the items because...

1 P Hm.

2 F ...I haven't executed the warrant, I can't execute the warrant, our techno-,

3 Technological Crime Unit has to execute them. And, uh, they haven't done that

4 yet. So this, um, just is, we would go before the justice and I would say, I need

5 them because I haven't executed the warrant yet. And you would have your 6 opportunity to say why you want me to give them back.

7 P Mm-hmm.

8 F But, um...

9 P Let me ask you, on here, it says, 'til September 24th, 2019, um, if you finish your

10 investigation prior to that, and I get released from custody prior to that date. Uh, 11 is it possible to get them back at that time? I'm...

12 F Absolutely.

13 P ...just thinking in terms of convenience, like, the tablet, I'm not overly concerned

14 about, the phone, (unintelligible) I am because I like that phone and that model

15 and they don't make it anymore, um, but I don't think that phone would work with 16 the US car-.... Oh, maybe. I don't know. Anyway, um, I'm not concerned about 17 anything that's on the phone or the tablet, because...

18 F Right.

19 P ...obviously, there's nothing on there. You're gonna find that when you...

20 F Okay.

21 P ...go on it. Um, and all of the other storage devices, I don't really care about 22 those.

23 F Okay.

24 P Um, the phone, uh, I mean, the phone is the biggest deal because I'm thinking,

25 jeez, when I get released from custody here, I'm not gonna have a phone

26 because they have my phone and then I'm gonna have to buy one, except I don't

27 know if I'm gonna have access to any financial resources when I get out, so...

28 F Right. Okay. Yeah, no, if, if we have gone through, if it's, if it's been executed...

29 P Mm-hmm.

30 F ...and I no longer need them, I would absolutely release them to you.

31 P Um...

32 Background noise

1 F Perfect.

2 P ...124816 is the password for both devices.

3 F Okay, uh, sorry, 124186?

4 P No, 124816.

5 F 8-...

6 P 124...

7 F ...16.

8 P 1-2-4-8-16.

9 F Perfect.

10 P It's, uh, binary, each number is a multiple of two.

11 F Okay.

12 P It's a computer thing.

13 F (Chuckles)

14 P Now, let me ask you, getting access to the device, does that, like the warrant that

15 you would be seeking, is it only access to the device and what is contained on

16 the devices? Or does that, are you also seeking access to any online accounts

17 that you might be able to access through the device? Say like my Gmail account 18 for example.

19 F Um, you know, I'm not certain on, I believe it would just be things that were on, 20 anything that was saved on the device.

21 P Yeah, okay.

22 F As far as I'm aware...

23 P Right, right.

24 F ...at this point. Um, yeah, base-, like...

25 P I mean...

26 F ...like...

27 P ...you're more than welcome...

28 F ...like I said...

29 P ...to have access to my...

30 F ...I appreciate...

31 P ...mail (unintelligible) and...

1 F Uh, you know what, and I probably shoulda just asked before I wrote the warrant,
2 so.... You never know, right? Um...

3 P Mm-hmm.

4 F ...like I said, I just don't think I would be doing my job if I didn't go, i-, if I have 5 those devices and I didn't go into them...

6 P Right.

7 F ...um, so, uh, that's, yeah, I appreciate you signing this, 'cause that will, that will 8 just expedite the whol-, the process, so I don't need, I don't need to give this to 9 you because we won't have to have the hearing...

10 P Sure.

11 F ...'cause you gave consent, so, it simplifies the process a little bit. Do you have 12 any, do you have any questions for me?

13 P Um, not really yet because I don't know how you're intending to proceed.

14 F Right. Well, I, I will be forwarding, um, charges of criminal harassment and 15 breach of probation...

16 P Mm-hmm.

17 F ...for the, the new website and the uploading of the, the legal documents as you,
18 'cause you, when you were given those documents to self-represent, you signed, 19 uh...

20 P Uh, yes, but as I've been saying, um, the documents, the documents which are 21 the same as the documents received through disclosure were obtained through 22 other sources, not through disclosure. Um, there would've been no way
23 physically that I could have copied them from disclosure because, and...

24 F But they've still been published.

25 P Oh, yes, but regardless, um, I was only precluded from publishing them, um, 26 from publishing material that I received through the disclosure process. I was 27 very explicit when the, um, when the judge made the order in a provincial court,
28 uh, to not, make sure that it doesn't include anything received from other
29 sources because my concern was that the Crown would be able to effectively 30 prohibit me from publishing anything at all by simply putting a copy of it on the 31 disclosure...

32 F Right.

1 P ...hard drive.

2 F Okay, well...

3 P So...

4 F And that, and that's for Crown Counsel maybe to...

5 P Mm.

6 F ...to decide 'cause, uh, like I said, as you know, the police in BC, we don't lay

7 charges, we recommend charges and then the Crown Counsel's the one that

8 actually lays, um, the charges...

9 P Mm-hmm.

10 F ...so, all I can do is write my report and say, this is the evidence that I have, um,

11 and then they, they take it from there, so...

12 P Okay.

13 F Yeah. So...

14 P You don't happen to know which Crown it's gonna be assigned to you yet, do

15 you?

16 F I don't. No, I'm not sure.

17 P Okay.

18 F They don't usually tell us ahead of time, but whoever, maybe whoever's working

19 that day? Um, I have been, I've been speaking with Patti Tomasson.

20 P Mm-hmm.

21 F But I don't know.

22 P And in the course of your investigation in this matter, have you spoken with 23 Capuano?

24 F Yes.

25 P Okay.

26 F Yes.

27 P And any mention of my son?

28 F What do you mean? Any m-.... Like in my report?

29 P I've had.... Well, no, no, you were speaking with Capuano, I mean, is he still 30 alive? How's he doing? Um...

31 F You know, I didn't...

32 P ...is he still with her? I mean, he's 18 now, so...

1 F Right. I didn't...

2 P ...I don't know if he's...

3 F ...ask that, but I can...

4 P (Unintelligible) his last year of high school, so, (unintelligible)...

5 F I can look into that for you if you'd like and get...

6 P Well, sure, I mean, I'm curious if he's seen the new website because, obviously,

7 he's seen what's been in the news media, which was completely one-sided.

8 Um...

9 F Mm-hmm.

10 P ...and he's heard whatever Capuano's been telling him, which is, of course, one-

11 sided.

12 F Right.

13 P Um, and so, I'm curious if he's seen the proof that's on the website now that 14 proves that she was lying about all of this stuff.

15 F Right.

16 P Anyway...

17 F If you'd like an update on his wellbeing, I can definitely look into that for you.

18 P Yeah, I'd appreciate that.

19 F For sure, I can do that. Blain?

20 C No, I think that's everything.

21 F That's everything? Awesome.

22 P Any idea how long all of this is gonna take before, uh, you'll forward all this to the 23 Crown and...

24 F Um...

25 P ...you know?

26 F ...it will t-, it will be a bit. Um, I know you have a court date coming up in August.

27 P Yes, that's the trial for the leaving British Columbia violations. Most likely, that'll

28 probably be delayed until, I don't know, September or something?

29 F Right. Yeah, I'm hoping, I'm hoping to have it done relatively soon, but the, it 30 takes time unfortunately, and, uh...

31 P Mm-hmm.

32 F ...this process doesn't move quickly.

1 P Hmm. And in the course of your investigation, have you looked into, at all, any,
2 mm, recent social media activity related to the website or, mm, stuff that's been 3 in the news?

4 C We can't actually tell you a lot about the investigation prior to disclosure, but, uh,
5 when Crown does get a package, they'll disclose it to your defence counsel and,
6 and you'll have it all there.

7 P I'm representing myself. I'm aware...

8 C Oh, okay...

9 P ...(unintelligible).

10 C ...perfect. Yeah, so, and unfortunately, we're sort of still in the middle of it, so we 11 can only tell you so...

12 P In...

13 C ...much.

14 P ...the middle of it?

15 C Well...

16 P It seems pretty cut and dry. Y-...

17 C Well, we're...

18 P Did you publish this stuff? Yes, I did.

19 C Yeah.

20 P Um...

21 C We're pretty much done, but we, we can only tell you so much, right?

22 P Okay.

23 C I know it's a pain, especially when you're self-representing...

24 P It's...

25 C ...'cause it's, it's...

26 P ...it's not a pain.

27 C ...yeah.

28 P Um, okay.

29 F Okay.

30 C Any other questions?

31 P Yes, why did the RCMP, um, push this off to you guys?

1 F Uh, I believe because at the, when they realized that the website had, the second
2 website had been created, you were believed to have been staying in Vancouver.
3 P Mm-hmm.
4 F Um, so, therefore, it becomes a Vancouver file.
5 P But then why didn't they push off the other probation violations about me leaving
6 British Columbia because I was living at the Yukon, or staying at the Yukon at 7 that time as well.
8 F Um, because they didn't happen in Vancouver.
9 P They didn't happen in.... So me failing to report in Vancouver while I was living
10 in Vancouver didn't happen in Vancouver?
11 F Well, that one might, that's probation, that's not...
12 P Right.
13 F ...that has nothing to do...
14 P And...
15 F ...with that, so that's, that's a separate breach be-...
16 P Mm.
17 F ...from your probation officer, but the crossing of the border...
18 P Happened in Surrey...
19 F ...happened in Surrey.
20 P ...not Burnaby. So shouldn't they have pushed that off to Surrey?
21 F That, I can't...
22 P Pretty suspicious.
23 F ...(unintelligible).
24 P I believe I mentioned.... Well, yeah, all right. Okay.
25 F I don't have that answer, I'm sorry. Yeah. All right.
26 P Sure.
27 F Cool. All right, well, thank you for taking the time to, uh, to meet with me. I really 28 appreciate it and I will definitely look into, um, how your son is doing. And if I...
29 P Sure.
30 F ...hear anything back, I will get a message to you.
31 P Um, can you tell me if you spoke with, uh, say, like my friend Liz (phonetic)
32 Munuz (phonetic) in Los Angeles?

1 F I have not. Should...

2 P Oh.

3 F ...I?

4 P No. I mean, you can if you want to, it's just, uh...

5 F I, I noticed on your, on your, um, your note there, that looked like a little bit of a, a

6 to-do list for the website that...

7 P Sure.

8 F ...it said, for Liz, on the top.

9 P Yes.

10 F So is she helping you with the website?

11 P I'm not going to comment on that, but, uh, I would say no. I mean, she wouldn't 12 have the technical, um, capabilities anyway.

13 F No.

14 P Intellectually.

15 F Okay. Are any updates happening right now to the website while you're in here?

16 P Not to the best of my knowledge.

17 F Okay.

18 P But there's gonna be lots to update when I get out.

19 F (Chuckles) Okay. Fair enough. Okay. All right. Well, I think we'll just leave it 20 at...

21 C (Unintelligible)...

22 F ...that then.

23 C ...uh, 2:15 PM.

24 F 2:15. Okay, and we will conclude the interview.

25 P Wonderful.

Re: Request for case status;
Vancouver Police Dept file no. 19-49074

Dear Sir/Miss:

I respectfully request to be informed of the status of the above referenced case. In June 2019, Detective Fontana informed me she would be recommending a charge of criminal harassment. That was more than four months ago.

The alleged offense occurred more than seven months ago. I have consistently, clearly insisted, publicly, and in open court, that I put the website back online in March 2019. I don't see how I can possibly make a clearer admission.

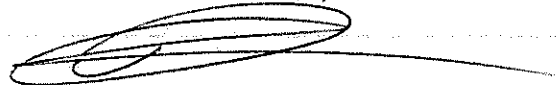

I was convicted of criminal harassment based, in large part, on the website. If the website constituted criminal harassment in June 2017 (when I was convicted) then it ABSOLUTELY MUST constitute criminal harassment now!

For the above reasons, I sternly DEMAND to be charged with, and prosecuted for, criminal harassment!

Moreover, make no mistake, although the website is currently offline (likely due to a complaint being filed with the hosting provider and my failure to respond to it due to being in custody), that is temporary. The website WILL be put back online, and will continue to be updated.

I thank you for your time and I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

Patrick Fox

DATE	TIME	Details
2019/03/18	0730	Assigned as lead investigator by Sgt. WHEELER
	V2
	1130	Called Vancouver probation – FOX is assigned to Abeed BHIMJI who does not work on Mondays – will touch base tomorrow
	1139	Spoke with Lookout Shelter staff who advised that clients have access to two computers – have to sign up to use them but if there is no wait list there is no time limit – lobby closed from 11pm-7am everyday – no access to computers during this time
	1220	Cst. PRASAD attended lookout shelter to inquire if FOX was staying there – they advised he had been there every night from Feb 14-March 16 but had left with most of his belongings on March 16 th and told staff he was moving to the United States – FOC left his medication at the shelter Shelter advised they would call should he return
	1321	Spoke with Sgt. WHEELER who spoke with original investigator from Burnaby – he no longer works in Burnaby but passed info onto current members in Burnaby – believe Burnaby should take conduct of file due to previous investigation, extent of background etc.
	1530	Attempted to speak with homeland security to ensure FOX won't be able to cross border, 3 different numbers provided by 3 different agencies – unable to get a hold of anyone who could provide that info – will attempt in the morning
2019/03/19	0847	Spoke with homeland security – advised that FOX crossed the border at the Blaine crossing on March 15, 2019 @ 2100 (unsure if that was Eastern or Pacific time) Used BCDL 6261564 Refused to share any more information as there is no MOU in place
	0900	Advised CBSA that FOX had crossed into the United States – completed the required look out request form to place a flag on FOX at the Canadian border should he try to return to Canada
	1021	Sent an assistance request form to Orlando CARIDAD at homeland security to request further information regarding the crossing of FOX – no reply despite requesting the email in order to share information between agencies
	1022	Spoke with Desiree CAPUANO and advised her FOX had crossed the border – she stated “oh my god, he's coming to kill me” Conducted safety planning with CAPUANO CAPUANO believes that FOX will hide at his friend Liz MUNOZ's house – he has been arrested there each time he has been deported
	1101	CPIC sent requesting a P1 on CAPUANO's residence and work place
	1338	Unable to get a phone call through to V1 after multiple attempts (says out of order?) sent an email to all 3 listed detectives on the PD website
	1352	Received an email back from V1 which made mention of protection orders available to CAPUANO as well as they would do a BOLO to patrol for FOX Sent an email back to V1 requesting an officer speak with CAPUANO in person regarding protection orders as I am unfamiliar with US law and what would be available/appropriate
	1508	Spoke with CAPUANO to suggest the protection order – she advised that she has already made a report with the police and her file number was V1 She planned on attending the court house the next morning and applying for a protection order

March 20, 2019	1025	V1 An OTL (on the lookout) had been disseminated to patrol in the area US attorney's office may be able to extend FOX's conditions In order for protection order to take effect, FOX needs to be served with it first Will call of police contact is made with FOX
	1127	Received a call from Det. Kristy BROWN of the Surrey HRO – advised that FOX had attempted to cross in to the U.S. at the Blaine crossing however was not granted access, he was detained and made a refugee claim Is currently being held in Tacoma until his refugee claim can be investigated (will take months) Surrey will be writing warrants for FOX's arrest based on his breaching his conditions (no go to border, leave BC w/o permission) and FOX's PO will be writing a warrant for his fail to report It is unlikely that FOX will be successful in his refugee claim, if he is not permitted to stay in the U.S. he will be returned to Canada and picked up on his outstanding warrants. There has been no activity on FOX's website since he has been in custody
March 27, 2019	0758	Spoke with V1 and advised her that FOX did not make entry into the United States and was being held in Tacoma while his refugee claim is investigated
April 1, 2019	V2
	1405	Spoke with John PYPER of the Technological Crime Unit about what an invest into the new postings on the website would entail. He suggested obtaining disclosure from Burnaby RCMP for the original file to see how proof was obtained that FOX was the person behind the website PYPER advised will likely be 1 if not 2 Production orders to obtain IP address and client info from Go Daddy – this may still not provide proof that FOX is behind the posts.
April 4, 2019	V2
	1015	Spoke with Cst. Jason POTTS of Burnaby Serious Crime Unit – he advised that he was the original interviewer that FOX confessed to in 2016, he has been asked to interview FOX again when he is arrested at the boarder today – POTTS advised that he would warn FOX that he was being investigated for breach out of Vancouver in relation to the new website "desicapuano.com" and he would ask question specifically pertaining to the website POTTS will provide VPD with a copy of the interview as well as a transcript
