Subject called from ICE/Santa Ana to advise that he was in custody. He had questions about issuance of an ETD for his deportation to Canada. Went over the requirements with him but informed him that we would wait for an official request from ICE. Advised him also that his proof of citizenship would be required. A friend of his has his birth certificate and he will attempt to contact her to drop off document at L.A. mission. Subject who denies he is the person ICE claims him to be said that if the US were willing to pay for his trip to Canada he would rather do that than remain in ICE custody.
